GENERAL ORDER

NO. 17

WAR DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON

JAN 2 1864

ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR

TO THE COMMANDING GENERAL OF THE DISTRICT OF KANSAS

FOR THE PURPOSE OF

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year 1864, by

O'BRIEN AND DIFENDORF,

In the Clerk's Office of the District Court of the United States for the District of Kansas.

PREFACE.

WITH the view of meeting a very general demand throughout the military service of the United States, the compilers have, at great expense, prepared the Index and published these volumes, containing, word for word, every General Order issued, numerically, by the War Department during the years 1861, 1862 and 1863. We believe that the publication of all the orders in book form, to take the place of the great mass of orders issued in sheets without index, hitherto used by officers, will be appreciated by those whose proper discharge of duty calls for constant reference to the requirements of the various Departments of the Government; and we have earnestly endeavored to make the INDEX a valuable auxiliary to Staff Officers of Department and Division Head-quarters, Paymasters, Quartermasters, Mustering and Disbursing Officers, Commissaries, Provost Marshals, and, in fact, the whole Field and Staff and Line of the Army. The magnitude of the struggle in which the country is now engaged has necessitated frequent changes and modifications of the Regulations of the Army, in relation to the operations of forces in the field, which are alone promulgated in General Orders, and, of the vast number of officers in the Army and Navy, it is safe to assume that not one in fifty possesses a complete file. To supply this class the work has been published, and as the object sought is the enhancement of the public good, by furnishing a ready means for observance of rules prescribed through the Secretary of War for the improvement of the service, we hazard the belief that Company Officers will also avail themselves of an opportunity thus afforded of direct instruction in the modus operandi of official routine regarding responsibility for, and reports relating to, Ordnance and Company property. Without egotism, we may submit that, to every branch of the service, the concise and complete form of the publication will prove convenient, and peculiarly commend itself to State authorities and their Militia organizations, also to Military associations, clerks in the various Departments of Government, and libraries throughout the Union. Historians of the War, Editors and others will find their labors of research vastly curtailed by its chronological arrangement and full Index.

GENERAL ORDERS.

SERIES OF 1861.

GENERAL ORDERS.

(1861.)

General Orders, }
No. 1. }

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, January 18, 1861.

I.—At the General Court-Martial which convened at Fort Dalles, Oregon, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 157, of July 30, 1860, from the War Department, and of which Brevet Major F. O. Wyse, Captain 3d Artillery, is President, was arraigned and tried Captain Thomas Jordan, of the Quartermaster Department, on the following charges and specifications:

CHARGE I.—"Embezzlement of public money entrusted to him."

Specification 1st. "In this; That he, the said Captain Thomas Jordan, was, at Fort Dalles, Oregon Territory, on or about the 29th day of April, 1859, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. Army, charged with the disbursement of public money, and did then and there transmit to the Treasury Department, through the office of the Quartermaster General of the Army, to be allowed in his the said Jordan's favor, a receipt and voucher bearing date Fort Dalles, O. T., 2d March, 1859, from Bradford & Co., creditors of the United States, for the sum of two thousand four hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventy cents ($2,452.70), without having paid to said Bradford & Co. the full amount specified in said receipt and voucher, and therein he, the said Jordan, did, then and there, at Fort Dalles, O. T., on the 29th day of April, 1859, convert to his own use and embezzle the amount specified in said receipt and voucher, that is to say, the sum of two thousand four hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventy cents ($2,452.70)."

Specification 2d. "In this; That he, the said Captain Jordan, was at Fort Dalles, Oregon, on or about the 21st day of July, 1859, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. Army, charged with the disbursement of public money, and did then and there transmit to the Treasury Department through the office of the Quartermaster General of the Army, to be allowed in his the said Jordan's favor, a receipt and voucher bearing date Fort Dalles, O., June 16th, 1859, from Incarnation Baldez, a creditor of the United States, for the sum of thirty-eight dollars ($38) without having paid to said Baldez the full amount specified in said receipt and voucher, or any part thereof, and therein he, the said Jordan, did then and there at Fort Dalles, on the 21st July, 1859, convert to his own use and embezzle the amount specified in said receipt and voucher, that is to say, the sum of thirty-eight dollars ($38)."

Specification 3d. "In this; That he, the said Captain Thomas Jordan, was at Fort Dalles, Oregon, on or about the 13th day of January, 1860, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. Army, charged with the disbursement of public money, and did then and there transmit to the Treasury Department, through the office of the Quartermaster General of the Army, to be allowed in his the said Jordan's favor, a receipt and voucher bearing date Fort Dalles, Oregon, the 28th August, 1859, from Victor Trevitt a creditor of the United States, for the sum of two hundred and forty-five dollars and eighty-seven cents ($245.87) without having paid to said Trevitt the full amount specified in said receipt and voucher, and therein he, the said Jordan, did then and there at Fort Dalles on the 13th January, 1860, convert to his own use and embezzle the amount specified in said receipt and voucher, that is to say, the sum of two hundred and forty-five dollars and eighty-seven cents ($245.87)."

CHARGE II.—"Conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

Specification. "In this; That he, the said Captain Thomas Jordan, Assistant Quartermaster United States Army, did at Portland, Oregon, on or about the 18th day of January, 1860, give to Bradford & Co. two receipts for one thousand dollars ($1,000) each, on which to draw two thousand dollars ($2,000) of public money from Captain Ingalls, Assistant Quartermaster United States Army, to pay a private debt due the said Bradford & Co. by the said Jordan."

To which charges and specifications the accused pleaded as follows:

To the 1st Specification, 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 2d Specification, 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 3d Specification, 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 1st charge, "Not Guilty."

To the Specification, 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

FINDING OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation, the Court finds the accused Captain Thomas Jordan, Assistant Quartermaster United States Army, as follows:

Of the 1st Specification to 1st Charge: finds the statement as set forth, except the following: "and therein he, the said Jordan, did then and there, at Fort Dalles, O. T., on the 29th day of April, 1859, convert to his own use and embezzle the amount specified in said receipt and voucher, that is to say, the sum of two thousand four hundred and fifty-two dollars and seventy cents (2,452.70);" but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the 2d Specification to 1st Charge: finds the statement as set forth, except the following: "and therein he, the said Jordan, did then and there, at Fort Dalles, on July 21, 1859, convert to his own use and embezzle the amount specified in the said receipt and voucher, that is to say, the sum of thirty-eight dollars ($38);" but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the 3d Specification, 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 1st CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

Of the Specification, 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 2d CHARGE, "Not Guilty," and the Court "does therefore honorably acquit him."

II.—The proceedings of the General Court-Martial in the foregoing case have been submitted to the Secretary of War, and the following are the orders thereon:

WAR DEPARTMENT, January 16, 1861.

The verdict on the 1st and 2d specifications to the 1st charge does not express the meaning of the court. For surely a court sworn to administer the law, cannot mean to return a verdict which is a pure and simple contradiction of the law. The court cannot have meant to declare that it is not embezzlement to render a false voucher for payment of money not paid, when the law declares that it is embezzlement. The court must therefore have meant that the accused is not guilty of the facts charged in the legal sense; that he did not wilfully and designedly render a false voucher. That this is what the verdict meant would also appear from the ruling on the plea in bar, and from the evidence on the record to the facts. The accused pleaded with other matters in bar, that the Act of Congress of August 6, 1846, defining embezzlement, is the law in the trial of indictments in the civil courts of the U. S., but is not the law of embezzlement in their courts-martial. The court properly overruled the plea. And, it is in place here to remark that the rendering of false vouchers was always evidence of embezzlement at common law, and the effect of the recent statute, upon that point, is merely to relieve the prosecution of the necessity of ascertaining the exact amount overcharged and embezzled by making any overcharge an embezzlement of the whole amount of the voucher. The evidence on the record, which also goes to explain the verdict, is this: testimony for the defence was brought to show that the accused gave his clerk for the claimant a check for $2,000 and that the account was made up by the clerk and receipted by the claimant for a larger amount than paid without the knowledge of the accused. If this evidence satisfied the court, they ought to have rendered a general verdict of not guilty; or a special verdict explaining the facts in their legal relation, and not the verdict they have rendered, finding the facts as charged, and rejecting and denying the necessary and legal conclusions from them.

The record discloses very extraordinary errors in the proceedings. The prosecution offered in evidence the receipts designated in the specification to the 2d charge, to which the defence objected "on the ground that they were part of, and attached to the proceedings of the court of inquiry," and the court sustained the objection. The prosecution then offered parole evidence of their contents; the defence objected, and the court overruled the objection. In these decisions the court contrived to violate the plainest rules of evidence. It is really unaccountable how a court could conceive that evidence, documentary or oral, should be rejected in one court because it had been admitted in another court, or that a document being incompetent, its contents by parole could be admitted.

Again: the voucher for $2,452.70 alleged to be overcharged being in proof for the prosecution, and for the defence that $2,000 had been paid, the prosecution asked what part of that payment was on account of that voucher. The defence objected. That the inquiry was pertinent, that it went precisely to the gist of the matter on trial, would seem to be obvious; and, moreover, the prosecution explained, that the claimant had, in fact, signed other vouchers, and the point was how much had been paid on that voucher. Nevertheless the court sustained the objection, and ruled out the inquiry. Then the prosecution asked if the whole of the $2,000 was paid on that voucher. The defence objected (what was clear enough) that that was matter just ruled out. But now the court overrule the objection, and admit the answer, and allow it to be shown that "the whole" of the $2,000 was not paid on that voucher, though they would not allow it to be shown "what part" of it was so paid; and consequently what part of the voucher had been paid, and that material inquiry they left as much in the dark as they found it.

Errors, such as these, are inexcusable.

This record presents, however, a much more important subject for the animadversion of the Department and the information of the army. This accused and some other disbursing officers have been charged with rendering vouchers of payment, when, in fact, the payments had not been made. Their defence is, that having no public money, they had given the public creditor for indispensable supplies or services, certificates of public debt, or pledged their personal credit, and then took his receipt to draw the money on it and apply it according to the liabilities so incurred. It is sufficient to say that the law positively forbids such vouchers; that it makes it felony to render a voucher of money paid when it is not paid; that the proper mode of drawing public money for disbursements is by requisition, and not on false vouchers; and that the Department can accept no excuse for a practice which, with whatever good intentions, is forbid by law, and tends to discredit all public accounts.

J. HOLT, Secretary of War ad interim.

III.—Captain Thomas Jordan, Quartermaster Department, is released from arrest.

IV.—For reasons submitted by the Inspector General, approved by the General-in-chief, the sentences promulgated in "General Orders," No. 29, of December 29, 1860, from the headquarters Department of the West, against privates Thomas Crowley, of Company I, 2d Infantry, and Jackson Barnes, of Company D, 2d Infantry, are remitted; the forfeiture of pay from January 16, 1861, the confinement and hard labor with ball and chain, from the date of the receipt of this order at the post; the time lost by desertion to be made good as required by paragraph 154 General Regulations of the Army.

V.—The military post established near the Gila Copper mines, now known as Camp Webster, or Fort Floyd, will be called FORT McLANE.

VI.—The military post established at Ojo-del-Oso, New Mexico, will be known as FORT FAUNTLEROY.

Fort Churchill, U. T., from July 20, 1860.

Fort Wise, K. T., from August 28, 1860.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

S. COOPER, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 2.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, February 19, 1861.

I.—At the General Court-Martial which convened at Fort Steilacoom, W. T., pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 106, of October 6, 1860, from the Headquarters Department of Oregon, and of which Lieutenant Colonel SILAS CASEY, 9th Infantry, is President, was arraigned and tried 1st Lieutenant John C. Howard, 9th Regiment of Infantry, on the following charges and specifications:

CHARGE I.—"Tyrannical conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

Specification—"In this; That 1st Lieutenant John C. Howard, 9th Regiment of Infantry, did at Fort Bellingham, Washington Territory, on or about the night of the third of December, 1858, being the commander of the post, tyrannically cause Edward D. Warbass, Sutler of the post, to be forcibly removed from his, the said Warbass' quarters by a file of soldiers, and imprisoned in the guard house of the said post, and afterwards on the same night to be conveyed to a block house at the said post, and therein to be imprisoned in a cell exposed to extreme cold until on or about the morning of the 4th of December, 1858."

CHARGE II.—"Drunkenness on duty."

Specification—"In this; That 1st Lieutenant John C. Howard, 9th Regiment of Infantry, was drunk while on duty as Officer of the Day at Fort Bellingham, W. T., on or about the 3d day of December, 1858."

To all of which charges and specifications the accused pleaded "Not Guilty."

FINDING OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation on the evidence adduced the Court finds the accused as follows:

- Of the Specification to 1st Charge, "Guilty."
- Of the 1st CHARGE, "Guilty."
- Of the Specification to 2d Charge, "Guilty."
- Of the 2D CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence the said 1st Lieutenant John C. Howard, 9th Regiment of Infantry, "To be cashiered."

II.—In conformity with the 65th Article of War, the proceedings of the General Court-Martial in the foregoing case have been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and by him laid before the PRESIDENT of the United States. The following are the orders thereon:

Disapproved by the President.

J. HOLT, Secretary of War.

III.—1st Lieutenant John C. Howard, 9th Infantry, is accordingly released from arrest.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

S. COOPER, Adjutant General.

1st. Private William C. Tully, of Light Company K, 1st Artillery.

CHARGE I.—"Violation of the 46th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; That Private William C. Tully, alias William Tully, of Light Company K, 1st Artillery, having been duly posted as a sentinel, did lie down on his post and go to sleep. This at Fort Clark, Texas, on or about the morning of the 8th July, 1860."

CHARGE II.—"Mutinous conduct."

Specification—"In this; That the said William C. Tully, alias William Tully, of Light Company K, 1st Artillery, having been relieved from post aforesaid and brought to the guard-house, did take a loaded pistol-carbine belonging to one of the guard and discharge it at Corporal O. C. Maguire, of the same company, who was in command of the guard, with the intent to kill said Corporal; and did further threaten the said Maguire, 'You son of a bitch, I will shoot you yet before I leave Texas.' This at Fort Clark, Texas, on or about the morning of the 8th of July, 1860."

To all which charges and specifications the prisoner declining to plead, the plea of "Not Guilty" was entered.

FINDING OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation on the testimony adduced the Court finds the prisoner as follows:

- Of the Specification to 1st Charge, "Guilty."
- Of the 1st CHARGE, "Guilty."

Of the Specification to 2d Charge, "Guilty."
Of the 2D CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court does sentence him, Private William C. Tully, alias William Tully, of Light Company K, 1st Artillery, "To forfeit all pay and allowances that are now or may become due him; to be dishonorably discharged the service of the United States, and to be kept in close confinement for the period of ten years in the Penitentiary of the District of Columbia."

2d. Private Lawrence Clements, of the Band, 3d Infantry.

CHARGE.—"Violation of the 9th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; That he, Private Lawrence Clements, of the Band, 3d Infantry, did strike with a knife, or other weapon, his superior officer, Second Principal Musician Christian Reuter, of the Band, 3d Infantry, being in the execution of his office, thereby inflicting on said Reuter a dangerous wound. This at or near Fort Marcy, N. M., on or about the night of the 25th of May, 1860."

To which charge and specification the prisoner pleaded "Not Guilty."

FINDING OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation on the testimony adduced the Court finds the prisoner as follows:

Of the Specification, "Guilty."
Of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence him, Private Lawrence Clements, of the Band, 3d Infantry, "To forfeit all pay and allowances that are now or may become due him; to be dishonorably discharged the service of the United States, and to be kept in close confinement for the period of ten years in the Penitentiary of the District of Columbia."

II.—The proceedings of the General Court-Martial in the foregoing cases have been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and are by him confirmed. The prisoners, Tully and Clements, will be sent to Washington under a proper guard and delivered to the Warden of the Penitentiary.

The following order is published for the information of the Army:

WAR DEPARTMENT, March 1, 1861.

By the direction of the PRESIDENT of the United States, it is ordered that Brigadier General David E. Twiggs, Major General by brevet, be, and is hereby, dismissed from the Army of the United States, for his treachery to the flag of his country, in having surrendered, on the 18th of February, 1861, on the demand of the authorities of Texas, the military posts and other property of the United States in his Department and under his charge.

J. HOLT, Secretary of War.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

S. COOPER, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 6.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Washington, March 13, 1861.

The uniform, dress, and horse equipments of the Army having been changed in many respects since the "General Regulations" of 1857, the following description of them is published for the information of all concerned:

COAT.

1.—For Commissioned Officers. All officers shall wear a frock coat of dark blue cloth, the skirt to extend from two-thirds to three-fourths of the distance from the top of the hip to the bend of the knee; single-breasted for Captains and Lieutenants; double-breasted for all other grades.

2.—For a Major General—two rows of buttons on the breast, nine in each row, placed by threes; the distance between each row, five and one-half inches at top, and three and one-half inches at bottom; stand-up collar, to rise no higher than to permit the chin to turn freely over it, to hook in front at the bottom, and slope thence up and backward at an angle of thirty degrees on each side; cuffs two and one-half inches deep to go around the sleeves parallel with the lower edge, and to button with three small buttons at the under seam; pockets in the folds of the skirts, with one button at the hip, and one at the end of each pocket, making four buttons on the back and skirt of the coat, the hip button to range with the lowest buttons on the breast; collar and cuffs to be of dark blue velvet; lining of the coat black.

3.—For a Brigadier General—the same as for a Major General, except that there will be only eight buttons in each row on the breast, placed in pairs.

4.—For a Colonel—the same as for a Major General, except that there will be only seven buttons in each row on the breast, placed at equal distances; collar and cuffs of the same color and material as the coat.

5.—For a Lieutenant Colonel—the same as for a Colonel.

6.—For a Major—the same as for a Colonel.

7.—For a Captain—the same as for a Colonel, except that there will be only one row of nine buttons on the breast, placed at equal distances.

8.—For a First Lieutenant—the same as for a Captain.

9.—For a Second Lieutenant—the same as for a Captain.

10.—For a Brevet Second Lieutenant—the same as for a Captain.

11.—A round jacket, according to pattern, of dark blue cloth, trimmed with scarlet, with the Russian shoulder-knot, the prescribed insignia of rank to be worked in silver in the centre of the knot, may be worn on undress duty by officers of Light Artillery.

12.—For Enlisted Men. The uniform coat for all enlisted foot men shall be a single-breasted frock of dark blue cloth, made without plaits, with a skirt extending one-half the distance from the top of the hip to the bend of the knee; one row of nine buttons on the breast, placed at equal distances; stand-up collar to rise no higher than to permit the chin to turn freely over it, to hook in front at the bottom and then to slope up and backward at an angle of thirty degrees on each side; cuffs pointed according to pattern, and to button with two small buttons at the under seam: collar and cuffs edged with a cord or welt of cloth as follows, to wit: Scarlet for Artillery; sky blue for Infantry; yellow for Engineers; crimson for Ordnance and Hospital stewards. On each shoulder a metallic scale according to pattern; narrow lining for skirt of the coat of the same color and material as the coat; pockets in the folds of the skirts, with one button at each hip, to range with the lowest buttons on the breast; no buttons at the ends of the pockets.

13.—All Enlisted Men of the Dragoons, Cavalry, Mounted Riflemen, and Light Artillery, shall wear a uniform jacket of dark blue cloth, with one row of twelve small buttons on the breast placed at equal distances; stand-up collar to rise no higher than to permit the chin to turn freely over it, to hook in front at the bottom, and to slope the same as the coat collar; on the collar, on each side, two blind button holes of lace, three-eighths of an inch wide, one small button on the button hole, lower button hole extending back four inches, upper button hole three and a half inches; top button and front ends of collar bound with lace three-eighths of an inch wide, and a strip of the same extending down the front and around the whole lower edge of the jacket; the back seam laced with the same, and on the cuff a point of the same shape as that on the coat, but formed of the lace; jacket to extend to the waist, and to be lined with white flannel; two small buttons at the under seam of the cuff, as on the coat cuff; one hook and eye at the bottom of the collar; color of lace (worsted), orange for Dragoons, yellow for Cavalry, green for Riflemen, and scarlet for Light Artillery.

14.—For all Musicians—the same as for other enlisted men of their respective corps, with the addition of a facing of lace three-eighths of an inch wide on the front of the coat or jacket, made in the following manner: bars of three-eighths of an inch worsted lace placed on a line with each button six and one-half inches wide at the bottom, and thence gradually expanding upwards to the last button, counting from the waist up, and contracting from thence to the bottom of the collar, where it will be six and one-half inches wide, with a strip of the same lace following the bars at their outer extremity—the whole presenting something of what is called the herring-bone form; the color of the lace facing to correspond with the color of the trimming of the corps.

15.—For Fatigue Purposes—a sack coat of dark blue flannel extending half way down the thigh, and made loose, without sleeve or body lining, falling collar, inside pocket on the left side, four coat buttons down the front.

16.—For Recruits—the sack coat will be made with sleeve and body lining, the latter of flannel.

17.—On all occasions of duty, except fatigue, and when out of quarters, the coat or jacket shall be buttoned and hooked at the collar.

BUTTONS.

18.—For General Officers and Officers of the General Staff—gilt, convex, with spread eagle and stars, and plain border; large size, seven-eighths of an inch in exterior diameter; small size one-half inch.

19.—For Officers of the Corps of Engineers—gilt, nine-tenths of an inch in exterior diameter, slightly convex; a raised bright rim, one-thirtieth of an inch wide; device, an eagle holding in his beak a scroll, with the word "Essayons," a bastion with embrasures in the distance surrounded by water, with a rising sun—the figures to be of dead gold upon a bright field. Small buttons of the same form and device, and fifty-five hundredths of an inch in exterior diameter.

20.—For Officers of the Corps of Topographical Engineers—gilt, seven-eighths of an inch exterior diameter, convex and solid; device, the shield of the United States, occupying one-half the diameter, and the letters T. E. in old English characters the other half; small buttons, one-half inch diameter, device and form the same.

21.—For Officers of the Ordnance Department—gilt, convex, plain border, cross cannon and bombshell, with a circular scroll over and across the cannon, containing the words "Ordnance Corps;" large size, seven-eighths of an inch in exterior diameter; small size, one-half inch.

22.—For Officers of Artillery, Infantry, Riflemen, Cavalry and Dragoons—gilt, convex; device, a spread eagle with the letter A, for Artillery—I, for Infantry—R, for Riflemen—C, for Cavalry—D, for Dragoons, on the shield; large size, seven-eighths of an inch in exterior diameter; small size, one-half inch.

23.—Aides-de-camp may wear the button of the General Staff, or of their regiment or corps, at their option.

24.—For all Enlisted Men—yellow, the same as is used by the Artillery, &c., omitting the letter in the shield.

TROUSERS.

25.—For General Officers and Officers of the Ordnance Department—of dark blue cloth, plain, without stripe, welt, or cord down the outer seam.

26.—For Officers of the General Staff and Staff Corps, except the Ordnance—dark blue cloth, with a gold cord, one-eighth of an inch diameter, along the outer seam.

27.—For all Regimental Officers—dark blue cloth, with a welt let into the outer seam, one-eighth of an inch in diameter, of colors corresponding to the facings of the respective regiments, viz: Dragoons, orange; Cavalry, yellow; Riflemen, emerald green; Artillery, scarlet; Infantry, sky-blue.

28.—For Enlisted Men, except companies of Light Artillery—dark blue cloth; sergeants with a stripe one and one-half inch wide; corporals with a stripe one-half inch wide, of worsted lace, down and over the outer seam, of the color of the facings of the respective corps.

29.—Ordnance Sergeants and Hospital Stewards—stripe of crimson lace one and one-half inch wide.

30.—Privates—plain, without stripe or welt.

31.—For Companies of Artillery equipped as Light Artillery—sky-blue cloth. All trousers to be made loose, without plaits, and to spread well over the boot; to be re-enforced for all enlisted mounted men.

HAT.

32.—For Officers: Of best black felt. The dimensions of medium size to be as follows:

Width of brim, three and one-fourth inches.

Height of crown, six and one-fourth inches.

Oval of tip, one-half inch.

Taper of crown, three-fourths of an inch.

Curve of head, three-eighths of an inch.

The binding to be one-half inch deep, of best black ribbed silk.

TRIMMINGS.

34.—For General Officers: Gold cord, with acorn-shaped ends. The brim of the hat looped up on the right side, and fastened with an eagle attached to the side of the hat; three black ostrich feathers on the left side; a gold embroidered wreath in front, on black velvet ground, encircling the letters U. S. in silver, old English characters.

35.—For Officers of the Adjutant General's, Inspector General's Quartermaster's, Subsistence, Medical and Pay Departments, and the Judge Advocate, above the rank of Captain: The same as for General Officers, except the cord, which will be of black silk and gold.

36.—For the same Departments, below the rank of Field Officers: The same as for Field Officers, except that there will be but two feathers.

37.—For Officers of the Corps of Engineers: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be a gold embroidered wreath of laurel and palm, encircling a silver turreted castle on black velvet ground.

38.—For Officers of the Topographical Engineers: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be a gold embroidered wreath of oak leaves, encircling a gold embroidered shield, on black velvet ground.

39.—For Officers of the Ordnance Department: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be a gold embroidered shell and flame, on black velvet ground.

40.—For Officers of Dragoons: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be two gold embroidered sabres crossed, edges upward, on black velvet ground, with the number of the regiment in silver in the upper angle.

41.—For Officers of Cavalry: The same as for the Dragoons, except that the number of the regiment will be in the lower angle.

42.—For Officers of Mounted Riflemen: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be a gold embroidered trumpet, perpendicular, on black velvet ground.

43.—For Officers of Artillery: The same as for the General Staff, except the ornament in front, which will be gold embroidered cross-cannon, on black velvet ground, with the number of the regiment in silver at the intersection of the cross-cannon.

44.—For Officers of Infantry: The same as for Artillery, except the ornament in front, which will be a gold embroidered bugle, on black velvet ground, with the number of the regiment in silver within the bend.

45.—For Enlisted Men, except companies of Light Artillery: The same as for Officers of the respective corps, except that there will be but one feather, the cord will be of worsted, of the same color as that of the facing of the corps, three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, running three times through a slide of the same material, and terminating with two tassels, not less than two inches long, on the side of the hat opposite the feather. For Hospital Stewards the cord will be of buff and green mixed. The insignia of corps, in brass, in front of the hat, corresponding with those prescribed for Officers, with the number of regiment, five-eighths of an inch long, in brass, and letter of company, one inch, in brass, arranged over insignia. Brim to be looped up to side of hat with a brass eagle, having a hook attached to the bottom to secure the brim—on the right side for mounted men and left side for foot men. The feather to be worn on the side opposite the loop.

46.—All the trimmings of the hat are to be made so that they can be detached; but the eagle, badge of corps, and letter of company, are to be always worn.

47.—For companies of Artillery equipped as Light Artillery, the old pattern uniform cap, with red horse-hair plume, cord and tassel.

48.—Officers of the General Staff, and Staff Corps, may wear, at their option, a light French chapeau, either stiff crown or flat, according to the pattern deposited in the Adjutant General's Office. Officers below the rank of Field Officers to wear but two feathers.

FORAGE CAPS.

49.—For fatigue purposes, forage caps, of pattern in the Quartermaster General's Office: Dark blue cloth, with a welt of the same around the crown, and yellow metal letters in front to designate companies.

50.—Commissioned Officers may wear forage caps of the same pattern, with the distinctive ornament of the corps and regiment in front.

CRAVAT OR STOCK.

51.—For all Officers—black; when a cravat is worn, the tie not to be visible at the opening of the collar.

52.—For all Enlisted Men—black leather, according to pattern.

BOOTS.

53.—For all Officers—ankle or Jefferson.

54.—For Enlisted Men of Riflemen, Dragoons, Cavalry, and Light Artillery—ankle and Jefferson, rights and lefts, according to pattern.

55.—For Enlisted Men of Artillery, Infantry, Engineers and Ordnance—Jefferson, rights and lefts, according to pattern.

SPURS.

56.—For all Mounted Officers—yellow metal, or gilt.

57.—For all Enlisted Mounted Men—yellow metal, according to pattern. (See No: 174.)

GLOVES.

58.—For General Officers and Officers of the General Staff and Staff Corps—buff or white.

59.—For Officers of Artillery, Infantry, Cavalry, Dragoons and Riflemen—white.

SASH.

60.—For General Officers—buff, silk net, with silk bullion fringe ends; sash to go twice around the waist, and to tie behind the left hip, pendent part not to extend more than eighteen inches below the tie.

61.—For Officers of the Adjutant General's, Inspector General's, Quartermaster's and Subsistence Departments, Corps of Engineers, Topographical Engineers, Ordnance, Artillery, Infantry, Cavalry, Riflemen, and Dragoons, and the Judge Advocate of the Army—crimson silk net; for Officers of the Medical Department—medium or emerald green silk net, with silk bullion fringe ends; to go around the waist and tie as for General Officers.

62.—For all Sergeant Majors, Quartermaster Sergeants, Ordnance Sergeants, First Sergeants, Principal or Chief Musicians and Chief Buglers—red worsted sash, with worsted bullion fringe ends; to go twice around the waist, and to tie behind the left hip, pendent part not to extend more than eighteen inches below the tie.

63.—The sash will be worn (over the coat) on all occasions of duty of every description, except stable and fatigue.

64.—The sash will be worn by "Officers of the Day" across the body, scarf fashion, from the right shoulder to the left side, instead of around the waist, tying behind the left hip as prescribed.

SWORD BELT.

65.—For all Officers—a waist belt not less than one and one-half inch, nor more than two inches wide; to be worn over the sash; the sword to be suspended from it by slings of the same material as the belt, with a hook attached to the belt upon which the sword may be hung.

66.—For General Officers—Russian leather, with three stripes of gold embroidery; the slings embroidered on both sides.

67.—For all other Officers—black leather, plain.

68.—For all Non-commissioned Officers—black leather, plain.

SWORD-BELT PLATE.

69.—For all Officers and Enlisted Men—gilt, rectangular, two inches wide, with a raised bright rim; a silver wreath of laurel encircling the "Arms of the United States;" eagle, shield, scroll, edge of cloud and rays bright. The motto, "E PLURIBUS UNUM," in silver letters, upon the scroll; stars also of silver; according to pattern.

SWORD AND SCABBARD.

70.—For General Officers—straight sword, gilt hilt, silver grip, brass or steel scabbard.

71.—For Officers of the Adjutant General's, Inspector General's, Quartermaster's and Subsistence Departments, Corps of Engineers, Topographical Engineers, Ordnance, the Judge Advocate of the Army, Aides-de-Camp, Field Officers of Artillery, Infantry, and Foot Riflemen, and for the Light Artillery—the sword of the pattern adopted by the War Department, April 9, 1850; or the one described in G. O. No. 21, of August 28, 1860, for officers therein designated.

72.—For the Medical and Pay Departments—small sword and scabbard, according to pattern in the Surgeon General's office.

73.—For Officers of Dragoons, Cavalry, and Mounted Riflemen—sabre and scabbard now in use, according to pattern in the Ordnance Department.

74.—For the Artillery, Infantry, and Foot Riflemen, except the field officers—the sword of the pattern adopted by the War Department, April 9, 1850.

75.—The sword and sword belt will be worn upon all occasions of duty, without exception.

76.—When on foot, the sabre will be suspended from the hook attached to the belt.

77.—When not on military duty, officers may wear swords of honor, or the prescribed sword, with a scabbard, gilt, or of leather with gilt mountings.

SWORD-KNOT.

78.—For General Officers—gold cord with acorn end.

BADGES TO DISTINGUISH RANK.

Epaulettes.

80.—For the Major General Commanding the Army—gold, with solid crescent; device, three silver-embroidered stars, one, one and a half inches in diameter, one, one and one-fourth inches in diameter, and one, one and one-eighth inches in diameter, placed on the strap in a row, longitudinally, and equidistant, the largest star in the centre of the crescent, the smallest at the top; dead and bright gold bullion, one-half inch in diameter and three and one-half inches long.

81.—For all other Major Generals—the same as for the Major General Commanding the Army, except that there will be two stars on the strap instead of three, omitting the smallest.

82.—For a Brigadier General—the same as for a Major General, except that, instead of two, there shall be one star (omitting the smallest) placed upon the strap, and not within the crescent.

83.—For a Colonel—the same as for a Brigadier General, substituting a silver-embroidered spread eagle for the star upon the strap; and within the crescent for the Medical Department—a laurel wreath embroidered in gold, and the letters M. S., in old English characters, in silver, within the wreath; Pay Department—same as the Medical Department, with the letters P. D., in old English characters; Corps of Engineers—a turreted castle of silver; Corps of Topographical Engineers—a shield embroidered in gold, and below it the letters T. E., in old English characters, in silver; Ordnance Department—shell and flame in silver embroidery; Regimental Officers—the number of the regiment embroidered in gold, within a circlet of embroidered silver, one and three-fourths inches in diameter, upon cloth of the following colors: for Artillery—scarlet; Infantry—light or sky blue; Riflemen—medium or emerald green; Dragoons—orange; Cavalry—yellow.

84.—For a Lieutenant Colonel—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, but substituting for the eagle a silver-embroidered leaf.

85.—For a Major—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, omitting the eagle.

86.—For a Captain—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, except that the bullion will be only one-fourth of an inch in diameter, and two and one-half inches long, and substituting for the eagle two silver-embroidered bars.

87.—For a First Lieutenant—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, except that the bullion will be only one-eighth of an inch in diameter, and two and one-half inches long, and substituting for the eagle one silver-embroidered bar.

88.—For a Second Lieutenant—the same as for a First Lieutenant omitting the bar.

89.—For a Brevet Second Lieutenant—the same as for a Second Lieutenant.

90.—All officers having military rank will wear an epaulette on each shoulder.

91.—The epaulette may be dispensed with when not on duty, and on certain duties off parade, to wit: at drills, at inspections of barracks and hospitals, on Courts of Inquiry and Boards, at inspections of articles and necessities, on working parties and fatigue duties, and upon the march, except when, in war, there is immediate expectation of meeting the enemy, and also when the overcoat is worn.

Shoulder Straps.

92.—For the Major General Commanding the Army—dark blue cloth, one and three-eighths inches wide by four inches long; bordered with an embroidery of gold one-fourth of an inch wide; three silver-embroidered stars of five rays, one star on the centre of the strap, and one on each side equidistant between the centre and the outer edge of the strap; the centre star to be the largest.

93.—For all other Major Generals—the same as for the Major General Commanding the Army, except that there will be two stars instead of three; the centre of each star to be one inch from the outer edge of the gold embroidery on the ends of the strap; both stars of the same size.

94.—For a Brigadier General—the same as for a Major General, except that there will be one star instead of two; the centre of the star to be equidistant from the outer edge of the embroidery on the ends of the strap.

95.—For a Colonel—the same size as for a Major General, and bordered in like manner with an embroidery of gold; a silver-embroidered spread eagle on the centre of the strap, two inches between the tips of the wings, having in the right talon an olive branch, and in the left a bundle of arrows; an escutcheon on the breast as represented in the arms of the United States; cloth of the strap as follows: for the General Staff and Staff Corps—dark blue; Artillery—scarlet; Infantry—light or sky blue; Riflemen—medium or emerald green; Dragoons—orange; Cavalry—yellow.

96.—For a Lieutenant Colonel—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, omitting the eagle and introducing a silver-embroidered leaf at each end, each leaf extending seven-eighths of an inch from the end border of the strap.

97.—For a Major—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, omitting the eagle and introducing a gold-embroidered leaf at each end, each leaf extending seven-eighths of an inch from the end border of the strap.

98.—For a Captain—the same as for a Colonel, according to corps, omitting the eagle, and introducing at each end two gold-embroidered bars of the same width as the border, placed parallel to the ends of the strap; the distance between them and from the border equal to the width of the border.

99.—For a First Lieutenant—the same as for a Colonel according to corps, omitting the eagle, and introducing at each end one gold-embroidered bar of the same width as the border, placed parallel to the ends of the strap, at a distance from the border equal to its width.

100.—For a Second Lieutenant—the same as for a Colonel according to corps, omitting the eagle.

101.—For a Brevet Second Lieutenant—the same as for a Second Lieutenant.

Chevrons.

103.—The rank of non-commissioned officers will be marked by chevrons upon both sleeves of the uniform coat and overcoat, above the elbow, of silk or worsted binding, one half an inch wide, same color as the edging on the coat, points down, as follows:

104.—For a Sergeant Major—three bars and an arc in silk.

105.—For a Quartermaster Sergeant—three bars and a tie, in silk.

106.—For an Ordnance Sergeant—three bars and a star, in silk.

107.—For a Hospital Steward—a caduceus two inches long, embroidered with yellow silk, on each arm above the elbow, in the place indicated for a chevron, the head toward the outer seam of the sleeve.

108.—For a First Sergeant—three bars and a lozenge, in worsted.

109.—For a Sergeant—three bars in worsted.

110.—For a Corporal—two bars in worsted.

111.—For a Pioneer—two crossed hatchets of cloth, same color and material as the edging of the collar, to be sewed on each arm above the elbow, in the place indicated for a chevron (those of a corporal to be just above and resting on the chevron), the head of the hatchet upward, its edge outward, of the following dimensions, viz: Handle—four and one-half inches long, one-fourth to one-third of an inch wide. Hatchet—two inches long, one inch wide at the edge.

112.—To indicate service—all non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates, who have served faithfully for the term of five years, will wear, as a mark of distinction, upon both sleeves of the uniform coat, below the elbow, a diagonal half chevron, one half an inch wide, extending from seam to seam, the front end nearest the cuff, and one-half an inch above the point of the cuff, to be of the same color as the edging on the coat. In like manner, an additional half chevron, above and parallel to the first, for every subsequent five years of faithful service; distance between each chevron one-fourth of an inch. Service in war will be indicated by a light or sky-blue stripe on each side of the chevron for Artillery, and a red stripe for all other corps, the stripe to be one-eighth of an inch wide.

OVERCOAT.

For Commissioned Officers.

And the maximum aggregate will be—

If the Regiment consists of four squadrons.....	788
If the Regiment consists of five squadrons.....	978
If the Regiment consists of six squadrons.....	1,168

All officers of Volunteer Cavalry will be appointed and selected in the same manner as Infantry officers of like rank.

3. GENERAL ORGANIZATION.

This force will be organized into three Divisions of from three to four Brigades.

Each Brigade will consist of four Regiments, and

- One Brigadier General,
- One Aide-de-Camp, (a Lieutenant,)
- One Assistant Adjutant General, (a Captain,)
- One Surgeon,
- One Assistant Quartermaster, (a Captain,)
- One Commissary of Subsistence, (a Captain.)

All of the above officers will be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, except the Aide-de-Camp, who will be selected by the Brigadier General from the Company Officers, and who may be re-assigned to his company at the pleasure of the Brigadier General.

Each Division will consist of three or more Brigades, and of

- One Major General,
- Two Aides-de-Camp, (Captains or Lieutenants,)
- One Assistant Adjutant General, (a Major.)

The above officers will be appointed and selected as prescribed above for the additional officers of a Brigade.

4. MEMORANDUM.

The officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates organized as above set forth, will, in all respects be placed on the footing, as to pay and allowances, of similar corps of the Regular Army: Provided, That their allowances for clothing shall be $2 50 per month for Infantry, and $3 per month for Cavalry, and that each non-commissioned officer, private, musician, and artificer of Cavalry shall furnish his own horse and horse equipments, and shall receive 50 cents per day for their use and risk, except that, in case the horse shall become disabled, or shall die, the allowance shall cease until the disability be removed, or another horse be supplied. Every Cavalry Volunteer, who shall not keep himself provided with a serviceable horse, shall serve on foot.

Every volunteer, non-commissioned officer, private, musician, and artificer, who enters the service of the United States, under this plan, shall be paid at the rate of 50 cents, and if a Cavalry Volunteer, 25 cents additional in lieu of forage, for every 20 miles of travel from his home to the place of muster—the distance to be measured by the shortest usually travelled route—and when honorably discharged, an allowance, at the same rate, from the place of his discharge to his home, and, in addition thereto, the sum of one hundred dollars.

Any volunteer who may be received into the service of the United States, under this plan, and who may be wounded or otherwise disabled in the service, shall be entitled to the benefits which have been or may be conferred on persons disabled in the regular service; and the legal heirs of such as die or may be killed in service, in addition to all arrears of pay and allowances, shall receive the sum of one hundred dollars.

The Bands of the Regiments of Infantry, and of the Regiment of Cavalry, will be paid as follows: one-fourth of each will receive the pay and allowances of Sergeants of Engineer soldiers; one-fourth those of Corporals of Engineer soldiers; and the remaining half, those of privates of Engineer Soldiers of the first class.

The Wagoners and Saddlers will receive the pay and allowances of Corporals of Cavalry.

The Regimental Commissary Sergeant will receive the pay and allowances of a Regimental Sergeant Major. The Company Quartermaster Sergeant, the pay and allowances of a Sergeant of Cavalry.

There will be allowed to each Regiment one Chaplain, who will be appointed by the Regimental Commander, on the vote of the Field Officers and Company Commanders, on duty with the Regiment at the time the appointment is to be made. The Chaplain so appointed must be a regularly ordained minister of some Christian denomination, and will receive the pay and allowances of a Captain of Cavalry.

5. PROMOTION FROM THE RANKS.

Two-thirds of the Company Officers of the Regiments, to be raised under this plan, will be appointed at the commencement of the organization of each Regiment, and the remaining one-third, when the Regiment shall have its full complement of men, will be appointed from the ranks, to be taken from among the Sergeants on the recommendation of the Colonel of the Regiment, approved by the General commanding the Brigade.

After the completion of the organization of a Regiment of Cavalry or Infantry, one-half of all the vacancies which may occur in the lowest grade of commissioned officers, by promotion or otherwise, will be appointed as above from the ranks.

Corporals will be taken from the Privates; Sergeants from Corporals.

The First Sergeant will be taken from the other Sergeants of the Company by the Captain.

The Regimental non-commissioned staff will be appointed from the Sergeants of the Regiment by the Colonel.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, May 8, 1861.

I.—At a General Court Martial convened at Fort Union, New Mexico, by special orders No. 28, 1860, from the Headquarters of the Department of New Mexico, whereof Colonel B. L. E. Bonneville, 3d Infantry, was President, was arraigned and tried Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. A., on the following charges and specifications, viz :

CHARGE 1ST.—“ Violation of the Thirty-ninth Article of War.”

Specification.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, did pay or allow to be paid, out of the public funds in his charge, two hundred and twenty-five dollars, ($225), on account of services as Transportation Clerk alleged by said Captain Van Bokkelen to have been rendered by R. A. Hanna during the months of July, August and September, 1859, the said Hanna not having rendered the said service. This at Fort Union, New Mexico, on or about 30th September, 1859.

CHARGE 2D.—“ Rendering incorrect accounts to the Government.”

Specification.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, did allow to be signed, and did file in support of his Accounts, false vouchers for certain disbursements of Public money, viz : The receipts of R. A. Hanna for two hundred and twenty-five dollars, ($225), certified by the said Captain Van Bokkelen to have been paid to the said

Hanna by him on account of services as Transportation Clerk during the months of July, August and September, 1859, whereas the said Hanna did not render the said services, nor did he in good faith, or for his own benefit, receive the money stated in the account to have been paid him. This at Fort Union, New Mexico, on or about September 30th, 1859.

"Habitual and Avowed Misapplication of the Public property under his charge."

Specification 1st.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, having under his charge the Corrals, the Forage, and the men appertaining to the Quartermaster's Department at Fort Union, N. M., and having sold by proper Authority certain Public horses, did permit his public employes to buy some of them, bring them back to the Corral, (and keep them there by Public means,) for their private uses. This at Fort Union, N. M., during part of the summer and fall of 1859.

Specification 2d.—In this, that he, the said Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, having under his charge the Corrals, the Forage, the Wagons and teams, and the men appertaining to the Quartermaster's Department at Fort Union, N. M., did improperly allow his public employes to use these public means in the cultivation of land for the purpose of raising forage thereon, and in hauling said forage into said Corral, and in storing it there. This at Fort Union, N. M., during part of the spring, summer and fall of 1859.

Specification 3d.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, did say that he made it his practice to use the Government means under his control for his private purposes, without having due regard to the public interests intrusted to him. This at Fort Union, N. M., on or about the 15th September, 1859.

Specification 4th.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, did state that he had made seven thousand dollars ($7,000) since he came into this Department by means of his Government facilities. This at Fort Union, N. M., on or about the 15th September, 1859.

Specification 5th.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the U. S. Quartermaster's Department, did say that if he had not been a fool he would this year have taken the public men and teams, &c., under his control, have thereby raised forage to sell to the Government, and so made five thousand dollars ($5,000) for his own pocket; and that if he remained here next year he would do it. This at Fort Union, N. M., on or about September 15th, 1859.

CHARGE 4TH.—"Conduct unbecoming an Officer and a Gentleman."

Specification 1st.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the United States Quartermaster's Department, did keep a black book against his brother officers, in which to record their transgressions in word or deed, so that he might, whenever he had personal motives for so doing, base charges on this record. This at Fort Union, New Mexico, during the year or a portion of the year 1859.

Specification 2d.—In this, that he, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, of the United States Quartermaster's department, did state that he kept a black book against his brother officers, in which he recorded any transgressions of theirs by word or deed; in order to protect himself against charges which they might otherwise prefer against him, and that he had found it to work well. This at Fort Union, New Mexico, on or about September 15, 1859.

The Court find the accused, Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, Assistant Quartermaster of the United States Army as follows:

Of the Specification of the 1st Charge, Guilty.

Of the 1st Charge, Guilty.

Of the Specification of the 2d Charge, Guilty.

Of the 2d Charge, Guilty.

Of the 1st Specification of the 3d charge, Guilty of the facts as stated, except the words "and keep them there by public means;" but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the 2d Specification of the 3d Charge, Guilty of the facts as stated, except the word "improperly;" but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the 3d Specification of the 3d Charge, Guilty.

Of the 4th Specification of the 3d Charge, Guilty, except the words "by means of his government facilities;" but attach no criminality thereto.

Of the 5th Specification of the 3d Charge, Guilty.

Of the 3d Charge, Guilty, except the words "Habitual and."

Of the 1st Specification of the 4th Charge, Guilty.

Of the 2d Specification of the 4th Charge, Guilty.

And the Court do, therefore, sentence him, Captain William K. Van Borkelen, Assistant Quartermaster of the United States Army, to be cashiered.

II.—The proceedings of the Court Martial having been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and laid before the President of the United States, the following are his orders on the case:

The Court have convicted the accused of "avowed misapplication of public property" on three specifications: 1st. That he said he made it his practice. 2d. That he said he had made a large sum of money, not, however, the court find, "by means of his Government facilities," whatever that may mean; and 3d. That he said if he had not been a fool he would have made a large sum of money by use of public men and teams; and that he intended to do it next year. Such declarations would be proofs under proper Specifications to a proper charge; but they are not specifications of fact to the charge stated. The verdict on this charge cannot therefore be sustained.

The accused is also convicted of keeping a "black book or record of the transgressions of his brother officers." The contents of such private records, or the fact of his making or keeping them, are matters that public authority can have no more right to inquire into as ground of prosecution than into the contents of his memory. The charge is not tenable.

The other two charges, viz: in the matter of Hanna's accounts, are sufficient and are sustained by the plea of the accused, and by the evidence for the prosecution. But the court rejected legal evidence offered by the defence to rebut them; for the clerk of the quartermaster being offered to explain the accounts the court refused to allow him to be sworn upon evidence which did not go to his competency at all, and which, even as going to his credibility, was not in legal form. The accused is therefore entitled to a new trial, for the benefit of the evidence ruled out, if he claims it. He will therefore be allowed to say whether, the 3d and 4th Charges being dismissed, he abides the verdict and sentence on the 1st and 2d charges, or claims a new trial on them.

JOHN B. FLOYD, Secretary of War.

WAR DEPARTMENT, July 26, 1860.

Pursuant to which order and to special orders No. 155 of said date, and of special orders No. 192 of September 7, 1860, from the Adjutant General's Office, a new trial of the aforesaid 1st and 2d charges and the specifications was granted and had before a general court whereof Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Bomford, Captain of the 8th Infantry, was President, and the following is the finding and sentence of the said court.

That Captain William K. Van Borkelen, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. Army, is "guilty of the specification to the 1st charge; that he is guilty of the 1st charge; that he is guilty of the specification to the 2d charge; that he is guilty of the 2d charge. And the court does therefore sentence Captain William K. Van Bokkelen, Assistant Quartermaster U. S. Army, to be cashiered.

III.—The proceedings of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case have been submitted to the Secretary of War and by him laid before the President, by whom they are approved. Captain William K. Van Bokkelen accordingly ceases to be an officer of the U. S. Army from this date.

IV.—The General Court Martial of which Colonel B. L. E. Bonneville, 3d Infantry, is President, is dissolved.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 Washington, May 18, 1861.

Par. 4, General Orders No. 15, of May 4th, 1861, fixing the money value of clothing for Volunteers, is modified so as to allow to the Militia in the service of the United States the same money allowance for clothing as is provided for the Regular Army.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.
 Washington, May 20, 1861.

It is with pain that the Secretary of War announces to the service the loss of a distinguished veteran officer, the late Surgeon General THOMAS LAWSON, of the army, who died at Norfolk, Va., on the 15th instant.

Having in 1811 resigned from the Navy, where he had served two years, Dr. LAWSON passed immediately into the army—a service with which, from that time, he has been uninterruptedly connected. Full of a military fire, which not even the frosts of age could quench, and of a zeal for the honor of his profession, which made his administration of the Medical Department a model of inflexibility, efficiency, and economy, he never spared himself, and was always prompt to volunteer his services wherever they might be required.

Thus, after having gone with credit through the war of 1812–15, he was one of the first to hasten with General Gaines to the relief of our forces in Florida; and, having been placed at the head of a regiment of volunteers by the suffrages of the gallant Louisianians who composed it, he acquitted himself with much credit in this new sphere of duty, and proved himself an able and effective Colonel.

In fact, so marked were the military traits in his character, and among these, especially, his personal intrepidity, that, at the close of the Mexican war, he was rewarded for his services in it by a Brevet of Brigadier General in the army.

As an appropriate tribute of respect to his memory, there will be fired at every military post, on the day after the receipt of this order, eleven minute guns, commencing at meridian—and the National flag will be displayed at half-staff from the same hour until sunset of the same day; and for thirty days the prescribed badge of mourning will be worn by the officers of the army.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, May 25, 1861.

I.—The plan of organization for the volunteer forces designated in General Orders No. 15, of May 4, 1861, is so modified as to allow one Surgeon and one Assistant Surgeon to each regiment; to be appointed by the Governors of the respective States, after having passed an examination by a competent Medical Board appointed by the Governors of the States. The appointments to be subject to the approval of the Secretary of War.

General Orders No. 22, of May 18, 1861, is revoked, and the first two paragraphs of article 4, "Memorandum," General Orders No. 15, are amended to read as follows:

4. MEMORANDUM.

The officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates, organized as above set forth, will, in all respects be placed on the footing, as to pay and allowances, of similar corps of the regular army: Provided, That their allowances for clothing shall be $3 50 per month, and that each company officer, non-commissioned officer, private, musician, and artificer of Cavalry shall furnish his own horse and horse equipments, and shall receive 40 cents per day for their use and risk, except that, in case the horse shall become disabled, or shall die, the allowance shall cease until the disability be removed, or another horse be supplied. Every Cavalry Volunteer, who shall not keep himself supplied with a serviceable horse, shall serve on foot.

Every volunteer, non-commissioned officer, private, musician, and artificer, who enters the service of the United States under this plan, shall be paid at the rate of 50 cents in lieu of subsistence, and if a Cavalry Volunteer, 25 cents additional in lieu of forage, for every twenty miles travel from his place of enrolment to the place of muster—the distance to be measured by the shortest usually travelled route—and when honorably discharged, an allowance, at the same rate, from the place of his discharge to his place of enrolment, and, in addition thereto, the sum of one hundred dollars.

II.—Washington City is announced as a Chaplain Post for the Regular troops and militia of the District in the service of the United States.

III.—2d. Lieutenant N. R. Chambliss, 3d Artillery, and Brevet 2d Lieutenant L. G. Hoxton, Ordnance Department, having tendered their resignations to avoid being called upon for active service, their names will be stricken from the Rolls of the Army.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 4, 1861.

The following order has been received from the War Department and is published for the information of the Army :

WAR DEPARTMENT, June 4, 1861.

The death of a great statesman, in this hour of peril, cannot be regarded otherwise than as a national calamity. Stephen A. Douglas expired in the commercial capital of Illinois yesterday morning at 9 o'clock. A representative of the overpowering sentiment enlisted in the cause in which we are engaged. A man who nobly discarded party for his country. A Senator who forgot all prejudices in an earnest desire to serve the republic. A statesman who lately received for the Chief Magistracy of the Union a vote second only to that by which the President was elected, and who had every reason to look forward to a long career of usefulness and honor.

A patriot, who defended with equal zeal and ability the constitution as it came to us from our fathers, and whose last mission upon earth was that of rallying the people of his own State of Illinois, as one man, around the glorious flag of our Union, has been called from the scene of life and the field of his labor.

This department recognizing in the loss one common to the whole country, and profoundly sensible of the grief it will excite among millions of men, hereby advise the Colonels of the different regiments to have this order read to-morrow to their respective commands, and suggests that the colors of the republic be craped in mourning in honor of the illustrious dead.

SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

BY ORDER :

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 30. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 6, 1861.

I.—The State of Missouri is added to the Military Department of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, and portions of Western Pennsylvania and Virginia. Major General McClellan will extend his command accordingly.

II.—The Headquarters of the Department of the West are removed from St. Louis to Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

III.—The three months' militia and the three years' volunteers will be paid at once to include the 31st of May, 1861. With this view, Commanding officers of these troops will cause duplicate muster rolls to be made out immediately, which they will forward to the Paymaster General in this city; and upon these rolls the officers of the Pay Department will pay in full, leaving any stoppages to be deducted at a future payment.

IV.—The names of the following officers will be stricken from the rolls of the Army:

Captain Charles H. Tyler, 2d Dragoons, for abandoning the command of, and deserting his post, Fort Kearny.

1st Lieutenant Charles H. Rundell, 4th Infantry, for continued disobedience of orders, absence without leave, and failing to render his accounts as required by the Act of January 31, 1823.

1st Lieutenant Andrew Jackson, 3d Infantry, for absenting himself from his company without permission, and failing to make any report:

And Second Lieutenants Charles E. Patterson, 4th Infantry; Olin F. Rice, 6th Infantry, and Charles C. Campbell, 1st Cavalry, for tendering their resignations in the face of the enemy.

By ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 31.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 9, 1861.

Women nurses will not reside in the camps, nor accompany regiments on the march; but those who apply for service, and are highly accredited, having certificates from two Physicians, and two Clergymen of standing; and will forward the same to Miss D. L. Dix, at Washington, will receive a certificate in return accrediting them for service in any Military Hospital in the United States where such services are required.

By ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 32.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 15, 1861.

I.—From the date of this order Officers entitled to forage, will receive the amount authorized during a state of War.

II.—The uniform and dress of the Signal Officer will be that of a Major of the General Staff.

By ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders,
No. 33.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 13, 1861.

I. Organization of the eleven regiments, added to the Military establishment, in conformity with the President's Proclamation of May 3, 1861. The Officers will all take rank in their respective grades from May 14, 1861.

II.—The number prefixed to the name of each of the officers in the above list indicates his rank among those of the same grade.

III.—Acceptance, or non-acceptance of appointments, and, in case of acceptance, his birthplace, age, and residence when appointed, together with his full name, will be promptly reported by each officer to the Adjutant-General of the Army.

IV.—The officers of each regiment will be assigned to battalions and companies by their respective Colonels. The letters of companies will be the same in each battalion of infantry, running down from A to H, inclusive, and no further.

V.—The newly appointed officers will lose no time in making themselves thoroughly acquainted with the army regulations, the tactics of their several arms, and the various duties of their profession. None will nominate for commissions to the Senate, who have not proved themselves, meantime, to be both worthy and capable of commanding the brave men under them. That the department may be enabled to form a proper judgment on this delicate point, all commanding officers—those of regiments and battalions more particularly—will forward to this office, in time to reach it by the 15th of July next, a statement, on honor, of the moral, mental, and physical qualifications for the service, of each one of the officers belonging to their command.

VI.—The recruiting for the new regiments will be commenced immediately, and be conducted under the superintendence of their Colonels, or Lieutenant Colonels (as may be hereafter determined) in the States adjoining the headquarters of each regiment. All officers will accordingly, by letter or in person, report forthwith for orders to their respective Colonels.

The headquarters of the different regiments are established at the following places, viz :

- Of the 3d Cavalry, at Pittsburg, Pa.
- Of the 5th Artillery, at Harrisburg, Pa.
- Of the 11th Infantry, at Fort Independence, Boston Harbor, Mass.
- Of the 12th Infantry, at Fort Hamilton, New York Harbor, N. Y.
- Of the 13th Infantry, at Jefferson Barracks, Mo.
- Of the 14th Infantry, at Fort Trumbull, Conn.
- Of the 15th Infantry, at Wheeling, Va.
- Of the 16th Infantry, at Chicago, Ill.
- Of the 17th Infantry, at Fort Preble, Portland Harbor, Me.
- Of the 18th Infantry, at Columbus, Ohio.
- Of the 19th Infantry, at Indianapolis Ind.

Estimates for blanks and funds for the recruiting service of each regiment, will be at once prepared and forwarded to this office by the different Colonels.

BY ORDER :

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 34.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 18, 1861.

The Captains and First Lieutenants belonging to old regiments of the army, whose appointment to the same grades in the new regiments, raised in conformity with the President's proclamation of May 3, 1861, is announced in General Orders No. 33, of this date, are to be considered as having been transferred, and will accordingly be mustered in their new regiments, and be borne upon the Army Register, with the same date of rank originally held by them.

BY ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 35.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 20, 1861.

I.—The organization of the Field and Staff of all Regiments mustered into the service of the United States, for a longer period than three months, must conform strictly to the requirements of General Order No. 15, from this Office, dated May 4, 1861, and payments will be made only when in accordance with it.

II.—The several Medical Directors of the Army will when they have reason to doubt the Professional competency of any of the Medical Officers, under their charge, organize a Board of not less than three Medical Officers, which shall examine said officers of questioned professional capacity, and decide whether they are competent to the performance of their duties. If the decision of the Board is adverse, they will cease to be in the Military Service of the United States.

III.—Maj. Albert J. Smith, Paymaster U. S. Army, having deserted his post—Key West, Fla.—his name will be stricken from the rolls of the Army.

BY ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 36.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 24, 1861.

I.—The organization of volunteer regiments mustered into the service of the United States for a longer period than three months must conform strictly to that prescribed in General Orders No. 15 from this Office dated May 4, 1861.

All persons in excess of that organization will be immediately discharged, but will receive pay and allowances to the time of their discharge. The rate of such pay and allowances will be that authorized by section first of the act of Congress approved March 19, 1836.

II.—The duty of buying horses for the Light Artillery service is retransferred from the Ordnance Department to the Quartermaster's Department.

III.—Paragraph 1030 of the Regulations is amended to read as follows:

In the field, on the frontier, or in active service the commanding officer may authorize a mounted officer to take from the public stables one or two horses at a price one-third greater than the average cost of the lot from which he selects, or at the actual cost of the horse when that can be ascertained; providing he shall not take the horse of any trooper. A horse so taken shall not be exchanged or returned. Horses of mounted officers shall be shod by the public farrier or blacksmith.

IV.—The Superintendency of the General Recruiting Service of the Western Department is hereby abolished, and Lieut. Col. Burbank, Thirteenth Infantry, will repair to Jefferson Barracks, Mo., and superintend the recruiting of his regiment. Officers recruiting in the Western Department, including the commander of Newport Barracks, Ky., will hereafter make their returns to the Superintendent of the General Recruiting Service of the Eastern Department stationed at Fort Columbus, New York Harbor.

I.—The following Act of Congress is published for the information of the Army :

AN ACT to increase the present military establishment of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be added to the regular army as now authorized by law nine regiments of infantry, one regiment of cavalry, and one regiment of artillery ; each regiment of infantry to consist of not less than two nor more than three battalions, as the exigencies of the public service may, in the opinion of the President of the United States, demand : each battalion to consist of eight companies ; each company to consist of one captain, one first and one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, four sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, and as many privates, not exceeding eighty-two, as the President of the United States may, according to the requirements of military service, direct. The regiment of cavalry hereby authorized shall consist of not more than three battalions of not more than two squadrons each ; and each squadron shall consist of two companies, each company to be composed of one captain, one first and one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, one quartermaster sergeant, four sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, two farriers, one saddler, one wagoner, and as many privates, not exceeding seventy-two, as the President of the United may, according to the requirements of the military service, direct. The regiment of artillery hereby authorized shall consist of not more than twelve batteries ; and each battery shall consist of one captain, one first and one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, one quartermaster sergeant, four sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, two artificers, one wagoner, and as many privates, not exceeding one hundred and twenty-two, as the President of the United States may, according to the requirements of the military service, direct. And there may be added to the aforesaid battery organization, at the discretion of the President, having due regard to the public necessities and means, one first and one second lieutenant, two sergeants and four corporals.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That the field and staff commissioned and non-commissioned officers of the regiments hereinbefore authorized, shall be as follows : To each regiment of infantry, one colonel one lieutenant colonel, one regimental adjutant, one regimental quartermaster and commissary, one drum major, or leader of the band, and two principal musicians, and to each battalion of infantry, one major, one battalion adjutant, one battalion quartermaster and commissary, one sergeant major, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, and one hospital steward ; the regimental and battalion adjutants, and quartermasters and commissaries, to be taken from the lieutenants of the regiments and battalions, respectively: To the regiment of cavalry, one colonel, one lieutenant-colonel, one regimental adjutant, one regimental quartermaster and commissary, and two chief buglers; and to each battalion of cavalry, one major, one battalion adjutant, one battalion quartermaster and commissary, one sergeant major, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, one hospital steward, one saddler sergeant, and one veterinary sergeant; the regimental adjutant and the regimental and battalion quartermasters and commissaries to be taken from the lieutenants of the regiments and battalions, respectively: To the regiment of artillery, one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, one major to every four batteries, one adjutant, one regimental quartermaster and commissary, to be taken from the lieutenants of the regiment, one sergeant major, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, two principal musicians, and one hospital steward—and the bands of the regular regiments shall consist of not more than twenty-four musicians for each regiment of infantry and artillery, and sixteen musicians for each regiment of mounted troops.

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the army of the United States the following general officers, namely: Four major generals, with three aides-de-camp each, to be taken from captains or lieutenants of the army, and six brigadier generals, with two aides-de-camp each, to be taken from the lieutenants of the army.

SEC. 4.—And be it further enacted, That the officers and enlisted men raised in pursuance of the foregoing sections shall receive the same pay, emoluments, and allowances, and be on the same footing, in every respect, with those of corresponding grades and corps now in the regular service. The regimental bands will be paid as follows: one-fourth of each, the pay and allowances of sergeants of engineer soldiers; one-fourth, those of corporals of engineer soldiers; and one-half, those of engineer soldiers of the first class. The drum major, or leader of the band, the pay and emoluments of a second lieutenant of infantry. The saddler sergeants, veterinary sergeants, company quartermaster sergeants, and drum majors, will receive the pay and allowances of sergeants of cavalry. The battalion adjutant and battalion quartermasters and commissaries will receive the emoluments now provided by law for regimental adjutants.

SEC. 5.—And be it further enacted, That the term of enlistments made and to be made in the years eighteen hundred and sixty-one and eighteen hundred and sixty-two, in the regular army, including the force authorized by this act, shall be for the period of three years, and those to be made after January one, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, shall be for the term of five years, as at present authorized, and that the men enlisted in the regular forces, after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, shall be entitled to the same bounties, in every respect, as those allowed or to be allowed to the men of the volunteer forces.

SEC. 6.—And be it further enacted, That the increase of the military establishment created or authorized by this act is declared to be for service during the existing insurrection and rebellion and within one year after the constitutional authority of the Government of the United States shall be re-established and organized resistance to such authority shall no longer exist, the military establishment may be reduced to a number not exceeding twenty-five thousand men, unless otherwise ordered by Congress.

SEC. 7.—And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States shall cause regiments, battalions, and companies, to be disbanded, and officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates to be discharged, so as to reduce the military establishment as is provided by the preceding section: Provided, That all of the officers of the regular army who have been, or may be, detached or assigned to duty for service in any other regiment or corps shall resume their positions in the regular army, and shall be entitled to the same rank, promotion and emoluments, as if they had continued to serve in their own regiments or corps.

SEC. 8.—And be it further enacted, That the enlistments for the regiments authorized by this act shall be in charge of the officers detailed for that purpose who are appointed to said regiments from civil life; and that in the mean time the officers appointed to the same from the regular army, shall be detailed by the commanding general to such service in the volunteer regiments now in the field, as will, in his judgment, give them the greatest military instruction and efficiency; and that the commanding general may, in his discretion, employ said officers with any part of the regular forces now in the field until the regiments authorized by this act shall have been fully recruited, and detail any of the officers now in the regular army to service with the volunteer regiments now in the field, or which may hereafter be called out, with such rank as may be offered them in said volunteer regiments, for the purpose of imparting to them military instruction and efficiency.

Approved, July 29, 1861.

II.—Officers of the Old Army who have been appointed in the additional regiments, above provided for,—a list of whom has been published in General Orders No. 33, current series, from this Office,—will report forthwith their acceptance of said appointments or be considered as having declined them.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 3, 1861.

I.—The following Acts of Congress are published for the information of the Army :

AN ACT to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property.

Whereas, certain of the forts, arsenals, custom-houses, navy yards, and other property of the United States, have been seized, and other violations of law have been committed and are threatened by organized bodies of men in several of the States, and a conspiracy has been entered into to overthrow the Government of the United States : Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be and he is hereby authorized to accept the services of volunteers, either as cavalry, infantry, or artillery, in such numbers, not exceeding five hundred thousand, as he may deem necessary, for the purpose of repelling invasion, suppressing insurrection, enforcing the laws, and preserving and protecting the public property : Provided, That the services of the volunteers shall be for such time as the President may direct, not exceeding three years nor less than six months, and they shall be disbanded at the end of the war. And all provisions of law applicable to three years' volunteers shall apply to two years' volunteers, and to all volunteers who have been, or may be, accepted into the service of the United States for a period of not less than six months, in the same manner as if such volunteers were specially named. Before receiving into service any number of volunteers exceeding those now called for and accepted, the President shall, from time to time, issue his proclamation, stating the number desired, either as cavalry, infantry, or artillery, and the States from which they are to be furnished, having reference, in any such requisition, to the number then in service from the several States, and to the exigencies of the service at the time, and equalizing, as far as practicable, the number furnished by the several States, according to Federal population.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That the said volunteers shall be subject to the rules and regulations governing the army of the United States, and that they shall be formed, by the President, into regiments of infantry, with the exception of such numbers for cavalry and artillery, as he may direct, not to exceed the proportion of one company of each of those arms to every regiment of infantry, and to be organized as in the regular service. Each regiment of infantry shall have one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, one major, one adjutant, (a lieutenant,) one quartermaster, (a lieutenant,) one surgeon and one assistant surgeon, one sergeant-major, one regimental quartermaster sergeant, one regimental commissary sergeant, one hospital steward, two principal musicians, and twenty-four musicians for a band; and shall be composed of ten companies, each company to consist of one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, one first sergeant, four sergeants, eight corporals, two musicians, one wagoner, and from sixty-four to eighty-two privates.

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That these forces, when accepted as herein authorized, shall be organized into divisions of three or more brigades each; and each division shall have a major general, three aides-de-camp, and one assistant adjutant general with the rank of major. Each brigade shall be composed of four or more regiments and shall have one brigadier general, two aides-de-camp, one assistant adjutant general with the rank of captain, one surgeon, one assistant quartermaster, and one commissary of subsistence.

SEC. 4.—And be it further enacted, That the President shall be authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the command of the forces provided for in this act, a number of major generals, not exceeding six, and a number of brigadier generals, not exceeding eighteen, and the other division and brigade officers required for the organization of these forces, except the aides-de-camp, who shall be selected by their respective generals from the officers of the army or volunteer corps: Provided, That the President may select the major generals and brigadier generals provided for in this act from the line or staff of the regular army, and the officers so selected shall be permitted to retain their rank therein. The Governors of the States furnishing volunteers under this act, shall commission the field, staff, and company officers requisite for the said volunteers; but in cases where the State authorities refuse or omit to furnish volunteers at the call or on the proclamation of the President, and volunteers from such States offer their services under such call or proclamation, the President shall have power to accept such services, and to commission the proper field, staff, and company officers.

SEC. 5.—And be it further enacted, That the officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates, organized as above set forth, shall, in all respects, be placed on the footing, as to pay and allowances, of similar corps of the regular army: Provided, That the allowances of non-commissioned officers and privates for clothing, when not furnished in kind, shall be three dollars and fifty cents per month, and that each company officer, non-commissioned officer, private, musician, and artificer of cavalry shall furnish his own horse and horse equipments, and shall receive forty cents per day for their use and risk, except that in case the horse shall become disabled, or shall die, the allowance shall cease until the disability be removed or another horse be supplied. Every volunteer non-commissioned officer, private, musician and artificer, who enters the service of the United States under this act, shall be paid at the rate of fifty cents in lieu of subsistence, and if a cavalry volunteer, twenty-five cents additional, in lieu of forage, for every twenty miles of travel from his place of enrolment to the place of muster—the distance to be measured by the shortest usually travelled route; and when honorably discharged, an allowance at the same rate, from the place of his discharge to his place of enrolment, and, in addition thereto, if he shall have served for a period of two years, or during the war, if sooner ended, the sum of one hundred dollars: Provided, That such of the companies of cavalry herein provided for, as may require it, may be furnished with horses and horse equipments in the same manner as in the United States Army.

SEC. 6.—And be it further enacted, That any volunteer who may be received into the service of the United States under this act, and who may be wounded or otherwise disabled in the service, shall be entitled to the benefits which have been or may be conferred on persons disabled in the regular service; and the widow, if there be one, and if not, the legal heirs of such as die, or may be killed in service, in addition to all arrears of pay and allowances, shall receive the sum of one hundred dollars.

SEC. 7.—And be it further enacted, That the bands of the regiments of infantry and of the regiments of cavalry shall be paid as follows: one-fourth of each shall receive the pay and allowances of sergeants of engineer soldiers; one fourth those of corporals of engineer soldiers; and the remaining half those of privates of engineer soldiers of the first class; and the leaders of the band shall receive the same pay and emoluments as second lieutenants of infantry.

SEC. 8.—And be it further enacted, That the wagoners and saddlers shall receive the pay and allowances of corporals of cavalry. The regimental commissary sergeant shall receive the pay and allowances of regimental sergeant major, and the regimental quartermaster sergeant shall receive the pay and allowances of a sergeant of cavalry.

SEC. 9.—And be it further enacted, That there shall be allowed to each regiment one chaplain, who shall be appointed by the regimental commander on the vote of the field officers and company commanders on duty with the regiment at the time the appointment shall be made. The chaplain so appointed must be a regular ordained minister of a Christian denomination, and shall receive the pay and allowances of a captain of cavalry, and shall be required to report to the colonel commanding the regiment, to which he is attached, at the end of each quarter, the moral and religious condition of the regiment, and such suggestions as may conduce to the social happiness and moral improvement of the troops.

SEC. 10.—And be it further enacted, That the general commanding a separate department or a detached army is hereby authorized to appoint a military board or commission of not less than three nor more than five officers, whose duty it shall be to examine the capacity, qualifications, propriety of conduct and efficiency of any commissioned officer of volunteers within his department or army, who may be reported to the board or commission, and upon such report, if adverse to such officer, and if approved by the President of the United States, the commission of such officer shall be vacated: Provided always, That no officer shall be eligible to sit on such board or commission whose rank or promotion would in any way be affected by its proceedings, and two members at least, if practicable, shall be of equal rank of the officer being examined. And when vacancies occur in any of the companies of volunteers, an election shall be called by the colonel of the regiment to fill such vacancies, and the men of each company shall vote in their respective companies for all officers as high as captain, and vacancies above captain shall be filled by the votes of the commissioned officers of the regiment, and all officers so elected shall be commissioned by the respective Governors of the States, or by the President of the United States.

SEC. 11.—And be it further enacted, That all letters written by soldiers in the service of the United States may be transmitted through the mails without prepayment of postage, under such regulations as the Post Office Department may prescribe, the postage thereon to be paid by the recipients.

SEC. 12.—And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby, authorized and directed to introduce among the volunteer forces in the service of the United States, the system of allotment tickets now used in the navy, or some equivalent system, by which the family of the volunteer may draw such portions of his pay as he may request.

Approved July 22, 1861.

AN ACT in addition to the "Act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized to accept the services of volunteers, either as cavalry, infantry, or artillery, in such numbers as the exigencies of the public service may, in his opinion, demand, to be organized as authorized by the act of the twenty-second of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one: Provided, That the number of troops hereby authorized shall not exceed five hundred thousand.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That the volunteers authorized by this act shall be armed as the President may direct; they shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall be upon the footing, in all respects, with similar corps of the United States army, and shall be mustered into the service for "during the war."

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That the President shall be authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for the command of the volunteer forces, such number of major generals and of brigadier generals as may, in his judgment, be required for their organization.

Approved July 25, 1861.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 3, 1861.

I.—To guard against imposition, Mustering Officers will, at the conclusion of the muster of each battalion or regiment, (whether mustered by companies or not,) cause the entire regiment or battalion to be paraded for inspection; and in case they discover any deception or fraud to have been practiced, they will immediately report the fact to this office, that all the parties connected with it may be disbanded.

II.—When a muster has been completed, the officer making it will report the fact to this office—and will give notice at the Headquarters of the Army of the time when the regiment will be fully equipped and ready to march.

III.—First Lieutenant Walter H. Stevens, Corps of Engineers, having failed to render his accounts, as required by the act of January 31, 1823, and being a defaulter to the Government, is dismissed the service of the United States—the dismissal to date from May 2, 1861.

IV.—Commanding Officers of regiments are reminded that the appointment, resignation and removal of Regimental Adjutants, are to be reported immediately to this Office. The attention of officers commanding mounted regiments is especially directed to this requirement.

I.—Hereafter, when volunteers are to be mustered into the service of the United States, they will, at the same time, be minutely examined by the Surgeon and Assistant Surgeon of the Regiment, to ascertain whether they have the physical qualifications necessary for the military service. And in case any individual shall be discharged within three months after entering the service, for a disability which existed at that time, he shall receive neither pay nor allowances, except subsistence and transportation to his home. The certificate given by the Surgeon will, in all cases, state whether the disability existed prior to the date of muster, or was contracted after it.

Minors, also, who may be discharged either by the civil authority or upon the personal application of parents or friends, will be discharged without pay or allowances.

II.—Cases of resignation by volunteer officers have become so numerous that it calls for increased vigilance on the part of Regimental, Brigade, and Department Commanders to prevent abuse; and hereafter the Regimental and other Commanders through whom the resignation must pass for final action at Department Headquarters, will see, before approving it, that a clear statement of the causes which led to the resignation is given. If accepted, and the individual be discharged, the resignation will be forwarded to this office.

III.—Par. 3 of General Orders, No. 45, from this Office, dated July 19th, 1861, which prohibits volunteers who do not speak the English language from being mustered into service, is not intended to apply to regiments or companies of foreign nationality—in which men and officers speak the same tongue—but to prevent the enlistment into regiments or companies whose officers speak the English language only, of men not understanding it, and to induce such persons to enlist under officers whose language they do understand.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 10, 1861.

The following acts of Congress are published for the information of the army.

[PUBLIC—No. 22.]

AN ACT to provide for the suppression of rebellion against, and resistance to, the laws of the United States, and to amend the act entitled "An act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, &c." passed February twenty-eight, seventeen hundred and ninety-five.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever, by reason of unlawful obstructions, combinations, or assemblages of persons, or rebellion against the authority of the government of the United States, it shall become impracticable, in the judgment of the President of the United States, to enforce, by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, the laws of the United States within any State or Territory of the United States, it shall be lawful for the President of the United States to call forth the militia of any or all the States of the Union, and to employ such parts of the land and naval forces of the United States as he may deem necessary, to enforce the faithful execution of the laws of the United States, or to suppress such rebellion in whatever State or Territory thereof the laws of the United States may be forcibly opposed, or the execution thereof forcibly obstructed.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That whenever in the judgment of the President it may be necessary to use the military force hereby directed to be employed and called forth by him, the President shall forthwith, by proclamation, command such insurgents to disperse and retire peaceably to their respective abodes within a limited time.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the militia so called into the service of the United States shall be subject to the same rules and articles of war as the troops of the United States, and be continued in the service of the United States until discharged by proclamation of the President: Provided, That such continuance in service shall not extend beyond sixty days after the commencement of the next regular session of Congress, unless Congress shall expressly provide by law therefor; And provided further, That the militia so called into the service of the United States shall, during their term of service, be entitled to the same pay, rations and allowances for clothing, as are, or may be established by law for the army of the United States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That every officer, non-commissioned officer, or private of the militia, who shall fail to obey the orders of the President of the United States in any of the cases before recited, shall forfeit a sum not exceeding one year's pay, and not less than one month's pay, to be determined and adjudged by a court-martial; and such officer shall be liable to be cashiered by a sentence of court-martial, and be incapacitated from holding a commission in the militia, for a term not exceeding twelve months, at the discretion of the court; and such non-commissioned officer and private shall be liable to imprisonment by a like sentence, on failure of payment of the fines adjudged against them for one calendar month, for every twenty-five dollars of such fine.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That courts-martial for the trial of militia shall be composed of militia officers only.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That all fines to be assessed as aforesaid, shall be certified by the presiding officer of the court-martial, and shall be collected and paid over according to the provisions and in the manner prescribed by the seventh and eighth sections of the act of February twenty-eight, seventeen hundred and ninety-five, to which this is an amendment.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That the marshals of the several districts of the United States, and their deputies, shall have the same powers in executing the laws of the United States as sheriffs and their deputies in the several States have, by law, in executing the laws of the respective States.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That sections two, three and four of the act entitled "An act to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions, and to repeal the act now in force for those purposes," approved February twenty-eight, seventeen hundred and ninety-five, and so much of the residue of said act and of all other acts as conflict with this act, are hereby repealed.

Approved July 29, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 38.]

AN ACT providing for the better organization of the military establishment.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, an officer in the War Department, to be called the Assistant Secretary of War, whose salary shall be three thousand dollars per annum, payable in the same manner as that of the Secretary of War, who shall perform all such duties in the office of the Secretary of War, belonging to that department, as shall be prescribed by the Secretary of War, or as may be required by law.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is hereby authorized to appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, in addition to the number authorized by existing laws and in accordance with existing regulations, five assistant inspector generals, with the rank and pay of majors of cavalry, ten surgeons and twenty assistant surgeons, to have the pay, rank and allowances, and perform the duties of similar officers in the present military establishment. That hereafter the Adjutant General's department shall consist of the following officers, namely: One adjutant general, with the rank, pay and emoluments of a brigadier general; one assistant adjutant general, with the rank, pay and emoluments of a colonel of cavalry; two assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay and emoluments each of a lieutenant colonel of cavalry; four assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay and emoluments each of a major of cavalry; and twelve assistant adjutant generals, with the rank, pay and emoluments each of a captain of cavalry; and that there shall be added to the Subsistence department four commissaries of subsistence, each with the rank, pay and emoluments of a major of cavalry; and eight commissaries of subsistence, with the rank, pay and emoluments each of a captain of cavalry, and to be taken from the line of the army, either of the volunteers or regular army.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to each of the corps of engineers and topographical engineers three first and three second lieutenants, to be promoted thereto in accordance with the existing laws and regulations. And there shall be added to the Quartermaster's department one colonel, two lieutenant colonels, four majors and twenty captains, with the rank, pay and allowances of officers of cavalry; and whenever any army captain of the Quartermaster's department shall have served fourteen years' continuous service, he shall be promoted to the rank of major; and that there shall be added to the Quartermaster's department as many master wagoners with the rank, pay and allowances of sergeants of cavalry, and as many wagoners with the pay and allowances of corporals of cavalry, as the military service, in the judgment of the President, may render necessary. And there shall be added to the Ordnance department of the United States army, as now organized, one Chief of Ordnance, with the rank, pay and emoluments of the quartermaster general of the army; one colonel, one lieutenant colonel and six second lieutenants; the field officers to be appointed by selection from the officers of the army, and the second lieutenants from the graduates of the United States Military Academy, by transfers from the engineers, or the topographical engineers, or the artillery.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the corps of engineers three companies of engineer soldiers, to be commanded by appropriate officers of said corps, to have the same pay and rations, clothing and other allowances, and be entitled to the same benefits, in every respect, as the company created by the act for the organization of a company of sappers and miners and pontoniers, approved May sixteen, eighteen hundred and forty-six. The said three companies shall be subject to the rules and articles of war; shall be recruited in the same manner and with the same limitation; shall be instructed in and perform the same duties, and be liable to serve in the same way, and shall have their vehicles, pontoons, tools, implements, arms and other supplies, regulated in the same manner as the existing engineer company; and each of the four companies of engineer soldiers shall hereafter be composed of ten sergeants, ten corporals, two musicians, sixty-four privates of the first class, or artificers, and sixty-four privates of the second class, in all one hundred and fifty men each.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That there be added to the medical staff of the army a corps of medical cadets, whose duty it shall be to act as dressers in the general hospitals and as ambulance attendants in the field under the direction and control of the medical officers alone. They shall have the same rank and pay as the military cadets at West Point. Their number shall be regulated by the exigencies of service, at no time to exceed fifty. It shall be composed of young men of liberal education, students of medicine, between the ages of eighteen and twenty-three, who have been reading medicine for two years, and have attended at least one course of lectures in a medical college. They shall enlist for one year, and be subject to the rules and articles of war. On the fifteenth day of the last month of their service the near approach of their discharge shall be reported to the surgeon general, in order if desired, that they may be relieved by another detail of applicants.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That in general or permanent hospitals female nurses may be substituted for soldiers, when, in the opinion of the surgeon general or medical officer in charge, it is expedient to do so, the number of female nurses to be indicated by the surgeon general or surgeon in charge of the hospital. The nurses so employed to receive forty cents a day and one ration in kind, or by commutation, in lieu of all emoluments except transportation in kind.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That one chaplain shall be allowed to each regiment of the army, to be selected and appointed as the President may direct: Provided, That none but regularly ordained ministers of some Christian denomination shall be eligible to selection or appointment.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That no cadet who has been or shall hereafter be reported as deficient, either in conduct or studies, and recommended to be discharged from the academy, shall be returned or reappointed, or appointed to any place in the army before his class shall have left the academy and received their commissions, unless upon the recommendation of the academic board of the academy: Provided, That all cadets now in the service, or hereafter entering the Military Academy at West Point, shall be called on to take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will support the Constitution of the United States, and bear true allegiance to the national government; that I will maintain and defend the sovereignty of the United States paramount to any and all allegiance, sovereignty, or fealty I may owe to any State, county, or country whatsoever; and that I will at all times obey the legal orders of my superior officers and the rules and articles governing the armies of the United States." And any cadet or candidate for admission who shall refuse to take this oath shall be dismissed from the service.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the three months' extra pay allowed by the twenty-ninth section of the act of the fifth of July, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight for re-enlistments under certain conditions, the bounty granted by the third section of the act of the seventeenth of June, eighteen hundred and fifty, for enlistments at remote and distant stations, and the premium now paid for bringing accepted recruits to the rendezvous, be, and they are hereby, abolished.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That hereafter two dollars per month shall be retained out of the monthly pay of each enlisted man in the regular army until the expiration of his term of service, instead of one dollar per month, as authorized by existing laws.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That in all cases of enlistment and re-enlistment in the military service of the United States, the prescribed oath of allegiance may be administered by any commissioned officer of the army.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the two regiments of dragoons, the regiment of mounted riflemen, and the two regiments of cavalry, shall hereafter be known and recognized as the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth regiments of cavalry, respectively; the officers thereof to retain their present relative rank, and to be promoted as of one arm of service, according to existing law and established usage and regulation.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That the army ration shall be increased as follows, viz.: Twenty-two ounces of bread or flour, or one pound of hard bread, instead of the present issue; fresh beef shall be issued as often as the commanding officer of any detachment or regiment shall require it, when practicable, in place of salt meat; beans and rice or hominy shall be issued in the same ration in the proportion now provided by the regulation, and one pound of potatoes per man shall be issued at least three times a week, if practicable; and when these articles cannot be issued in these proportions, an equivalent in value shall be issued in some other proper food, and a ration of tea may be substituted for a ration of coffee upon the requisition of the proper officer: Provided, That after the present insurrection shall cease, the ration shall be as provided by law and regulations on the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That there may be allowed in hospitals, to be provided under such rules as the surgeon general of the army, with the approval of the Secretary of War, may prescribe, such quantities of fresh or preserved fruits, milk or butter, and of eggs, as may be necessary for the proper diet of the sick.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That any commissioned officer of the army, or of the marine corps, who shall have served as such for forty consecutive years, may, upon his own application to the President of the United States, be placed upon the list of retired officers, with the pay and emoluments allowed by this act.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That if any commissioned officer of the army, or of the marine corps, shall have become, or shall hereafter become incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be placed upon the retired list and withdrawn from active service and command, and from the line of promotion, with the following pay and emoluments, namely: the pay proper of the highest rank held by him at the time of his retirement, whether by staff or regimental commission, and four rations per day, and without any other pay, emoluments, or allowances; and the next officer in rank shall be promoted to the place of the retired officer, according to the established rules of the service. And the same rule of promotion shall be applied successively to the vacancies consequent upon the retirement of an officer: Provided, That should the brevet lieutenant general be retired under this act, it shall be without reduction in his current pay, subsistence, or allowances: And provided further, That there shall not be on the retired list at any one time more than seven per centum of the whole number of officers of the army, as fixed by law.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That, in order to carry out the provisions of this act, the Secretary of War or Secretary of the Navy, as the case may be, under the direction and approval of the President of the United States, shall, from time to time, as occasion may require, assemble a board of not more than nine nor less than five commissioned officers, two-fifths of whom shall be of the medical staff; the board, except those taken from the medical staff, to be composed, as far as may be, of his seniors in rank, to determine the facts as to the nature and occasion of the disability of such officers as appear disabled to perform such military service, such board being hereby invested with the powers of a court of inquiry and court-martial, and their decision shall be subject to like revision as that of such courts by the President of the United States. The board, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, will report whether, in its judgment, the said incapacity result from long and faithful service, from wounds or injury received in the line of duty, from sickness or exposure therein, or from any other incident of service. If so, and the President approve such judgment, the disabled officer shall thereupon be placed upon the list of retired officers, according to the provisions of this act. If otherwise, and if the President concur in opinion with the board, the officer shall be retired as above, either with his pay proper alone or with his service rations alone, at the discretion of the President, or he shall be wholly retired from the service, with one year's pay and allowances; and in this last case his name shall be thenceforward omitted from the Army Register, or Navy Register, as the case may be: Provided always, That the members of the board shall in every case be sworn to an honest and impartial discharge of their duties, and that no officer of the army shall be retired either partially or wholly from the service without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if, upon due summons, he shall demand it.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That the officers partially retired shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their respective grades, shall continue to be borne upon the Army Register, or Navy Register, as the case may be, and shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and to trial by general court-martial for any breach of the said articles.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That so much of the sixth section of the act of August twenty-three, eighteen hundred and forty-two, as allows additional or double rations to the commandant of each permanent or fixed post, garrisoned with troops, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That officers of the army, when absent from their appropriate duties for a period exceeding six months, either with or without leave, shall not receive the allowances authorized by the existing laws, for servants' forage, transportation of baggage, fuel, and quarters, either in kind or in commutation.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That any officer of the navy who has been forty years in the service of the United States may, upon his own application to the President of the United States, be placed upon the list of retired officers of the navy, and shall receive the pay and emoluments allowed by this act.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That if any officer of the navy shall have become, or shall hereafter become incapable of performing the duties of his office, he shall be placed upon the retired list, and withdrawn from active service and command, and from the line of promotion, with the following pay and emoluments, namely:

Captains in the navy, thirteen hundred dollars;
Commanders in the navy, eleven hundred dollars;
Lieutenants in the navy, one thousand dollars;

Surgeons ranking with captains, thirteen hundred dollars;
 Surgeons ranking with commanders, eleven hundred dollars;
 Surgeons ranking with Lieutenants, one thousand dollars;
 Paymasters ranking with captains, thirteen hundred dollars;
 Paymasters ranking with commanders, eleven hundred dollars;
 Paymasters ranking with lieutenants, one thousand dollars;
 Chief Engineers, one thousand dollars;
 First Assistant Engineers, seven hundred dollars;
 Second Assistant Engineers, five hundred dollars;
 Third Assistant Engineers, four hundred dollars;
 Masters, four hundred dollars;

Passed midshipmen, three hundred and fifty dollars; and with four rations per day, to each of the above named officers of the navy, to be commuted at thirty cents each ration, and without any other pay or allowances. Captains, commanders and lieutenants, now on the retired list of the navy, shall receive the same compensation and no greater than is allowed to retired officers of the same rank by the provisions of this act. The next officer in rank shall be promoted to the place of the retired officer, according to the established rules of the service. And the same rule of promotion shall be applied successively to the vacancies consequent upon the retirement of an officer.

SEC. 23. And be it further enacted, That whenever any officer of the navy, on being ordered to perform the duties appropriate to his commission, shall report himself unable to comply with such order, or whenever, in the judgment of the President of the United States, an officer of the navy shall be in any way incapacitated from performing the duties of his office, the President, at his discretion, shall direct the Secretary of the Navy to refer the case of such officer to a board of not more than nine, and not less than five commissioned officers, two-fifths of whom shall be members of the medical bureau of the navy; the board, except those taken from the medical bureau, to be composed, if possible, (as far as may be,) of his seniors in rank. The determination of the board in each case shall, with a record of its proceedings, be transmitted to the Secretary of the Navy, to be laid before the President for his approval or disapproval, and orders in the case. The board, whenever it finds an officer incapacitated for active service, will report whether in its judgment, the incapacity result from long and faithful service, from wounds or injury received in the line of duty, from sickness or exposure therein, or from any other incident of service. If so, and the President approve of such judgment, the disabled officer shall thereupon be placed upon the list of retired officers, according to the provisions of this act; but if such disability or incompetency proceeded from other causes, and the President concur in opinion with the board, the officer may be retired upon furlough pay, or he shall be wholly retired from the service, with one year's pay, at the discretion of the President; and in this last case, his name shall be wholly omitted from the Navy Register. The members of the board, shall, in every case, be sworn to an honest and impartial discharge of their duties, and no officer of the navy shall be retired, either partially or wholly, from the service, without having had a fair and full hearing before the board, if he shall demand it.

SEC. 24. And be it further enacted, That the retired officers shall be entitled to wear the uniform of their respective grades, shall continue to be borne upon the Navy Register, shall be subject to the rules and articles governing the navy, and to trial by general court-martial.

SEC. 25. And be it further enacted, That retired officers of the army, navy, and marine corps, may be assigned to such duties, as the President may deem them capable of performing, and such as the exigencies of the public service may require.

Approved August 3, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 42.]

AN ACT supplementary to an act entitled "An act to increase the present military establishment of the United States," approved July twenty-ninth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That it shall be lawful for the President of the United States, during the existing insurrection and rebellion, upon the recommendation of the lieutenant general commanding the army of the United States, or of any major general of the regular army of the United States commanding forces of the United States in the field, to appoint such a number of aides-de-camp, in addition to those now authorized by law, as the exigencies of the service may, in the opinion of the President, require; such aides-de-camp to bear respectively the rank and authority of captains, majors, lieutenant colonels, or colonels of the regular army as the President may direct, and to receive the same pay and allowances as are provided by existing laws for officers of cavalry of corresponding rank. The President shall cause all aides-de-camp appointed under this act to be discharged whenever they shall cease to be employed in active service, and he may reduce the number so employed whenever he may deem it expedient so to do. Any officers of the regular army appointed aides-de-camp under this act, and detached or assigned to duty for service as such, shall upon their discharge resume their positions in the regular army, and shall be entitled to the same rank and promotion as if they had continued to serve in their own regiments or corps.

Approved August 5, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 49.]

AN ACT making appropriations for fortifications, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That there be, and is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, the sum of one hundred thousand dollars for contingencies of fortifications, to be used and applied under direction of the Secretary of War.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That any commissioned officer of the army, navy, or marine corps, who, having tendered his resignation, shall, prior to due notice of the acceptance of the same by the proper authority, and, without leave, quit his post or proper duties with the intent to remain permanently absent therefrom, shall be registered as a deserter, and punished as such.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That flogging as a punishment in the army is hereby abolished.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That for removing stables and other obstructions from the grounds around the Washington Infirmary, used as an army hospital, and grading said grounds to secure proper drainage of the same, the sum of five thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the Surgeon General of the United States army.

Approved August 5, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 52.]

AN ACT to promote the efficiency of the engineer and topographical engineer corps, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That there shall be added to each of the corps of engineers and topographical engineers, by regular promotion of their present officers, two lieutenant colonels, and four majors.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the corps of topographical engineers one company of soldiers, to be commanded by appropriate officers of said corps, to have the same pay and rations, clothing, and other allowances, and to be entitled to the same benefits in every respect as the company created by the act for the organization of a company of sappers and miners and pontoniers, approved May sixteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six. The said company shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall have the same organization as the companies of engineer soldiers attached to the corps of engineers.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That vacancies hereafter occurring among the commissioned officers of the volunteer regiments shall be filled by the governors of the States respectively, in the same manner as original appointments. And so much of the tenth section of the act approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as is inconstant herewith, be, and the same is hereby, repealed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States is hereby authorized to appoint two additional inspectors general for the United States army; said inspectors general to have the same rank and receive the same pay and allowances as now provided by law for inspectors general.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That so much of the first section of the act approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, as authorizes the appointment of civilians to superintend the national armories be, and the same is hereby, repealed, and that the superintendents of these armories shall be appointed hereafter from officers of the Ordnance Department.

Approved August 6, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 53.]

AN ACT to authorize an increase in the corps of engineers and topographical engineers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be added to each of the corps of engineers and topographical engineers, by regular promotion of their present officers, two lieutenant colonels and four majors.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the corps of topographical engineers one company of soldiers, to be commanded by appropriate officers of said corps, to have the same pay and rations, clothing, and other allowances, and to be entitled to the same benefits in every respect as the company created by the act for the organization of a company of sappers and miners and pontoniers, approved May sixteenth, eighteen hundred and forty-six. The said company shall be subject to the rules and articles of war, and shall have the same organization as the companies of engineer soldiers attached to the corps of engineers.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States is hereby authorized to appoint two additional inspectors general of the United States army, to have the same rank and receive the same pay and allowances as now provided by law for inspectors general.

Approved August 6, 1861.

[PUBLIC—No. 58.]

AN ACT to increase the pay of the privates in the regular army and in the volunteers in the service of the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the pay of the privates in the regular army and volunteers in the service of the United States be thirteen dollars per month for three years from and after the passage of this act, and until otherwise fixed by law.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the provisions of the act entitled "An act for the relief of the Ohio and other volunteers," approved July twenty-fourth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, be, and the same are hereby, extended to all volunteers mustered into the service of the United States, whether for one, two, or three years, or for and during the war.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted. That all the acts, proclamations, and orders of the President of the United States after the 4th of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, respecting the army and navy of the United States, and calling out or relating to the militia or volunteers from the States, are hereby approved and in all respects legalized and made valid, to the same intent and with the same effect as if they had been issued and done under the previous express authority and direction of the Congress of the United States.

Approved August 6, 1861.

[PRIVATE—No. 3.]

AN ACT for the relief of the Ohio and other volunteers.

Whereas the War Department has decided that the term of service of the ninety days' volunteers, called out under the act of seventeen hundred and ninety-five, commenced only on the day when they were actually sworn into the service of the United States; and whereas the troops now in service of the United States from the State of Ohio were not sworn into said service until some days after their organization and acceptance as companies by the governor of said State, and that for such period, under existing laws, no payment can be made: Therefore—

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the proper disbursing officer compute and pay to the said volunteers compensation from the day of their organization and acceptance as companies by the governor of the State of Ohio, as aforesaid, until the expiration of their term of service.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That where the militia of other States are situated similarly with those of Ohio, the War Department pay them according to the provisions of the foregoing section.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, August 15, 1861.

I.—The officers of the Regular Army now on mustering duty in the principal cities are appointed disbursing officers of the funds appropriated by act of Congress "for collecting, drilling, and organizing volunteers, under the act authorizing the President to accept the services of five hundred thousand men," &c. They will be charged with the payment of all proper claims presented to them under this act, duly authenticated and certified to, by the various volunteer recruiting officers. These disbursements will be made in the manner prescribed for the Recruiting Service of the Regular Army. The premium for accepted recruits as laid down in par. 1315 General Regulations will not, however, be allowed in the Volunteer service. The officers charged with these disbursements will immediately make requisitions on this office for the requisite funds.

II.—Camps of rendezvous and instruction for volunteers will be established at or in the vicinity of New York, Elmyra, N. Y., Harrisburg, Pa., Cincinnati, Ohio, and other convenient places, under charge of officers of the regular service.

To facilitate the raising of Volunteer Regiments, officers recruiting therefor are authorized to muster their men into service as enrolled. As soon as mustered, these men will be sent, with descriptive lists, to the camps of rendezvous, at which places the oath of allegiance will be duly administered by a civil magistrate, or an officer of the regular army. The cost of transportation from place of muster to place of rendezvous will be paid by the Quartermaster at the latter station.

III. When the organization of regiments accepted to be raised within a specified time, is not completed at the expiration of that period, the companies and detachments thereof, already mustered into service, will be assigned to other regiments at the pleasure of this Department.

BY ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 61.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 19, 1861.

Officers who have not been mustered into service have power to enroll men, but are not competent to muster them, under the provisions of General Orders No. 58, current series, from the War Department. In this case the muster must be made by some officer, either volunteer or regular, already in the service, and the oath must be administered by a civil magistrate or an officer of the regular army,—preferably, the latter.

In mustering companies, the original muster in rolls will be retained at the company rendezvous, upon which the names of the members will be enrolled as they present themselves. As they are mustered they will be sent to the commanding officers of camps of rendezvous, with descriptive lists stating name, date of enrollment and muster, the officer by whom mustered, the company and regiment to which they belong, whether they have or have not taken the oath of allegiance prescribed for those entering the service, and such other information as may be necessary or useful in the case. Necessary subsistence will be procured upon returns signed by the mustering officer.

When one half a company has been mustered into service, the 1st Lieutenant thereof can also be mustered in, and when the organization of the company is completed, the Captain and 2d Lieutenant can be so mustered.

When the men of a company have been mustered by more than one officer, the fact must be stated on the muster rolls, opposite their names, "by whom mustered," and these rolls must be signed by each of the mustering officers.

Field and Staff officers of regiments can be mustered into service upon the completion of the organization of Regiment or companies as follows:

Colonel—Entire regiment.

Lieut. Col.—Four companies.

Major—Six companies.

Chaplain,

Surgeon,

Adjutant,

Quartermaster,

Assistant Surgeon;

} Entire regiment.

The cost of transportation of troops from place of muster to place of rendezvous, will be paid as directed in General Orders, No. 58, current series from this Office, from the appropriation for "collecting, drilling, and organizing Volunteers." Quartermasters at camps of rendezvous will make requisitions upon the Adjutant General for the funds necessary for this purpose. All officers charged with the disbursements of funds appropriated under the act mentioned, will forward to this Office, monthly summary statements and accounts current with vouchers, in the manner prescribed for the General Recruiting Service.

V. Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing order, to the companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment. Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence of the former.

VI. The number prefixed to the name of each of the Second Lieutenants, in the above list of appointments, indicates his rank among those of the same date.

VII. Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and in case of acceptance, the birthplace of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant General.

VIII. With the exception of those on special duty, and of the Second Lieutenants appointed to companies on the Pacific coast, who will report at once for further orders, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments.

By ORDER:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 28, 1861.

I.—Commanding officers of Volunteer regiments, or independent companies, will take measures to keep the strength of their commands up to the maximum standard of organization prescribed by General Orders No. 15, current series, from this Department, for Cavalry and Infantry, and General Orders No. 16, current series, from the same Department, for Artillery. For this purpose they will detail from time to time, as required, one commissioned officer, or two, if necessary, with one or two non-commissioned officers or privates, to recruit in the districts in which the regiments or companies were raised.

The authority for the officers and men, thus detailed, to leave their regiments or companies, must be approved by the Brigade and Division Commanders, and the General commanding the Department or Corps d'Armée.

Immediately upon their arrival at their stations, or if more convenient, upon their way thither, the commissioned officers thus detailed will report in person or by letter to the nearest United States mustering officer, who will give them instructions in the matters of recruiting, the expenses proper to be incurred therefor, and the rendition of their accounts with proper vouchers.

Mustering officers will muster into service and administer the oath of allegiance to such regiments or recruits brought to them as may present conclusive evidence of their acceptance by this Department.

II.—All enlisted men in the Volunteer service, who have been taken prisoners by the enemy and released on parole, will be discharged from the service.

By ORDER :

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 70.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 3, 1861.

I.—It is announced that the appropriation "for collecting, drilling, and organizing volunteers, under the acts authorizing the President to accept the services of five hundred thousand men," is intended for the payment of all expenses that may hereafter be incurred therefor, as well as for the reimbursement to individuals of such amounts as have been already justly and actually expended by them in raising troops that have been, or may be, received into the service of the United States.

Reimbursements of expenses for organizations raised, or attempted to be raised, but not actually mustered into the United States service, will not be made.

Claims of States for expenditures heretofore made by them in raising volunteers, are provided for by separate and distinct appropriations, and will not be paid from the one now referred to.

Bills must in all cases specify the date of expenditure, the particular item and amount, and the company or regiment for which the expense was incurred. They must be accompanied by the receipt of the party to whom payment was made, and by a certificate of the officer or person incurring the expense, that the amount charged is accurate and just, and that it was necessary for the public service, for troops raised for the United States.

Among expenses properly chargeable against this appropriation may be enumerated:

1st. Rent of rendezvous or office for recruiting.

2d. Commutation of fuel and quarters for officers already mustered into service, when detached on recruiting duty.

3d. Subsistence of volunteers prior to their muster into service. After such muster, subsistence will be provided by the Subsistence Department. If possible, subsistence will be issued in kind, as recognized in the regular service, (or if other articles are substituted, the cost of the whole must not exceed the regular supplies,) and will be paid for at rates not exceeding the current prices at the place of purchase. If subsistence cannot be furnished in kind, and board be necessary, it will be furnished at a rate not to exceed forty cents per diem.

4th. Necessary transportation of volunteers prior to completion of company organization and muster into service as a company. After completion of such organization and muster, transportation will be paid by the Quartermaster's Department. Transportation will be at the rate of two cents per mile for railroad travel, and at the current rates for stage and steamboat fare.

5th. Rent of grounds and buildings for camping purposes, cost of erection of quarters, of cooking stoves when absolutely necessary, of clerk and office hire when authorized by the Adjutant General, and of all expenses incidental to camps of rendezvous.

6th. Knives, forks, tin cups and tin plates for volunteers.

7th. Necessary medicines and medical attendance prior to organization of regiments, or the mustering in of the Regimental Surgeons.

8th. Actual railroad, stage, or steamboat fare necessarily incurred by authorized agents in raising or recruiting volunteers.

9th. Advertising. Officers recruiting will be authorized to advertise for recruits in not to exceed two newspapers for each rendezvous under their charge.

10th. Fuel and straw previous to company organization, according to the allowance for the regular army.

11th. All other expenses allowed for recruiting in the regular service, not herein mentioned, and incurred for volunteers previous to their muster into the United States service.

I.—At the General Court Martial which convened at Camp Brown, Santa Rosa Island, Florida, pursuant to Special Orders No. 44, of July 20, 1861, from the Headquarters of the Department of Florida, and of which Lieutenant Colonel John Creighton, 6th Regiment N. Y. Volunteers, is President, was arraigned and tried Second Lieutenant Theodore Evarts, of the 6th Regiment N. Y. Volunteers, on the following charges and specifications, viz :

CHARGE I.—“Violation of the 42d article of the Rules and Articles of War.”

Specification—“In this : that Theodore Evarts, 6th Regiment N. Y. Volunteers, did, on or about the night of July 11, 1861, absent himself and remain absent from Camp Brown, near Fort Pickens, Florida, without permission from his Commanding Officer, until the next day.”

CHARGE II.—“Violation of the 45th article of the Rules and Articles of War.”

Specification—“In this : that the said Second Lieutenant Theodore Evarts, having been detailed for and being on duty in command of a fatigue party, at or near Fort Pickens, Florida, did become so drunk as to be unable to perform his duty. This was on or about the 11th day of July, 1861.”

CHARGE III.—“Violation of the 83d article of the Rules and Articles of War.”

Specification 1st—“In this : that the said Second Lieutenant Theodore Evarts was disgracefully drunk on or about the night of the 11th of July, 1861, at or near Fort Pickens, Florida.”

Specification 2d—“In this : that the said Second Lieutenant Theodore Evarts, at the time and place aforesaid, being drunk, did lie down in the guard-room among the enlisted soldiers, and did there pass the night of the 11th of July, 1861."

To which charges and specifications the accused pleaded "Not Guilty."

FINDINGS OF THE COURT.

"Of the Specification to 1st CHARGE, Guilty."

"Of the 1st CHARGE, Guilty."

"Of the Specification to 2d CHARGE, Not Guilty."

"Of the 2d CHARGE, Not Guilty."

"Of the 1st Specification to 3d CHARGE, Not Guilty."

"Of the 2d Specification to 3d CHARGE, Guilty, substituting the words under the influence of liquor for the word drunk."

"Of the 3d CHARGE, Guilty."

SENTENCE.

The Court does, "therefore sentence him, 2d Lieutenant Theodore Evarts, of the 6th Regiment New York Volunteers, to be dismissed the service of the United States."

II.—In conformity with the 65th Article of War, the proceedings of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case have been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and by him laid before the President of the United States, and the following are the orders thereon:

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 9, 1861.

The proceedings of the Court in the foregoing case are approved; but in consideration of the recommendation of a majority of the members of the Court, the sentence is remitted. Second Lieutenant Evarts will be released from arrest and returned to duty.

SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

III.—At the General Court Martial which convened at Camp Brown, near Fort Pickens, Florida, pursuant to Special Orders No. 45, of July 29, 1861, from the Headquarters of the Department of Florida, and of which Major William Newby, 6th Regiment New York Volunteers, is President, was arraigned and tried Lieutenant James A. Haggerty, of the 6th Regiment New York Volunteers, on the following charges and specifications, viz:

CHARGE I.—"Violation of the 24th article of the Rules and Articles of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said 1st Lieutenant James A. Haggerty, did use blasphemous and threatening language to Lieutenant James J. Heary, on the 25th day of July, 1861."

CHARGE II.—"Violation of the 45th article of the Rules and Articles of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said 1st Lieut. James A. Haggerty was so much under the influence of intoxicating liquor, while acting as Officer of the Guard, on the afternoon of Thursday, the 25th July, 1861, as to be unable to perform his duties properly."

CHARGE III.—"Violation of the 99th article of the Rules and Articles of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said 1st Lieut. James A. Haggerty did strike private Charles P. Lange, of Company "C," of the 6th Regiment New York Volunteers, with his sword, three times, without provocation, on the afternoon of July 25, 1861."

Specification—"In this; that the said 1st Lieut. James A. Haggerty did strike private George White, of Company "H," of the 6th Regiment of New York Volunteers, on the head, with his sword, while said White was posted as a Sentinel on picket duty, and did otherwise abuse him on the night of the 25th July, 1861; all this at Camp Brown, near Fort Pickens."

To which charges and specifications the accused pleaded "Not Guilty."

FINDINGS OF THE COURT.

"Of first Specification to first Charge, Guilty."

"Of Specification to second Charge, Guilty."

"Of first Specification to third Charge, Guilty."

"Of second Specification to third Charge, Guilty."

SENTENCE.

The Court "does therefore sentence Lieutenant James A. Haggerty to be cashiered."

IV.—In conformity with the 65th Article of War, the proceedings of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case have been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and by him laid before the President of the United States, and the following are the orders thereon:

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 9, 1861.

The proceedings of the Court in the case of Lieutenant James A. Haggerty, having been submitted to the President, he confirms them, and directs the sentence to be carried into execution.

SIMON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

II.—That portion of General Orders No. 15, current series, from this Office, which prescribes one Major for a Regiment of Cavalry, has been so far modified as to allow three Majors for a Regiment of twelve companies, and two for one of eight or ten companies.

III.—The attention of Officers, and all others having business with the War Department or its different Bureaux, is called to the excessive use of the telegraph in cases where it is entirely unnecessary, and in which the business would be much more certainly and correctly transacted through the mail. A large majority of the telegrams received are of this character, whilst the telegraph should be used only in cases of urgent and imperative necessity, where the delay of the mail would be actually prejudicial to the public interest. No dispatches will be noticed here unless this necessity is recognized, and in such cases they will be paid for by the party sending them, who may look for remuneration to the Quartermaster's Department, on presenting a copy of the telegram to show that it was upon public business and that the matter demanded this mode of communication.

Officers commanding regiments, brigades, divisions, armies in the field and military departments, whether of the regular army or the volunteers, are reminded of the Article of War and of the regulation, which make it their duty to remit, in the beginning of every month, to this office, an exact return of the troops under their command. Blanks in profusion have been distributed for the purpose, and there can therefore be no excuse for the persistent manner in which this duty has been ignored. Hereafter it must be fulfilled, and punctually. WAR DEPARTMENT, September 9, 1861.

For the purpose of preserving accurate and permanent records of deceased soldiers, and their place of burial, it is hereby ordered that the Quartermaster General of the United States Army shall cause to be printed and to be placed in every General and Post Hospital of the Army, blank books and forms corresponding with the accompanying duplicate forms, for preserving said records. The Quartermaster will also provide proper means for a registered head-board, to be secured at the head of each soldier's grave, as directed in the following Special Order to Commanding Officers, in reference to the interment of deceased soldiers:

It is hereby ordered that whenever any soldier or officer of the United States Army dies, it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of the military corps or department in which such person dies, to cause the regulation and forms provided in the foregoing directions to the Quartermaster General to be properly executed.

It is also ordered that any Adjutant, or Acting Adjutant (or commander) of a military post or company, immediately upon the reception of a copy of any mortuary record from a military company, shall transmit the same to the Adjutant General at Washington.

Washington, September 12, 1861.

I.—At the General Court Martial which convened at Fort Monroe, Va., pursuant to "Special Orders" No. 190, of July 16, 1861, from the War Department, and of which Col. JOHN W. PHELPS, 1st Regiment Vermont Volunteers, is President, was arraigned and tried Colonel William H. Allen, 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, on the following charges and specifications, viz:

CHARGE I.—"Disobedience of Orders."

Specification—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, did go himself and did send a portion of his command beyond the line of Pickets of Camp Hamilton, Va., in direct violation of Special Orders No. 27, from Major General Butler, dated June 7, 1861. This on or about the 27th day of June, 1861, at or near Buck Roe farm, Va."

CHARGE II.—"Conduct to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

Specification 1st—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment of N. Y. Volunteers, did arrest or cause to be arrested in his said Col. William H. Allen's camp, one Patrick H. Hopkins, a citizen of the State of Virginia, having and exhibiting at the time of his arrest a written protection or safeguard from Major General Butler, commanding the Department of Virginia, &c., and did keep said Hopkins a prisoner in his said Col. Allen's camp several hours without reporting said Hopkins's arrest to General Pierce, his immediate commanding officer. This at the camp of the 1st Regiment, New York Volunteers, near Fort Monroe, Va., on or about the 27th of June, 1861."

Specification 2d—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment N. Y. Volunteers, did arrest or cause to be arrested one Robert Jackson, a citizen of the State of Virginia, said Jackson having and exhibiting at the time of his arrest a safeguard or protection in writing from Major General Butler, and did fail to report such arrest to Brigadier General Pierce, his immediate commanding officer. This at or near Buck Roe farm, Virginia, on or about the 27th of June, 1861."

Specification 3d—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, did arrest or cause to be arrested, Richard Arrington, James Hopkins, and John Clinton, citizens of the State of Virginia, and did send them to Major General Butler, commanding the Department of Virginia, without Major General Butler's, or his immediate commander, Brigadier General Pierce's orders, or without reporting to Brigadier General Pierce that he had made such arrests. This at or near Buck Roe farm, Va., on or about the 27th of June, 1861."

CHARGE III.—"Maliciously causing private property to be destroyed."

Specification—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, caused to be burned on a place called Buck Roe farm, Va., a quantity of wheat in shocks, the produce of about twenty-five acres; this without any authority from the Commander-in-chief of the armies of the United States. This at or near Buck Roe farm, on or about the 27th of June, 1861."

CHARGE IV.—"Conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman."

Specification—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, did inform General Pierce, in the presence of his aides, and did inform other officers, that he (Colonel Allen) had not sent a party to burn a wheat crop, referring to a crop of wheat which had been burned in the neighborhood. This after he had sent a party to burn the wheat, and had approved the report of the officer commanding the party sent. This at or near Camp Hamilton, Virginia, on or about the 27th of June, 1861."

CHARGE V.—"Breach of Arrest."

Specification—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, after being placed in arrest by Major General Butler, in Special Orders dated June 28th, 1861, did leave his confinement before he was set at liberty by his commanding officer or by a superior, by going beyond the limits assigned to him by orders, dated June 28th, 1861, and signed by Major General Butler, commanding the Department of Virginia, &c. This at or near Hampton, Va., on or about the 2d July, 1861."

CHARGE VI.—"Drunkenness on duty."

Specification—"In this; that Colonel William H. Allen, commanding 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, was drunk at Major General Butler's office, when visiting said office by order of Major General Butler. This at Fort Monroe, Va., on or about the 28th of June, 1861."

To which charges and specifications the accused pleaded as follows, viz:

To the Specification 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 1st Specification 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 2d Specification 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 3d Specification 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 2d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the Specification 3d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 3d Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the Specification 4th Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 4th Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the Specification 5th Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 5th Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the Specification 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

FINDINGS OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation the Court found the accused, Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment of New York Volunteers, as follows:

Of the 3d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the Specification to 4th Charge, "Guilty, except the words Gen. Pierce in the presence of his aides."

Of the 4th Charge, "Guilty."

Of the Specification to 5th Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 5th Charge, "Guilty."

Of the Specification to 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court did, "therefore sentence him, Colonel William H. Allen, commanding the 1st Regiment New York Volunteers," "To be cashiered."

II.—In conformity with the 65th Article of War, the proceedings of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case have been transmitted to the Secretary of War, and by him laid before the President of the United States, and the following are the orders thereon:

WASHINGTON, September 10, 1861.

The proceedings, findings, and sentence of the Court in the case of Colonel William H. Allen, 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, are confirmed and approved.

A. LINCOLN.

The name of Colonel William H. Allen, 1st Regiment New York Volunteers, will accordingly be stricken from the rolls of the service, to date from September 10, 1861.

III.—The General Court Martial of which Colonel John W. Phelps, 1st Regiment Vermont Volunteers, is President, is dissolved.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 13, 1861.

The following letter has been received from the War Department, and is published for the information of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT, September 13, 1861.

SIR: You will arrange for the payment of volunteers, as directed by the provisions of the Act of Congress relating thereto, dated July 24, and as amended August 6, 1861, viz: When organized and accepted by the Governors of the several States, without regard to the date of mustering into the service of the United States, provided payment has not been made by the respective States for which the Government will eventually be liable.

When volunteer regiments have been accepted by the War Department upon what are termed independent acceptances, you will allow pay from the date of organization of each company with the minimum number of men; satisfactory evidence in each case to be furnished your Department before payment is made.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

SIMEON CAMERON, Secretary of War.

Paymaster General LARNED,

Present.

BY ORDER :

L. THOMAS, *Adjutant General.*General Orders, }
No. 78.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 16, 1861.

I.—All persons having received authority from the War Department to raise volunteer regiments, batteries or companies in the loyal States, are, with their commands, hereby placed under the orders of the Governors of those States, to whom they will immediately report the present condition of their respective organizations. These troops will be organized, or reorganized, and prepared for service by the Governors of their respective States, in the manner they may judge most advantageous for the interests of the General Government.

II.—Volunteer officers, who have complied, or may hereafter comply, with the conditions of their respective acceptances from the War Department, and who have not received commissions from the President of the United States, will be commissioned by the Governors of the respective States by furnishing the regiments, batteries, or independent companies to which these officers are attached.

III.—The Governors of the several States may, at any time during the organization of a volunteer regiment, authorize the adjutant, quartermaster, and when absolutely necessary, the medical officers thereof, to be mustered into service, to aid in recruiting the regiment, and for the prompt transaction of all other public business. All other officers will be mustered into the service as directed in General Orders, No. 61, current series, from this office.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 17, 1861.

The Commanding Officer of the U. S. Forces at Hatteras Inlet, N. C., is authorized to accept the services of such loyal North Carolinians, not to exceed one regiment, as in his neighborhood may volunteer to take up arms for the United States, and to designate a regular officer to muster them into service.

The recruits will be organized, in the first instance, into a battalion, or regiment, according to numbers. The mustering officer will make timely requisitions for arms and other necessary supplies, and the commanding officer will, on the recommendation of the volunteers, propose such persons as he may deem suitable, to officer the companies, battalion, or regiment, that they may, if approved, be commissioned by the President.

BY ORDER :

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 19, 1861.

I.—The Military Department of Ohio will, in future, consist of the State of that name, Indiana, and so much of Kentucky as lies within fifteen miles of Cincinnati, under the command of Brigadier General Mitchell, of the United States Volunteers; headquarters, Cincinnati.

So much of Virginia as lies west of the Blue Ridge mountains will constitute, in future, a separate command, to be called the Department of Western Virginia, under Brigadier General Rosecrans; headquarters in the field. The latter will continue to draw reinforcements by requisitions upon the Governor of Ohio, as heretofore, or by order addressed direct to the U. S. Commander in that State, as often as may be necessary.

II.—The attention of officers of the regular army is again directed to section 11 of the act of Congress approved August 3d, 1861, and promulgated in General Orders No. 54, current series, from this office, which prescribes that in all cases of enlistment and re-enlistment in the military service, the prescribed oath may be administered by any commissioned officer of the army. Fees to civil officers, for said service, will therefore not be admitted.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 19, 1861.

I.—Officers of Volunteers sent out to recruit for their regiments will be entitled to free passes over the roads leading to and from the points to which they are ordered. Should any portion of the route lie upon roads for which no such passes are issued, they will be paid for such distance their actual travelling expenses, subsistence not included, out of the fund for recruiting and equipping Volunteers; but in no case can they receive the allowance of 10 cents per mile for transportation of baggage. There are instances in which a free pass has been obtained and this latter amount likewise drawn for the same distance, and in all such the officers are notified that they must immediately refund the amount, upon the penalty of being stricken from the rolls.

II.—In accordance with section 12 of the act of Congress of July 22, 1861, entitled "An act to authorize the employment of Volunteers," the following method of enabling such of the Volunteer forces of the United States as may desire it, to assign portions of their pay for the benefit of their families, is hereby adopted:

1st. The assignment of pay will be made on a separate roll, similar to the annexed form, to be executed under the supervision of the Captain or immediate commander of the recruit at the time of enlistment, or of the soldier in camp.

2d. When completed, the Allotment Roll is to be transmitted to the Paymaster General, by whom the deductions will be made on each subsequent pay-roll, and the aggregate amount of each company's assignment will be transmitted by him to the distributor named in the roll, together with a copy of said roll.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Washington, September 23, 1861.

I.—Hereafter, Brigade and Regimental Commissaries, or other persons having charge of rations, will not be allowed to dispose of any portion of them, otherwise than in the manner pointed out in this order.

Whenever companies, by an economical use of their rations, have gained a surplus, it must be left in the hands of the Commissary from whom they drew their rations; and the Commissary with whom this surplus is left, shall make out a bill of purchase, on form No. 18, Subsistence Department, (notes) and certify that he has not paid for the same. These bills of purchase, at cost price of the articles, will be paid by any Commissary having funds for that purpose. The bills will, in all cases, be presented by Commanders of Companies.

The Commissary who holds the surplus will take up the stores left with him in the same manner as of any other purchase made, and account for them on his next return of provisions.

The purchase bills will be made out in triplicate—one to be kept by the officer taking up this surplus, (to accompany his return of provisions,) and two to be presented to the officer who pays the bills.

The funds accumulated by the sale of savings of rations will be strictly accounted for by the Company Commanders, in accordance with the revised Army Regulations, paragraph 205, edition of 1861.

II.—Paragraph 1292 having been inadvertently introduced into the revised Regulations of the Army, is hereby revoked; and paragraph 895, with which it was in partial conflict, will wholly supersede it.

I.—Hereafter, when certificates of disability, in the case of a volunteer, are forwarded to the Commander having authority to grant his discharge, they will be accompanied by the blank referred to in par. 165, Revised Regulations, on which the discharge from service is finally made. And the said Commander will endorse thereon the same orders that he gives upon the certificate of disability. By this means the discharge, when complete, will carry with it the evidence of its authenticity, and the necessity for investigation on the part of the Pay Department will be removed.

II.—Under the construction put by the War Department upon sections 2 and 4 of the act of Congress approved July 29, 1861, the bands of all regiments of the regular Army, will be paid alike.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 30, 1861.

In announcing to the Army the decease of the Commissary General of Subsistence, Brevet Major General GEORGE GIBSON, who departed this life at his residence in this city, last night at 12 o'clock, the Secretary of War has a most painful duty to discharge.

One by one, during the last few years, the patriarchs of the army, the veterans of our "Second War of Independence," have been dropping into their peaceful graves. The time-honored names of a Towson and a Jesup were no longer borne on the rolls of the living!—and to day one of the few remaining survivors of their gallant company, and one of the most distinguished, is also numbered with the illustrious dead. All honor to these worthy sons of the republic, born of it in its golden days—and may the soldiers of our young army strive hard to emulate their bright example, and be as successful as were they, in preserving escutcheons untarnished by any stain!

A native of Pennsylvania, General Gibson entered the army from civil life, as a Captain of Infantry, in May, 1808. Subsequently promoted Major and Lieutenant Colonel, and after having served with distinction through the war of 1812-'15, he was disbanded at its close. Reappointed, as Quartermaster General, in 1816, and subsequently made Commissary General in 1818, he rendered invaluable service, in the former capacity, to the army of General Jackson, in Florida, and thereby earned the enduring friendship of that stern old soldier. Brevetted a Brigadier General for faithful service in 1826, and a Major General, for meritorious conduct as Commissary General, during the Mexican war, he has administered the affairs of his department for a period of over 40 years, to the entire satisfaction, it is believed, of his superiors and the army.

The arrangements for his funeral will be ordered by Major General McClellan, commanding the Army of the Potomac.

As an appropriate tribute of respect to his memory, there will be fired at every military post, on the day after the receipt of this order, thirteen minute guns, commencing at meridian. The National flag will be displayed at half-staff from the same hour until sunset of the same day; and for thirty days, the prescribed badge of mourning will be worn by the officers of the Army.

I.—It is observed that many officers of the army pay postage on official communications addressed to the Adjutant General, and that others address their communications to the Assistants in the Adjutant General's Office. Both of these practices are wrong and must cease. The Adjutant General is authorized to frank and receive letters by post, free of postage. They should therefore be left unpaid, and addressed, in all cases, to "The Adjutant General of the Army."

II.—The attention of officers, having part in the discharge of soldiers for disability, is called to paragraphs 167 and 168, Revised Regulation of the Army, to the instructions for the commander of the company contained in the form of the Certificate of Disability, (page 325, Revised Regulations,) and to Note 1 attached to that form, which is in the following words: "When a probable case for pension, special care must be taken to state the degree of disability."

The neglect of company commanders to state the cause, when known, and other facts connected with the disability; and of the Surgeon to state its degree, may deprive worthy men of the pensions to which they are entitled.

The following plan for paying to the families of officers and soldiers in the service of the United States, who are, or may become prisoners of war, sums due them by the government, having been approved by the President, it is published for the information of all concerned :

Payment will be made to persons presenting a written authority from a prisoner to draw his pay ; or, without such authority, to his wife, the guardian of his minor children, or his widowed mother, in the order named.

Application for such pay must be made to the senior paymaster of the district in which the regiment of the prisoner is serving, and must be accompanied by the certificate of a Judge of a Court of the United States, of a District Attorney of the United States, or of some other party under the seal of a Court of Record of the State in which the applicant is a resident, setting forth that the said applicant is the wife of the prisoner, the guardian of his children, or his widowed mother, and if occupying either of the last two relationships towards him, that there is no one in existence, who is more nearly related, according to the above classification.

Payments will be made to parties thus authorized and identified, on their receipts made out in the manner that would be required of the prisoner himself, at least one month's pay being in all cases retained by the United States. The officer making the payment will see that it is entered on the last previous muster roll for the payment of the prisoner's company, or will report it, if those rolls are not in his possession, to the senior paymaster of the district, who will either attend to the entry or give notice of the payment to the Paymaster General, if the rolls have been forwarded to his office.

I.—United States Mustering and Disbursing Officers will supply subsistence, both prior to and subsequent to muster, for all Volunteer organizations raised under proper authority, whether originally granted by Governors of loyal States or directly by the War Department.

Subsistence prior to muster, will be paid from the appropriation for "collecting, drilling, and organizing Volunteers," and subsequent thereto from the appropriation for the Subsistence of the Army. Requisitions for funds for the former expenditures will be made upon the Adjutant General, and for the latter upon the Commissary General of Subsistence.

Accounts for expenditures under the first head will be rendered to the Adjutant General, and under the second to the Commissary General of Subsistence.

II.—The attention of officers supplying subsistence to Volunteers in the process of their organization into companies and regiments, both prior to and subsequent to muster, is called to the exorbitant prices demanded and paid for this object. Rations, in kind, will hereafter be issued whenever cooking facilities can be furnished to the troops, whether in squads or in larger bodies. If the rations cannot be contracted for at a reasonable rate, subsistence will be procured in bulk, and issued to the Volunteers. In no case should the cost of the ration, unecooked, exceed nineteen cents, and at most of the points in the Western States it should not exceed fourteen cents. When cooking facilities cannot be furnished, contracts for the rations, cooked, may be made at reasonable rates, and the necessity for the same must be clearly stated on the accounts. When board and lodging are necessary, the prices for each should be stated, and the aggregate cost of both must not exceed forty cents per day.

III.—No bands for Volunteer Regiments will in future be mustered into service, and vacancies that may hereafter occur in bands now in service will not be filled.

All members of bands now in service that are not musicians will be discharged upon the receipt of this order, by their respective Regimental Commanders.

No. 96.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, November 7, 1861.

Authority to raise a force of State Militia, to serve during the war, is granted, by direction of the President, to the Governor of Missouri. This force is to cooperate with the troops in the service of the United States in repelling the invasion of the State of Missouri and in suppressing rebellion therein. It is to be held, in camp and in the field, drilled, disciplined and governed, according to the regulations of the United States Army, and subject to the Articles of War. But it is not to be ordered out of the State of Missouri, except for the immediate defence of the said State.

The State forces thus authorized will be, during such time as they shall be actually engaged as an embodied military force in active service, armed, equipped, clothed, subsisted, transported and paid by the United States, in accordance with the Regulations of the United States Army and such orders as may from time to time be issued from the War Department, and in no other manner; and they shall be considered as disbanded from the service of the United States, whenever the President may so direct.

In connection with this force, the Governor is authorized to appoint the following officers, who will be recognized and paid by the United States, to wit: One Major General to command the whole of the State forces brought into service, who shall be the same person appointed by the President to command the United States Military Department of the West, and shall retain his commission as Major General of the State forces, only during his command of the said Department; One Adjutant General, one Inspector General, and one Quartermaster General, each with the rank and pay of a Colonel of Cavalry; three Aides-de-Camp to the Governor, each with the rank and pay of a Colonel of Infantry; Brigadier Generals, at the rate of one to a Brigade of not less than four regiments; and division, brigade and regimental staff officers, not to exceed in numbers those provided for in the organization prescribed by the act approved July 22, 1861, "for the employment of volunteers," nor to be more highly compensated by the United States, whatever their nominal rank in the State service, than officers performing the same duties under that act.

The field officers of a regiment to be: one Colonel, one Lieutenant Colonel and one Major; and the officers of a company to be, one Captain, one First and one Second Lieutenant.

When officers of the said State forces shall act in conjunction with officers of the United States Army of the same grade, the latter shall command the combined force.

All disbursements of money made to these troops, or in consequence of their employment by the United States, shall be made by disbursing officers of the United States Army, assigned by the War Department, or specially appointed by the President for that purpose, who will make their requisitions upon the different supply departments, in the same manner for the Missouri State forces, as similar requisitions are made for other volunteer troops in the service of the United States.

The Secretary of War will cause any additional regulations that may be necessary for the purpose of promoting economy, ensuring regularity of returns and protecting the United States from fraudulent practices, to be adopted and published for the government of the said State forces, and the same will be obeyed and observed by all in office under the authority of the State of Missouri.

BY ORDER:

JULIUS P. GARESCHÉ, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, } HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
No. 97. } Washington, November 9, 1861.

The following Departments are formed from the present Departments of the West, Cumberland and Ohio:

1. The Department of New Mexico—to consist of the Territory of New Mexico—to be commanded by Colonel E. R. S. Canby, U. S. A.

2. The Department of Kansas—to include the State of Kansas, the Indian Territory west of Arkansas, and the Territories of Nebraska, Colorado and Dakota—to be commanded by Major General Hunter; Headquarters at Fort Leavenworth.

3. The Department of the Missouri—to include the States of Missouri, Iowa, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Arkansas and that portion of Kentucky west of the Cumberland river—to be commanded by Major General H. W. Halleck, U. S. A.

4. The Department of the Ohio—to consist of the States of Ohio, Michigan, Indiana, that portion of Kentucky east of the Cumberland river and the State of Tennessee—to be commanded by Brigadier General D. C. Buell; Headquarters at Louisville.

5. The Department of Western Virginia—to consist of that portion of Virginia included in the old Department of the Ohio—to be commanded by Brigadier General W. S. Rosecrans, U. S. A.

BY ORDER:

JULIUS P. GARESCHÉ, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, } HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
No. 98. } Washington, November 13, 1861.

I.—Where the troops desire it, Commanding Officers may make requisition upon the Subsistence Department for Tilden's pure extract of coffee, in lieu of the sugar and coffee rations. It will be issued at the rate of one gallon of the extract to the one hundred rations.

II.—The Insane of the military service are entitled to treatment in the Government Hospital established in this city. To protect, however, their own interests, as well as those of the Government, it is prescribed by the Secretary of War: that to procure admission into the Hospital, application must be made to the Adjutant General, setting forth the name, rank, company and regiment of the patient, with a certificate from the surgeon of the regiment as to the duration of the insanity, and whether insane before enlistment. It will likewise be accompanied by the descriptive list of the soldier, and copies of his pay and clothing accounts. The application should precede the arrival of the soldier in this city by at least one day, that the signature of the Secretary of War may be obtained to the paper authorizing admission into the Hospital, and that the patient may not have to wait in the streets during that time.

On the departure of the patient from his station, the Commanding Officer will give such orders to the person in charge, as will provide for the transportation of the necessary attendants, to the institution and back again to their post, and for their subsistence, either in kind, or by commutation during their absence.

To procure the release of a patient, when cured, or for delivery to his friends, application must again be made to the Adjutant General, who will procure the necessary authorization, and also cause a statement of his accounts to be made and delivered to him.

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, November 14, 1861.

The Major General Commanding announces to the Army, with sincere pleasure, 1°, the brilliant reduction of the Forts in Port Royal harbor, by the officers and sailors of our gallant fleet, under command of Flag Officer S. F. Du Pont, the utter rout of the enemy, the capture of the town of Beaufort, and the landing of Brigadier General T. W. Sherman's army on the coast of South Carolina; 2°, the victory achieved by Brigadier General William Nelson at Pikeville, Ky., in which, after two days' hard fighting, the rebels were completely defeated and put to flight; and, 3°, the daring attack made by Brigadier General U. S. Grant, with an inferior force, on the rebels at Belmont, Mo., and the signal defeat of the latter, with a loss of all their artillery, baggage, and means of transportation.

The Major General Commanding cannot too highly extol the steadiness, courage, and admirable conduct displayed by officers, sailors, and soldiers, alike, in these several engagements. He commends them to the imitation of the whole army.

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, November 16, 1861.

Complaint has been made to the President of the United States that certain persons within the State of Virginia, in places occupied by the forces of the United States, claim to be incumbents of civil offices, state, county, and municipal, by alleged authority from the Commonwealth of Virginia, in disregard and violation of the "Declaration of the people of Virginia represented in Convention at the city of Wheeling, Thursday, June 13, 1861," and of the Ordinances of said Convention, and of the Acts of the General Assembly held by authority of said Convention.

It is therefore ordered, by direction of the President, that if any person shall hereafter attempt, within the State of Virginia, under the alleged authority of said Commonwealth, to exercise any official powers of a civil nature within the limits of any of the commands of the occupying forces of the United States, unless in pursuance of the Declaration and Ordinances of the Convention assembled at Wheeling on the 13th day of June, 1861, and the Acts of the General Assembly held by authority of said Convention, such attempt shall be treated as an act of hostility against the United States, and such person shall be taken into military custody.

Commanding officers are directed to enforce this order within their respective commands.

II.—Captain Gurden Chapin, of the 7th Infantry, who, in General Orders No. 66 of the current series from this office, was declared to be dismissed the service, is now by direction of the President restored to his former rank and position in the army. He will report in person to the commanding officer of the Department of New Mexico for duty.

WAR DEP'T, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, November 20, 1861.

The intention of the Government, in reserving the original vacancies of Second Lieutenants for the most deserving among the non-commissioned officers of the new regular regiments, was two-fold—to secure the services of brave, intelligent, and energetic officers, by appointing only those who had fully proved themselves to be such, after a fair competition with all who chose to enter the lists against them—and to give to the young men of the country—those especially who were poor, unknown, and without any social or political influence—an equal opportunity with the most favored. In General Orders No. 16, of May 4, 1861, this intention was publicly announced. It is now reaffirmed; and commanding officers of the new regiments will see that it is carried out in good faith.

HEADQ'R'S OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, November 25, 1861.

I.—Major Isaac Lynde, 7th Infantry, for abandoning his post—Fort Fillmore, N. M.—on the 27th day of July, 1861, and subsequently surrendering his command to an inferior force of insurgents, is, by direction of the President of the United States, dropped from the rolls of the army from this date.

II.—The Secretary of War directs that all officers and enlisted men of the volunteer service, now prisoners in the hands of the enemy or reported as “missing in action,” or that may be hereafter taken prisoners or reported “missing in action,” be transferred to skeleton regiments to be formed by the Governors of the respective States, and to consist entirely of such prisoners and missing officers and men. The vacancies thus occasioned in the organized regiments will be filled by the Governors of the various States to which the regiments belong.

III.—In time of actual field service, officers of Cavalry, Artillery, and Infantry are permitted to wear the light blue overcoat prescribed for enlisted men of the mounted corps.

IV.—The uniform for Chaplains of the army will be plain black frock coat with standing collar, and one row of nine black buttons; plain black pantaloons; black felt hat, or army forage cap, without ornament. On occasions of ceremony, a plain chapeau de bras may be worn.

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, December 2, 1861.

The attention of officers of the Army is invited to the following, in addition to the orders of the Secretary of War embraced in the regulations for the Recruiting Service:

I.—The large number of enlisted men, discharged on "Certificates of Disability," has attracted the notice of the General-in-Chief, and, as it is an especial duty to render the rank and file of the Army as effective as possible, the attention of Superintendents and other officers concerned, either with the enlistment of men, or their discharge on account of disability, is directed to the judicious discharge of their respective duties.

Evidence is abundant, as attested by the records of the Adjutant General's Office, that many men have been enlisted who were "unfit for service" prior to or at date of enlistment. It should be borne in mind that the law provides for the enlistment of "effective able-bodied" men; and if any officer shall enlist any person contrary to the true intent and meaning of the law, it is further provided that for every offence, "he shall forfeit and pay the amount of the bounty and clothing which the person so recruited may have received from the public, to be deducted out of the pay and emoluments of such officer." With this object in view, paragraphs 980 and 981, Revised Regulations, must be strictly complied with.

A sense of duty to the public will cause an enforcement of the laws and regulations governing the service, and these must be the guidance of the officers obtaining recruits. Officers cannot be too circumspect in the discharge of their duties, and they are called upon to comply strictly with all regulations applicable to the subject.

II.—As to minors, every precaution should be taken to prevent their enlistment, except as provided by the regulations. A true record of the age is of great value. In a majority of cases the recruiting officer may be justified in recording the age as stated by the person offering to enlist; yet many cases occur in which he should rely more upon his own judgment, and less on the recruit's affirmation, in ascertaining his probable, if not his actual age. In every doubtful case, therefore, as to minority, or over age of the man, it becomes the duty of the officer to judge for himself, to a certain extent, and not in any case to accept a recruit who, under anxiety to enlist, manifestly misstates his age.

III.—It will be observed the regulations, at this time, contain no direct prohibition to enlist married men. In the regimental service this must be governed by the want of laundresses for companies; and in the general service by the Superintendents.

IV.—It is enjoined on all Superintendents and other officers, commissioned and non-commissioned, to conduct the service with diligence, unceasing personal attention, and economy.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL McCLELLAN:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant-General.

General Orders, }
No. 105. }

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, December 3, 1861.

The following orders have been received from the Secretary of War:

I.—No more regiments, batteries, or independent companies will be raised by the Governors of States, except upon the special requisition of the War Department.

Those now forming in the various States will be completed, under direction of the respective Governors thereof, unless it be deemed more advantageous to the service to assign the men already raised to regiments, batteries, or independent companies now in the field, in order to fill up their organizations to the maximum standard prescribed by law.

II.—The Recruiting Service in the various States for the Volunteer forces already in service, and for those that may hereafter be received, is placed under charge of General Superintendents for those States, respectively, with general depots for the collection and instruction of recruits, as follows, viz:

Maine.—Major J. W. T. Gardiner, U. S. A., Augusta.

Vermont.—Lieut. Colonel Gouverneur Morris, U. S. A., Burlington.

New Hampshire.—Lieut. Colonel Seth Eastman, 1st Inf., Concord.

Massachusetts.—Lieut. Colonel H. Day, 2d Infantry, Cambridge.

Rhode Island.—Captain William Silvey, 1st Artillery, Providence.

Connecticut.—Colonel William Gates, 3d Artillery, Fort Trumbull.

New York.—Major J. T. Sprague, 1st Infantry, Elmira and Albany.

New Jersey.—Colonel J. L. Gardner, U. S. A., Trenton.

Pennsylvania.—Captain R. I. Dodge, 8th Infantry, Harrisburg.

Delaware.—Major H. B. Judd, U. S. A., Wilmington.

Maryland.—Lieut. Col. F. O. Wyse, 4th Artillery, Annapolis.

Virginia.—Major W. I. Newton, U. S. A., Wheeling.

Ohio.—Major N. C. Maerac, U. S. A., Camp Chase, Columbus.

Kentucky.—Major W. H. Sidell, 15th Infantry, Louisville.

Indiana.—Colonel J. S. Simonsen, U. S. A., Indianapolis.

Illinois.—Colonel P. Morrison, 8th Infantry, Springfield.

Michigan.—Lieut. Colonel E. Backus, 3d Infantry, Detroit.

Wisconsin.—Major R. S. Smith, 12th Infantry, Madison.

Minnesota.—Captain A. D. Nelson, 10th Infantry, Fort Snelling.

Iowa.—Captain H. B. Hendershott, 2d Artillery, Davenport.

Missouri.—Colonel B. L. E. Bonneville, U. S. A., Jefferson Barracks.

Kansas.—Commanding Officer of Fort Leavenworth, Fort Leavenworth.

The Superintendents detailed will take charge of the Recruiting service in the various States to which they are assigned, on the 1st day of January, 1862. They will take post at their general depots, which will be under their immediate command. The Superintendent for the State of New York will take post at Albany. Upon the requisition of the Superintendents a suitable number of Volunteer officers, non-commissioned officers and privates will be detailed for duty in the Staff departments and as drill masters at the respective depots.

A Disbursing Officer of the fund for "collecting, drilling, and organizing volunteers" will be assigned to each depot, and will be under the direction of the Superintendent.

III.—Commanding officers of regiments will detail two commissioned officers, with four non-commissioned officers or privates, to report in person to the Superintendents of the Recruiting Service for their respective States, on the 1st day of January, 1862, or as soon thereafter as practicable. These officers and non-commissioned officers will be detailed for a tour of six months, and will be assigned as recruiting parties to rendezvous by the Superintendents; if found incompetent they will be relieved and replaced by others.

IV.—The Superintendents will establish the rendezvous, and so arrange for the rent, subsistence of recruits, and other expenses, that the charges may be reasonable, and that the bills therefor may be certified to by the recruiting officers in charge, and presented for payment to the Disbursing Officers at the General Depots.

V.—Enlistments of volunteers will be made upon printed forms, to be furnished for the purpose, similar to those established for the regular service. They will in all cases be made in duplicate.

VI.—Recruits will be sent, as often as may be necessary, in small squads, to the general depots, with a descriptive list and duplicate enlistments of each man. The descriptive list will be examined, and if correct, will be filed with the records of the depot. One copy of each enlistment will be delivered to the Disbursing Officer to assist him in the examination and verification of accounts, and will be sent with those accounts at the end of each quarter to the Adjutant General of the Army at Washington. The duplicate enlistments will be sent by the Superintendent to the Adjutant General of the Army, with a consolidated return of the recruiting parties for the month, on the first day of the succeeding month, or as soon thereafter as practicable.

VII.—Recruiting Officers will send to the Superintendents a return of their recruiting parties for each month on the first day of the succeeding month. They will also make tri-monthly reports of the state of the recruiting service to the Superintendent, and the Superintendent will forward a consolidated tri-monthly report to the Adjutant General of the Army.

VIII.—Superintendents will keep their depots supplied with sufficient clothing for issues to recruits, and with the arms necessary for their instruction.

IX.—All other details will be conducted in the manner prescribed in the Regulations for the Recruiting Service of the Regular Army.

X.—Commanders of Volunteer Regiments, Batteries, or independent companies requiring recruits, will make requisitions, approved by the commanding officers of their brigades, divisions, and departments, or corps d'armée, direct on the Superintendents of the Recruiting Service for their respective States, who will furnish the necessary men, forwarding a descriptive list with them. Certified copies of this descriptive list will be forwarded at the same time to the Adjutant General of the Army, and to the Adjutant General of the State.

XI.—Volunteer officers now on the recruiting service will be relieved on the 1st day of January, 1862, and sent to join their regiments, unless directed to report to the Superintendents in their respective States.

XII.—After the 1st day of January, 1862, volunteers will be mustered for pay upon the same form of rolls as those used for the regular service.

XIII.—Commanding officers of Volunteer Regiments numbering less than the maximum organization fixed by law, will immediately report to this office the present state of their commands, in order that the Governors of the several States may be called upon to fill up their respective regiments to the standard prescribed.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL McCLELLAN:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

IX.—Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing Order, to the Companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment. Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence of the former.

X.—The numbers prefixed to the names of certain officers, in the above list of appointments, indicate their rank among those of the same date.

XI.—Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and, in case of acceptance, the birth-place of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant General.

XII.—With the exception of those detached from their regiments on special duty, or unable from some other valid cause to comply with the order, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments. And those who deem themselves included in the exception just above made, will immediately submit a statement of their case, through the proper channel, to this office, for further consideration.

The following orders are issued by direction of the Secretary of War:

I.—All claims to be brought before the Investigating Committee now in session at St. Louis to examine accounts against the United States Government for expenditures in the Military Department of the West previous to October 14, 1861, must be presented to the said Committee on or before the 1st day of January, 1862, or they will not be considered.

II.—The Subsistence Department will purchase, at cost prices, all sound articles of subsistence saved by troops or employees by an economical use or management of the ration. All other sales of provisions issued by the Government, to any person whomsoever, are strictly forbidden. This regulation is intended to embrace savings from bakeries and in hospitals, as well as all other savings from the army ration. See in this connection General Orders No. 82, of September 23, 1861.

The Commanding General has the satisfaction of announcing to the Army another instance of skill and good conduct, on the part of the beleagured garrison of Fort Pickens, harbor of Pensacola, under the command of Colonel HARVEY BROWN, 5th Regiment U. S. Artillery.

On the night of October 9th, an attempt was made by a large body of the rebels to burn the Camp of Wilson's Zouaves, spike the guns of the outer batteries, and take Fort Pickens by assault. The enemy were signally repulsed from Santa Rosa Island, with heavy loss on their side, after firing a few of our tents.

A subsequent attempt to make a lodgment on the Island was defeated by well delivered fire from one of our ships of war.

To put a stop to such aggressions, a combined fire was opened upon the enemy's batteries, from Fort Pickens and the ships of our squadron in Pensacola harbor, which was kept up throughout the 22d and 23d of November. On the first day, Fort McCrae, and several guns in the other hostile batteries, were silenced; and this was followed by the destruction under our heavy cannonade, of nearly two-thirds of the towns of Warrington and Wolsey, adjoining the Navy Yard, and by very serious damage to the Navy Yard and its buildings. Fortunately, but little loss was sustained by us in men, or in the condition of our works.

It is with pride and gratification that the Commanding General finds in the official reports the most honorable mention of each and every officer, as well as of the enlisted men engaged on these occasions.

I.—AN ACT relative to Courts Martial in the Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That in time of war the commander of a division or separate brigade may appoint general courts martial, and confirm, execute, pardon, and mitigate their sentences, as allowed and restrained in the sixty-fifth and eighty-ninth articles of war to commanders of armies and departments: Provided, That sentences of such courts, extending to loss of life, or dismissal of a commissioned officer, shall require the confirmation of the general commanding the army in the field to which the division or brigade belongs: And provided further: That when the division or brigade commander shall be the accuser or prosecutor, the court shall be appointed by the next higher commander.

Approved December 24, 1861.

II.—AN ACT to provide for Allotment Certificates among the Volunteer Forces.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States shall appoint, for each State having volunteers in the United States service, not exceeding three persons, who shall be authorized by the President's commission to visit the several departments of the army in which volunteers from their respective States may be, and there procure from said volunteers from time to time their respective allotments of their pay to their families or friends, duly certified in writing, and by them, or by some commissioned officer of such department, attested in pursuance of such orders as may be made for that purpose by the Secretary of War, and upon which certified allotment the several paymasters shall, at each regular payment to troops, give drafts payable in the city of New York, to the order of such persons to whom said allotments were or may be made.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the persons appointed as commissioners to carry into effect the preceding section of this act, shall receive no pay or emoluments whatever from the Treasury of the United States.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the fifth section of the act of twelfth June, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, giving sutlers a lien upon the soldiers' pay, be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and all regulations giving sutlers rights and privileges beyond the Rules and Articles of War, be, and the same are hereby, abrogated.

Approved December 24, 1861.

III.—The following are the Rules and Articles of War which refer to sutlers:

ART. 29. No sutler shall be permitted to sell any kind of liquors or victuals, or to keep their houses or shops open for the entertainment of soldiers, after nine at night, or before the beating of the reveille, or upon Sundays during divine service or sermon, on the penalty of being dismissed from all future sutling.

ART. 30. All officers commanding in the field, forts, barracks, or garrisons of the United States, are hereby required to see that the persons permitted to sutle shall supply the soldiers with good and wholesome provisions, or other articles, at a reasonable price, as they shall be answerable for their neglect.

ART. 31. No officer commanding in any of the garrisons, forts, or barracks of the United States, shall exact exorbitant prices for houses or stalls let out to sutlers, or connive at the like exactions in others; nor by his own authority, and for his private advantage, lay any duty or imposition upon, or be interested in, the sale of any victuals, liquors, or other necessities of life brought into the garrison, fort, or barracks, for the use of the soldiers, on the penalty of being discharged from the service.

ART. 60. All sutlers, and retainers to the camp, and all persons whatsoever, serving with the armies of the United States in the field, though not enlisted soldiers, are to be subject to orders, according to the rules and discipline of war.

IV.—JOINT RESOLUTION expressive of the recognition by Congress of the gallant and patriotic services of the late Brigadier General NATHANIEL LYON, and the officers and soldiers under his command at the battle of Springfield, Missouri.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, 1. That Congress deems it just and proper to enter upon its records a recognition of the eminent and patriotic services of the late Brigadier General NATHANIEL LYON. The country to whose service he devoted his life will guard and preserve his fame as a part of its own glory.

2. That the thanks of Congress are hereby given to the brave officers and soldiers who, under the command of the late General Lyon, sustained the honor of the flag, and achieved victory against overwhelming numbers at the battle of Springfield, in Missouri; and that in order to commemorate an event so honorable to the country and to themselves, it is ordered that each regiment engaged shall be authorized to bear upon its colors the word "SPRINGFIELD," embroidered in letters of gold. And the President of the United States is hereby requested to cause these resolutions to be read at the head of every regiment in the army of the United States.

Approved December 24, 1861.

V.—The President of the United States directs that the foregoing JOINT RESOLUTION be read at the head of every regiment in the army of the United States.

The following Orders, received from the War Department, are published to the Army:

WAR DEPARTMENT, January 22, 1862.

The President, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, has received information of a brilliant victory achieved by the United States forces over a large body of armed traitors and rebels at Mill Spring, in the State of Kentucky. He returns thanks to the gallant officers and soldiers who won that victory, and when the official reports shall be received, the military skill and personal valor displayed in battle will be acknowledged and rewarded in a fitting manner. The courage that encountered and vanquished the greatly superior numbers of the rebel force, pursued and attacked them in their entrenchments, and paused not until the enemy was completely routed, merits and receives commendation. The purpose of this war is to attack, pursue, and destroy a rebellious enemy and to deliver the country from danger menaced by traitors. Alacrity, daring, courageous spirit, and patriotic zeal, on all occasions and under every circumstance, is expected from the Army of the United States.

In the prompt and spirited movements and daring battle of Mill Spring the nation will realize its hopes; and the people of the United States will rejoice to honor every soldier and officer who proves his courage by charging with the bayonet and storming entrenchments, or in the blaze of the enemy's fire.

I.—At the General Court Martial which convened at Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 7, of January 9, 1862, from the War Department, and of which Captain Stephen H. Weed, 5th Artillery, U. S. Army, is President, were arraigned and tried—

1. Private James Zuber, Battery M, 5th Artillery.

CHARGE—"Violation of the 20th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that he, Private James Zuber, Battery M, 5th Artillery, did, on or about the 18th day of December, 1861, desert the service of the United States, from his battery and post. This at Camp Greble, near Harrisburg, Pennsylvania.

After mature deliberation on the evidence adduced, the Court finds the accused, Private James Zuber, Battery M, 5th Artillery, as follows:

Of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

And does therefore sentence him, Private James Zuber, Battery M, 5th Artillery, "To be shot to death at such time and place as the Commanding General may direct, three-fourths of the Court concurring."

2. Recruit Samuel Hoy, 5th Artillery.

CHARGE—"Violation of the 38th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that he, Recruit Samuel Hoy, 5th Artillery, did sell various articles of clothing, the property of the United States, duly issued to him. This at New York, N. Y., on or about the 1st of January, 1862."

After mature deliberation on the evidence adduced, the Court finds the accused as follows:

Of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

And does therefore sentence him, Recruit Samuel Hoy, 5th Artillery, "To forfeit to the United States ten dollars of his pay per month for two months."

3. Private Robert Nowrie, Battery C, 5th Artillery.

CHARGE—"Violation of the 45th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that he, Private Robert Nowrie, Battery C, 5th Artillery, while on duty as a member of the post guard, was beastly drunk, and utterly unable to perform any military duty properly. This at Camp Greble, Pennsylvania, on or about the morning of the 14th of January, 1862."

After mature deliberation on the evidence adduced, the Court finds the accused as follows:

Of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

And does therefore sentence him, Private Robert Nowrie, Battery C, 5th Artillery, "To forfeit to the United States ten dollars of his pay per month for four months, and to be under charge of the guard for one month, walking every alternate two hours from reveille until retreat, during that time, carrying a knapsack weighing twenty-four pounds on his back."

II.—The proceedings of the General Court Martial in the cases foregoing, are confirmed. The sentences of Recruit Samuel Hoy, 5th Artillery, and Private Robert Nowrie, Battery C, 5th Artillery, will be duly carried into execution. On the recommendation of the Court, and for the reasons on which it is founded, the sentence of Private James Zuber, Battery M, 5th Artillery, is remitted.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information of all concerned:

AN ACT to authorize the President of the United States in certain cases to take possession of railroad and telegraph lines, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States, when in his judgment the public safety may require it, be, and he is hereby authorized to take possession of any or all the telegraph lines in the United States, their offices and appurtenances; to take possession of any or all the railroad lines in the United States, their rolling stock, their offices, shops, buildings, and all their appendages and appurtenances; to prescribe rules and regulations for the holding, using, and maintaining of the aforesaid telegraph and railroad lines, and to extend, repair, and complete the same, in the manner most conducive to the safety and interest of the Government; to place under military control all the officers, agents, and employes belonging to the telegraph and railroad lines thus taken possession of by the President, so that they shall be considered as a post road and a part of the military establishment of the United States, subject to all the restrictions imposed by the Rules and Articles of War.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That any attempt by any party or parties whomsoever, in any State or District in which the laws of the United States are opposed, or the execution thereof obstructed by insurgents and rebels against the United States, too powerful to be suppressed by the ordinary course of judicial proceedings, to resist or interfere with the unrestrained use by Government of the property described in the preceding section, or any attempt to injure or destroy the property aforesaid, shall be punished as a military offence, by death, or such other penalty as a Court Martial may impose.

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That three commissioners shall be appointed by the President of the United States, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, to assess and determine the damages suffered, or the compensation to which any railroad or telegraph company may be entitled by reason of the railroad or telegraph line being seized and used under the authority conferred by this act, and their award shall be submitted to Congress for their action.

SEC. 4.—And be it further enacted, That the transportation of troops, munitions of war, equipments, military property and stores, throughout the United States, shall be under the immediate control and supervision of the Secretary of War and such agents as he may appoint; and all rules, regulations, articles, usages, and laws in conflict with this provision are hereby annulled.

SEC. 5.—And be it further enacted, That the compensation of each of the commissioners aforesaid shall be eight dollars per day while in actual service; and that the provisions of this act, so far as it relates to the operating and using said railroads and telegraphs, shall not be in force any longer than is necessary for the suppression of this rebellion.

I.—The following "General Orders," No. 39, from the Headquarters, Army of the Potomac, is published from this Office, that the action on the recommendation therein contained in the case of Captain John R. Cutler, 33d New York Volunteers, may be recorded with the proceedings of the General Court Martial which tried him:

GENERAL ORDERS, } HEADQUARTERS, ARMY OF THE POTOMAC,
No. 39. } Washington, February 4, 1862.

I.—Before a General Court Martial, of which Brigadier General J. M. BRANNAN, United States Volunteer Service, is President, convened at the Camp of Smith's Division, by virtue of "Special Orders" No. 192, from these Headquarters, of December 19, 1861, was arraigned and tried Captain John R. Cutler, 33d New York Volunteers, on the following charges and specifications:

CHARGE I.—"Violation of the 15th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said Captain John R. Cutler, of the 33d Regiment New York State Volunteers, did at Camp Granger, District of Columbia, on or about the 1st of August, 1861, sign a false muster roll in which six of the men therein enumerated as present had previously deserted."

CHARGE II.—"Violation of the 14th Article of War."

Specification—"In this: that he, the said Captain John R. Cutler, of the 33d Regiment New York State Volunteers, did receive pay from Paymaster Banister for six men, they having previously deserted. This at Camp Lyon, Maryland, on or about the 12th day of August, 1861."

CHARGE III.—"Violation of the 18th Article of War."

Specification—"In this: that the said Captain John R. Cutler, of the 33d Regiment New York State Volunteers, did, at Camp Griffin, Virginia, on or about the 12th of December, 1861, cause to be signed a false return relating to the desertions, discharges, deaths, &c., in his Company, when called upon for said return by order of the Colonel of his regiment."

CHARGE IV.—"Violation of the 14th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said Captain John R. Cutler, 33d New York Volunteers, did, on or about the 7th day of July, 1861, at Elmira, in the State of New York, procure James Hilbreth, of his Company, to personate Private Salsbury, (a deserter from his Company,) and to draw the pay of the said Salsbury, which pay the said Captain Cutler applied to his own use, giving the said Private Hildreth fifty cents for his services."

CHARGE V.—"Violation of the 31st Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said Captain John R. Cutler did purchase and cause to be sold to his Company a quantity of boots, gloves, and various other articles, at exorbitant prices, for his own private personal benefit. This at Camp Griffin, on or about the 1st day of November, 1861."

CHARGE VI.—"Disobedience of orders."

Specification—"In this; that the said Captain John R. Cutler, of 33d Regiment New York State Volunteers, did, on or about the 15th day of September, 1861, take from a house on Mackell Hill, two blankets, and one lady's plaid cloak. This is a violation of General Orders."

To all of which charges and specifications the accused pleaded "Not Guilty."

After mature deliberation on the testimony adduced, the Court finds the prisoner as follows:

Of the Specification to the 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 1st Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 2d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the Specification of the 3d Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 3d Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the Specification of the 4th Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 4th Charge, "Guilty."

Of the Specification of the 5th Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 5th Charge "Not Guilty."

Of the Specification of the 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the 6th Charge, "Not Guilty."

And does therefore sentence him, the said Captain John R. Cutler, 33d Regiment New York Volunteers, "To be cashiered."

II.—The Major General Commanding, upon reviewing the proceedings in this case, is led to remark upon the very objectionable mode of framing charges which has been adopted by the reporting officer. Instead of stating the offence of which the accused is supposed to be guilty, the charge in three instances is "Violation of Article of War." In this manner Captain Cutler is charged with violating the 14th, the 15th, the 18th, and the 31st Articles of War. He is acquitted of violating the 15th, 18th, and the 31st, but found guilty of violating the 14th Article on two occasions. The specifications being, 1st, that he received pay for six men who had deserted, and, 2d, that he procured Private James Hildreth to personate a deserter from his (Captain Cutler's) Company and draw pay in his name, which pay, it is alleged, Captain Cutler and Hildreth divided among themselves in very unequal proportions. The evidence is very plain that Captain Cutler was guilty of the offences charged in these specifications; but, on turning to the 14th Article of War, it will be seen that the offence furnished by that section is the signing of a false certificate relating to the absence of either officer or private soldier, or relative to his or their pay, and although the infamous conduct described in the specifications quoted is "unbecoming an officer and a gentleman," and therefore punished by the 83d Article of War, it cannot be said to be a violation of Article 14th, which refers to an entirely different matter.

Most of the Articles of War simply ascertain the punishment of the military crime described in them. They declare, for example, that whoever "shall make a false muster of man or horse," (Article 15,) "shall be cashiered." Some few of them do in terms forbid the doing of the act against which the punishment is denounced, but this is not the case generally; and, in every instance, the emphatic part of the article is the declaration that the person so offending shall be punished in the manner and degree designated by the statute. It is clear, then, that it is improper to describe a military offence as the violation of an Article of War. An Article of War is more distinctly violated when a Court fails to annex the statutory penalty to a military crime, than by the crime itself. Instead, therefore, of charging upon an Officer or a Private, a violation of any Article of War, the reporting officer should name the offence, which is punished by the article, and proceed to specify, with the addition of time and place, the circumstances in which the offence consists. A person can only be guilty of a charge by being guilty of the matter stated in the specifications of the charge. There must be such a correspondence between the two, that to have been guilty of the one draws with it the necessary consequence that the accused is guilty of the other. Whenever these conditions do not obtain, the record is defective. In the present case, the dishonoring acts of which Captain Cutler is found guilty, are not punishable by the 14th Article of War, and their commission cannot, by any indulgence towards an inaccurate mode of framing charges, be considered a violation of that article. But, it does not follow, that the 33d Regiment New York Volunteers, is to be longer disabled by continuing to number among its Captains such delinquents as John R. Cutler. His guilt was demonstrated by the trial; no interpretation can be given to the testimony by which this conclusion can be avoided; indeed, the most convincing evidence—it may be almost called an admission—of the guilt of the accused is to be found in his attempt to show that the general sentiment of the officers of his regiment justified them in procuring the personation of deserters absent from the regiment before the paymaster, the drawing of pay in their name, and the appropriation of this pay to the use of the officer continuing and executing the scandalous roguery! The effrontery of such an attempt is almost incredible, but unhappily the proof of it is to be found in this record.

The sentence of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case of Captain John R. Cutler, 33d New York Volunteers, cannot, therefore, be carried into effect; but justice to the military service requires that this officer should no longer remain upon the rolls of the Army. It is, therefore, respectfully recommended to the President of the United States that this officer be stricken from the rolls.

III.—The General Court Martial of which Brigadier General J. M. Brannan is President, is dissolved.

•IV.—In compliance with the recommendation in the foregoing order, the PRESIDENT directs that the name of Captain John R. Cutler, 33d New York Volunteers, be stricken from the rolls of the Army.

General Orders, }
No. 12.

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, February 6, 1862.

The following orders are from the War Department:

The Department has been so frequently embarrassed by the action of General Officers of the Volunteer service, in appointing or giving acting appointments to persons to serve upon their staff, that it becomes necessary to issue a general notice to all whom it may concern, that no such appointments can be, or will be, recognized by the Government.

The President, alone, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, has power to make any appointment in the army. To no General has he delegated any portion of this power. From the War Department, through the Adjutant General of the army, all notices of appointment issue, and none others are valid.

The Assistant Adjutant General of every Division; the Assistant Adjutant General, Assistant Quartermaster, Commissary of Subsistence, Surgeon, and Paymaster of each Brigade of Volunteers, will be regularly assigned to it from the Headquarters of the Army. Pending such regular assignment, the officer commanding the Brigade or Division is at liberty to detail for temporary duty, in any or each of these several capacities, some officer of his command. But he is not authorized, and hereby is expressly forbidden, to put any civilian, or person not amenable to the Articles of War, on such duty. Any future transgression of this rule will be treated as a disobedience of orders, and dealt with accordingly.

The utmost which is conceded by law and regulation, to any general officer, is the power to select, among the officers of his command, the regularly authorized Aides-de-Camp, to whose services he is entitled, in numbers not to exceed, and of grade no higher, than are designated in section 3 of the Act approved July 29, 1861.

But as to the additional Aides-de-Camp authorized by the Act approved August 5, 1861, to Major Generals of the regular Army, when "commanding forces of the United States in the field," the case is different. Though the power to recommend such Aides-de-Camp for appointment, is reserved to these Major Generals, the power of appointing them, when recommended, is exclusively vested in the President, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, to be ex-exercised or not, at his discretion, and until regularly appointed by the President, therefore, no officer or civilian, recommended for such appointment, can be placed on duty, or can lawfully exercise any of the functions pertaining to the office.

As a matter of indulgence, and in consideration of the intimate relations, which ought to, and must necessarily subsist, between a general officer and his chief of staff, the general officers of volunteers have been allowed to recommend, for appointment, their Assistant Adjutants General. But in this case, as in the others, they will not be permitted to place any one on duty, until after he shall have been regularly commissioned or appointed by the President of the United States.

This order establishes no new regulation, but is meant to call attention to long-existing regulations, that have been too frequently violated or overlooked, and to put an end to a great abuse.

By COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL McCLELLAN.

General Orders, } HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
No. 13. } Washington, February 11, 1862.

The enormous waste, by the officers to whose care they are sent, of the blank forms issued from this office, calls for some prompt correction. With this view, the following regulations have been adopted, and will be strictly enforced:

I.—Hereafter all requisitions for books or blanks, supplied from this office, must be addressed, through Regimental and Brigade Headquarters in each Division, to the Assistant Adjutant General at Division Headquarters, who will, himself, from time to time, make general requisitions on this office for the supply of his Division.

II.—Every Commanding officer of a Company will, henceforth, keep a regular account of all books and blanks received and expended by him for the use of his company and make a quarterly return of the same to the Adjutant of his Regiment. These returns will be consolidated with those of the Regimental Headquarters, and forwarded in this shape by the Adjutant, through Brigade Headquarters, to those of the Division. The Assistant Adjutant General at Division Headquarters will make similar returns to this office of the books and blanks received by him for distribution to his Division.

III.—Where troops are not brigaded, as sometimes happens with the Cavalry and Artillery, requisitions for books and blanks will be made upon the chiefs of their respective arms in the Army to which they are attached, and returns of the same will be made to these officers as though to Division Headquarters; and the Chiefs of Cavalry and Artillery, in such cases, will make requisitions for the books and blanks needed for their commands, and make returns of the same to this office, as prescribed in paragraph II. of this order.

IV.—The above regulations are meant to apply to regulars as well as to volunteers.

V.—Officers on the Recruiting Service, whether of the regular army or the volunteers, will make requisitions for, and quarterly returns of, the books and blanks required by them, on and to their respective Superintendents; and the latter will be governed, in their turn, by what is laid down in paragraph III. for the Chiefs of Cavalry and Artillery.

VI.—For the regiments of volunteers organizing or organized, in the several States, and which are still under the direction of their Governors, application must be made to the Adjutant Generals of the States, respectively, and the latter will be supplied from this office upon proper requisition made by them, specifying the number of each kind wanted, and the number of each actually on hand. Quarterly returns must, in such case, also be made to this office, showing the number of each kind of book and blank on hand at date of last return rendered; the number of each kind since received, and the number issued to each regiment, and the date of issue. And when the regiments are ordered out of the State a statement of all the books and blanks distributed to each should be forwarded, by the Adjutant General of the State, to the Headquarters of the Army to which the regiment is ordered, for file at the Headquarters of the Division to which it is assigned.

VII.—To each regiment will be allowed the following books viz:

35 Regulations;	30 Target Practice;
35 Tactics;	35 Outpost Duty.
30 Bayonet Exercise;

VIII.—The following will be considered a six-months' supply of blanks and blank books for a regiment: 1 Guard Report Book; 1 Consolidated Morning Report Book; 10 Company Morning Report Books; 100 Consolidated Morning Reports; 2 Lists of Rolls, Returns, &c. to be made out by Company Commanders; 6 Field and Staff Muster Rolls; 18 Field and Staff Muster and Pay Rolls; 6 Muster Rolls of Hospital; 18 Muster and pay Rolls, Hospital; 60 Company Muster Rolls; 180 Company Muster and Pay Rolls; 12 Regimental Returns; 60 Company Monthly Returns; 20 Returns of Men joined Company; 6 Quarterly Regimental Returns of Deceased Soldiers; 30 Quarterly Company Returns of Deceased Soldiers; 2 Annual Returns of Casualties; 40 Descriptive Lists; 100 Non-commissioned Officers' Warrants.

I.—Fort Garland, Colorado Territory, is transferred from the Department of Kansas to the Department of New Mexico.

II.—The Secretary of War directs that the rations of prisoners held in the rebel States shall be commuted for and during the period of their imprisonment; the commutation to be rated at cost price.

III.—Commanders of Military Departments will forward to the Adjutant General estimates of the ordnance and ordnance stores which will be required during the succeeding quarter for the troops under their command. The estimates will be based on true economy and call only for what is essential to the efficiency of the troops. Hereafter, all requisitions for ordnance and ordnance stores required by Regiments, or Companies, serving under the orders of a Department Commander, will be sent in duplicate to the said commander, who will order the issue of such part of the requisition as he may judge proper, from the stores which will be placed at his disposal, on his own estimate. He will forward the duplicate of each requisition, with his action upon it endorsed, to the Adjutant General. As it may not be practicable to supply immediately all the articles required by each Department Commander notice will be given, after the receipt of the estimates, what proportion can be

1. AN ACT to amend an act entitled “An act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers,” approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four. (See page 517, Army Regulations.)

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, That the twentieth section of the “Act to regulate trade and intercourse with the Indian tribes, and to preserve peace on the frontiers,” approved June thirtieth, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, be, and the same is hereby, amended so as to read as follows, to wit :

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall sell, exchange, give, barter, or dispose of any spirituous liquor or wine to any Indian under the charge of any Indian superintendent or Indian agent appointed by the United States, or shall introduce or attempt to introduce any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, such person, on conviction thereof before the proper district Court of the United States, shall be imprisoned for a period not exceeding two years, and shall be fined not more than three hundred dollars; Provided however, That it shall be a sufficient defence to any charge of introducing or attempting to introduce liquor into the Indian country if it be proved to be done by order of the War Department, or of any officer duly authorized thereto by the War Department. And if any superintendent of Indian affairs, Indian agent, or sub-agent, or commanding officer of a military post, has reason to suspect or is informed that any white person, or Indian, is about to introduce, or has introduced, any spirituous liquor or wine into the Indian country, in violation of the provisions of this section, it shall be lawful for such superintendent, agent, sub-agent, or commanding officer, to cause the boats, stores, packages, wagons, sleds, and places of deposit of such person to be searched; and if any such liquor is found therein, the same, together with the boats, teams, wagons, and sleds used in conveying the same, and also the goods, packages, and peltries of such persons, shall be seized and delivered to the proper officer, and shall be proceeded against by libel in the proper court, and forfeited, one-half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the United States; and if such person be a trader, his license shall be revoked and his bond put in suit. And it shall moreover be lawful for any person in the service of the United States, or for any Indian, to take and destroy any ardent spirits or wine found in the Indian country, except such as may be introduced therein by the War Department. And in all cases arising under this Act, Indians shall be competent witnesses.

Approved February 13, 1862.

2. AN ACT making an appropriation for completing the defences of Washington, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the sum of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for completing the defences of Washington: Provided, That all arrearages of debts already incurred for the objects of this Act shall be first paid out of this sum: And provided further, That no part of the sum hereby appropriated shall be expended in any work hereafter to be commenced.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the fifth section of the Act of twenty-eighth September, eighteen hundred and fifty, providing for the discharge from the service of minors enlisted without the consent of their parents or guardians, be, and the same hereby is, repealed: Provided, That hereafter no person under the age of eighteen shall be mustered into the United States service, and the oath of enlistment taken by the recruit shall be conclusive as to his age.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That no volunteers or militia from any State or Territory shall be mustered into the service of the United States on any terms or conditions confining their service to the limits of said State or Territory, or their vicinities, beyond the number of ten thousand in the State of Missouri, and four thousand five hundred in the State of Maryland, heretofore authorized by the President of the United States, or Secretary of War, to be raised in said States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the second section of the Act of the tenth of April, eighteen hundred and six, shall be, and the same is hereby, so amended as to read as follows: (See page 516 Army Regulations.)

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, in time of war or rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, all persons who shall be found lurking as spies, or acting as such, in or about the fortifications, encampments, posts, quarters, or headquarters of the armies of the United States, or any of them, within any part of the United States which has been or may be declared to be in a state of insurrection by proclamation of the President of the United States, shall suffer death by sentence of a general court-martial.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the fifty-fifth article of the first section of Act of tenth April, eighteen hundred and six, chapter twenty, be, and the same is hereby, so amended as to read as follows: (See 55th Article of War.)

Article Fifty-five, Whoever, belonging to the armies of the United States in foreign parts, or at any place within the United States, or their Territories, during rebellion against the supreme authority of the United States, shall force a safeguard, shall suffer death.

HEADQ'RS OF THE ARMY, ADJ'T GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, February 18, 1862.

I.—The following concurrent resolutions of the two Houses of the Congress of the United States are published for the information of the Army:

Resolved, That the two Houses will assemble in the Chamber of the House of Representatives on Saturday, the 22d day of February, instant, at 12 o'clock meridian, and that in the presence of the two Houses of Congress, thus assembled, the Farewell Address of George Washington to the People of the United States shall be read. And that the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Representatives be requested to invite the President of the United States, the Heads of the several Departments, the Judges of the Supreme Court, the Representatives from all Foreign Governments near this Government, and such officers of the Army and Navy, and distinguished citizens, as may then be at the seat of government, to be present on that occasion.

Resolved, That the President of the United States, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, be requested to direct that orders be issued for the reading, to the Army and Navy of the United States, of the Farewell Address of George Washington, or such parts thereof as he may select, on the 22d day of February, instant.

II.—In compliance with the foregoing resolutions, the President of the United States, Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy, orders that the following extracts from the Farewell Address of GEORGE WASHINGTON, be read to the troops at every military post, and at the head of the several regiments and corps of the Army :

“Interwoven as is the love of liberty with every ligament of our hearts, no recommendation of mine is necessary to fortify or confirm the attachment.

“The unity of government which constitutes you one people, is also now dear to you. It is justly so; for it is a main pillar in the edifice of your real independence, the support of your tranquility at home, your peace abroad, of your safety, of your prosperity, of that very liberty which you so highly prize. But as it is easy to foresee that from different causes, and from different quarters, much pains will be taken, many artifices employed to weaken in your minds the conviction of this truth—as this is the point in your political fortress against which the batteries of internal and external enemies will be most constantly and actively (though often covertly and insidiously) directed—it is of infinite moment that you should properly estimate the immense value of your national union to your collective and individual happiness; that you should cherish a cordial, habitual and immovable attachment to it; accustoming yourselves to think and to speak of it as a palladium of your political safety and prosperity; watching for its preservation with jealous anxiety; discountenancing whatever may suggest even a suspicion that it can in any event be abandoned; and indignantly frowning upon the first dawning of every attempt to alienate any portion of our country from the rest, or to enfeeble the sacred ties which now link together the various parts.

“For this you have every inducement of sympathy and interest. Citizens by birth or choice of a common country, that country has a right to concentrate your affections. The name of AMERICAN, which belongs to you in your national capacity, must always exalt the just pride of patriotism more than any appellation derived from local discrimination. With slight shades of difference, you have the same religion, manners, habits, and political principles. You have, in a common cause, fought and triumphed together. The independence and liberty you possess are the work of joint councils and joint efforts, of common dangers, sufferings, and success.

“While every part of our country feels an immediate and particular interest in union, all the parts combined, cannot fail to find in the united mass of means and efforts greater strength, greater resource, proportionately greater security from external danger, a less frequent interruption of their peace by foreign nations, and, what is of inestimable value, they must derive from union an exemption from those broils and wars between themselves, which so frequently afflict neighboring countries not tied together by the same government, which their own rivalships alone would be sufficient to produce, but which opposite foreign alliances, attachments and intrigues would stimulate and embitter. Hence likewise, they would avoid the necessity of those overgrown military establishments which, under any form of government are inauspicious to liberty, and which are to be regarded as particularly hostile to republican liberty. In this sense it is that your union ought to be considered as a main prop of your liberty, and that the love of the one ought to endear to you the preservation of the other.

"To the efficacy and permanency of your union, a government for the whole is indispensable. No alliances, however strict, between the parts, can be an adequate substitute. They must inevitably experience the infractions and interruptions which alliances in all times have experienced. Sensible of this momentous truth, you have improved upon your first essay by the adoption of a constitution of government better calculated than your former for an intimate union, and for the efficacious management of your common concerns. This government, the offspring of your own choice, uninfluenced and unawed, adopted upon full investigation and mature deliberation, completely free in its principles, in the distribution of its powers, uniting security with energy, and containing within itself provision for its own amendment, has a just claim to your confidence and your support. Respect for its authority, compliance with its laws, acquiescence in its measures, are duties enjoined by the fundamental maxims of true liberty. The basis of our political system is, the right of the people to make and to alter their constitutions of government. But the constitution which at any time exists, until changed by an explicit and authentic act of the whole people, is sacredly obligatory upon all. The very idea of the power and the right of the people to establish government, presupposes the duty of every individual to obey the established government.

"All obstructions to the execution of the laws, all combinations and associations under whatever plausible character, with the real design to direct, control, counteract or awe the regular deliberations and actions of the constituted authorities, are destructive of this fundamental principle, and of fatal tendency. They serve to organize faction; to give it an artificial and extraordinary force; to put in the place of the delegated will of the nation, the will of party, often a small but artful and enterprising minority of the community; and according to the alternate triumphs of different parties, to make the public administration the mirror of the ill-concerted and incongruous projects of faction, rather than the organ of consistent and wholesome plans, digested by common councils, and modified by mutual interests.

"Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism, who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness—these firmest props of the duties of men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connexion with private and public felicity. Let it be simply asked where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in courts of justice? And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principles.

"It is substantially true that virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government. The rule, indeed, extends with more or less force to every species of free government. Who that is a sincere friend to it can look with indifference upon attempts to shake the foundation of the fabric? Promote, then, as an object of primary importance, institutions for the general diffusion of knowledge. In proportion as the structure of a government gives force to public opinion, it is essential that public opinion should be enlightened.

"Observe good faith and justice towards all nations. Cultivate peace and harmony with all. Religion and morality enjoin this conduct; and can it be that good policy does not equally enjoin it? It will be worthy of a free, enlightened, and at no distant period, a great nation, to give to mankind the magnanimous and too novel example of a people always guided by an exalted justice and benevolence. Who can doubt that in the course of time and things the fruits of such a plan would richly repay any temporary advantages that might be lost by a steady adherence to it? Can it be that Providence has connected the permanent felicity of a nation with its virtue? The experiment at least is recommended by every sentiment which ennobles human nature. Alas! it is rendered impossible by its vices.

"Harmony and a liberal intercourse with all nations are recommended by policy, humanity, and interest. But even our commercial policy should hold an equal and impartial hand; neither seeking nor granting exclusive favors or preferences; consulting the natural course of things; diffusing and diversifying by gentle means the stream of commerce, but forcing nothing; establishing with powers so disposed (in order to give trade a stable course, to define the rights of our merchants, to enable the government to support them) conventional rules of intercourse, the best that present circumstances and natural opinion will permit, but temporary and liable to be from time to time abandoned or varied, as experience and circumstances shall dictate; constantly keeping in view that it is folly in one nation to look for disinterested favors from another—that it must pay with a portion of its independence for whatever it may accept under that character—that by such acceptance it may place itself in the condition of having given equivalents for nominal favors, and yet of being reproached with ingratitude for not having given more. There can be no greater error than to expect or calculate upon real favors from nation to nation. It is an illusion which experience must cure, which a just pride ought to discard.

"In offering to you, my countrymen, these counsels of an old affectionate friend, I dare not hope they will make the strong and lasting impression I could wish—that they will control the usual current of the passions, or prevent our nation from running the course which has hitherto marked the destiny of nations. But if I may even flatter myself that they may be productive of some partial benefit, some occasional good—that they may now and then recur to moderate the fury of party spirit, to warn against the mischiefs of foreign intrigue, to guard against the imposture of pretended patriotism—this hope will be a full recompense for the solicitude for your welfare by which they have been dictated.

"Though in reviewing the incidents of my administration I am unconscious of intentional error, I am nevertheless too sensible of my defects not to think it probable that I may have committed many errors. Whatever they may be, I fervently beseech the Almighty to avert or mitigate the evils to which they may tend. I shall also carry with me the hope that my country will never cease to view them with indulgence, and that, after forty-five years of my life dedicated to its service with an upright zeal, the faults of incompetent abilities will be consigned to oblivion, as myself must soon be to the mansions of rest.

"Relying on its kindness in this as in other things, and actuated by that fervent love toward it which is so natural to a man who views in it the native soil of himself and his progenitors for several generations, I anticipate with pleasing expectations that retreat in which I promise myself to realize without alloy the sweet enjoyment of partaking in the midst of my fellow-citizens the benign influence of good laws under a free government—the ever favorite object of my heart, and the happy reward, as I trust, of our mutual cares, labors, and dangers."

The following orders have been received from the War Department:

I.—The Governors of States are legally the authorities for raising Volunteer regiments and commissioning their officers. Accordingly, no independent organizations, as such, will be hereafter recognized in the United States service. Copies of the Rolls of muster into service will be sent as soon as practicable to the Governors of the States to which they belong by the commanders of all brigades, regiments, or corps heretofore recognized as independent of State organizations; and all vacancies of commissions in such regiments and corps will be hereafter filled by the respective Governors according to law. Wherever a regiment is composed of companies from different States, it will be considered as belonging to the State from which the greatest number of companies was furnished for that regiment.

II.—Paragraph 1121 of the Revised Regulations for the Army, of 1861, is amended by adding as follows: In special cases of hard service or exposure, the Quartermaster General may authorize the ration of grain to be increased not more than three pounds, upon a report recommending it by the Chief Quartermaster serving in a Military Department, or with the Army in the field.

III.—It has been brought to the notice of the Secretary of War that officers of the Volunteer forces frequently correspond directly with the authorities of the States in which their regiments were raised, and thus procure supplies of clothing and other stores in excess of Regulation allowance. All requisitions should be made as pointed out in the Regulations, upon the Chief Quartermaster of the Department or Army corps, who will transmit them, through the regular official channel, to the officer in charge of the depot from which the supplies are to be drawn. All clothing provided heretofore by State authorities and not yet issued, will be turned over to the officers of the United States Quartermaster's Department, who will, as far as possible, issue supplies provided by the States to the troops of the same respectively. The allowance of clothing, &c., which is prescribed in the Army Regulations should never be exceeded, except in urgent cases; and when exceeded, the circumstances making such extra issues necessary should be distinctly and fully set forth on the requisitions, to enable the proper officer to act upon them understandingly. The articles of clothing issued to troops are charged against each man, and must be paid for on final settlement of his pay accounts.

The following order has been received from the War Department:

It is ordered that there shall be inscribed upon the colors or guidons of all regiments and batteries in the service of the United States the names of the battles in which they have borne a meritorious part. These names will also be placed on the Army Register at the head of the list of the officers of each regiment.

It is expected that troops so distinguished will regard their colors as representing the honor of their corps—to be lost only with their lives; and that those not yet entitled to such a distinction will not rest satisfied until they have won it by their discipline and courage.

The General Commanding the Army will, under the instructions of this Department, take the necessary steps to carry out this order.

I.—AN ACT making appropriations for the Signal service of the United States Army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That officers temporarily serving as signal officers shall receive, for the time they are so serving, the pay and emoluments of cavalry officers of their respective grades.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That the following sums be, and they are hereby, appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, viz.:

For the manufacture or purchase of signal equipments and signal stores, to equip and supply the forces now in the field, twenty thousand dollars;

For contingent expenses of the signal department, one thousand dollars;

For the manufacture or purchase of signal equipments and signal stores, for countersign signals, to prevent the collision of friendly regiments, thirty-four thousand nine hundred and fifty dollars.

Approved February 22, 1862.

II.—A RESOLUTION tendering the thanks of Congress to the officers, soldiers, and seamen of the Army and Navy for their gallantry in the recent brilliant victories over the enemies of the Union and the Constitution.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the thanks of Congress are due and are hereby tendered to the officers, soldiers, and seamen of the Army and Navy of the United States, for the heroic gallantry that, under the providence of Almighty God, has won the recent series of brilliant victories over the enemies of the Union and the Constitution.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information of the Army :
 AN ACT making additional appropriations for the support of the Army for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the service of the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two :

For pay of two and three years' volunteers, fifty million dollars.

For payments to discharged soldiers for clothing not drawn, fifty thousand dollars.

For subsistence in kind for two and three years' volunteers, twenty-six million six hundred and sixty-eight thousand nine hundred and two dollars.

For transportation of the Army and its supplies, fourteen million eight hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars.

For the purchase of cavalry and artillery horses, one million six hundred and sixty-one thousand and forty dollars.

For clothing, camp and garrison equipage, twelve million one hundred and seventy-three thousand five hundred and forty-six dollars and seventy-seven cents.

For regular supplies, incidental expenses, transportation, barracks and quarters, clothing, camp and garrison equipage, keeping, transporting, and supplying prisoners, and other supplies and services of the Quartermaster's Department, to the thirtieth June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and to be divided among the said several heads of appropriation herein named, as the exigencies of the service may require, seventy-six million five hundred thousand dollars.

For the armament of fortifications, eight hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars.

For the current expenses of the ordnance service, two hundred thousand dollars.

For ordnance, ordnance stores and supplies, including horse equipments for all the mounted troops, one million nine hundred and twenty-four thousand dollars.

For purchase of arms for volunteers and regulars, and ordnance and ordnance stores, seven million five hundred thousand dollars.

For the medical and hospital department, one million dollars.

For amount required to refund to the States expenses incurred on account of volunteers called into the field, fifteen million dollars.

I.—The eastern limits of the Department of Western Virginia are extended so as to embrace the valley of the South Branch of the Potomac and of the Cow Pasture Branch of James River; the valley of the James River to the Balcony Falls; the valley of the Roanoke west of the Blue Ridge; and the New River Valley. The eastern boundary of the said Department will be, then, as follows: commencing at the north—the Flintstone Creek, in Maryland; the South Branch Mountain; Town Hill Mountain; Branch Mountain, or Big Ridge; the North, or Shenandoah Mountain; Purgatory Mountain; Blue Ridge; Alleghany mountains to the borders of North Carolina.

II.—By direction of the Secretary of the War, the following addition is made to paragraph 9, page 10, Revised Regulations for the Army: Except commissions issued by the President to officers of Volunteer Regiments, which will be considered the same as if issued by the Governors of the States.

III.—In order to guard against the loss of valuable letters mailed by soldiers in the various camps, the following order is given, on the recommendation of the Post Office Department: The Commander of each Regiment or Brigade will appoint a trustworthy agent to receive all letters from soldiers containing valuable enclosures. Each letter must be prepaid by postage stamps, together with the registering fee of five cents. A failure to register valuable letters increases the danger of their loss. It will be the duty of the agent to deliver the letters intrusted to him at a convenient post office daily, or as often as mails are forwarded therefrom. He will, with the letters, deliver duplicate lists of the same, giving the names of the writers, and the address upon the letters; one of which lists, with the registering fee, will be retained by the postmaster. The other copy, signed by the postmaster or registering clerk, will be returned to the agent, as his voucher for the faithful execution of his office.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, March 21, 1862.

The following Acts and Resolution of Congress are published for the information and government of all concerned:

I.—AN ACT to make an additional Article of War.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter the following shall be promulgated as an additional Article of War for the government of the Army of the United States, and shall be obeyed and observed as such:

ARTICLE —. All officers or persons in the military or naval service of the United States are prohibited from employing any of the forces under their respective commands for the purpose of returning fugitives from service or labor, who may have escaped from any persons to whom such service or labor is claimed to be due, and any officer who shall be found guilty by a court martial of violating this article shall be dismissed from the service.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Approved March 13, 1862.

II.—AN ACT to provide for the appointment of sutlers in the volunteer service, and to define their duties.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the inspector generals of the army shall constitute a board of officers, whose duty it shall be to prepare, immediately after the passage of this act, a list or schedule of the following articles which may be sold by sutlers to the officers and soldiers of the volunteer service, to wit: Apples, dried apples, oranges, figs, lemons, butter, cheese, milk, sirup, molasses, raisins, candles, crackers, wallets, brooms, comforters, boots, pocket looking glasses, pins, gloves, leather, tin wash basins, shirt buttons, horn and brass buttons, newspapers, books, tobacco, cigars, pipes, matches, blacking, blacking brushes, clothes brushes, tooth brushes, hair brushes, coarse and fine combs, emery, crocus, pocket handkerchiefs, stationery, armor oil, sweet oil, rotten stone, razor strops, razors, shaving soap, soap, suspenders, scissors, shoe strings, needles, thread, knives, pencils, and Bristol brick. Said list or schedule shall be subject, from time to time, to such revision and change as, in the judgment of the said board, the good of the service may require: Provided always, That no intoxicating liquors shall at any time be contained therein, or the sale of such liquors be in any way authorized by said board. A copy of said list or schedule, and of any subsequent change therein, together with a copy of this act, shall be, without delay, furnished by said board to the commanding officer of each brigade and of each regiment not attached to any brigade in the volunteer service, and also to the Adjutant General of the Army.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That immediately upon the receipt from said board of said list or schedule and copy of this act by the commanding officer of any such brigade, the acting brigadier general, surgeon, quartermaster, and commissary of said brigade shall constitute a board of officers whose duty it shall be to affix to each article in said list or schedule a price for said brigade, which shall be by them forthwith reported to the commanding officer of the division, if any, to which said brigade is attached, for his approval, with or without modification, and who shall, after such approval, report the same to the inspector generals, and the same, if not disapproved by them, shall be the price not exceeding which said articles may be sold to the officers and soldiers in said brigade. Whenever any brigade shall not be attached to a division, said prices shall then be reported directly to the inspector generals, and if approved by them shall be the price fixed for such brigade as aforesaid; and whenever any regiment shall be unattached to any brigade, the acting colonel, lieutenant colonel, major, and captains thereof shall constitute the board of officers by whom the price of said articles shall be fixed for said regiment in the same manner as is herein provided for an unattached brigade. The prices so fixed may be changed by said boards respectively from time to time, not oftener than once in thirty days, but all changes therein shall be reported in like manner and for the same purpose as when originally fixed.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the commanding officer of each brigade, immediately upon receipt of a copy of said list or schedule and copy of this act, as herein provided, to cause one sutler for each regiment in his brigade to be selected by the commissioned officers of such regiment, which selection shall be by him reported to the Adjutant General of the Army; the person so selected shall be sole sutler of said regiment. And the commanding officer of each unattached regiment shall, in like manner, cause a selection of a sutler to be made for said regiment, who shall be sole sutler of said regiment. Any vacancy in the office of sutler from any cause, shall be filled in the same way as an original appointment.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the sutlers chosen in the manner provided in the preceding section shall be allowed a lien only upon the pay of the officers, non-commissioned officers and privates of the regiment for which he has been chosen, or those stationed at the post to which he has been appointed, and for no greater sum than one-sixth of the monthly pay of each officer, non-commissioned officer or private, for articles sold during each month; and the amount of one-sixth or less than one-sixth of the pay of such officer, non-commissioned officer, or private, so sold to him by the sutler, shall be charged on the pay rolls of such officer, non-commissioned officer or private, and deducted from his pay, and paid over by the paymaster to the sutler of the regiment or military post, as the case may be: Provided, That if any paymaster in the service of the United States shall allow or pay any greater sum to any sutler than that hereby authorized to be retained from the pay of the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, for articles sold by any sutler during any one month, then the amount so allowed or paid by the paymaster shall be charged against the said paymaster and deducted from his pay and returned to the officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, against whom the amount was originally charged. And any captain or lieutenant commanding a company who may certify any pay-roll bearing a charge in favor of the sutler against any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, larger or greater than one-sixth of the monthly pay of such officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, shall be punished at the discretion of a court martial: Provided, however, That sutlers shall be allowed to sell only the articles designated in the list or schedule provided in this act, and none others, and at prices not exceeding those affixed to said articles, as herein provided: And provided further, That the sutlers shall have no legal claim upon any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private, to an amount exceeding one sixth of his pay for articles sold during any month. He shall keep said list or schedule, together with a copy of this act, fairly written or printed, posted up in some conspicuous part of the place where he makes said sales, and where the same can be easily read by any person to whom he makes said sales.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the inspector generals to cause the place of sale and articles kept for that purpose, by said sutlers, to be inspected from time to time, once in fifteen days at least, by some competent officer, specially detailed for that duty, and such changes in said place, or in the quality and character of the articles mentioned in said list or schedule so kept, as shall be required by said officer, shall be conformed to by each sutler. And such officer shall report each inspection to the inspector generals.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That no person shall be permitted to act as sutler unless appointed according to the provisions of this act; nor shall any person be sutler for more than one regiment; nor shall any sutler farm out or underlet the business of sutling or the privileges granted to him by his appointment; nor shall any officer of the Army receive from any sutler any money or other presents; nor be interested in any way in the stock, trade, or business of any sutler; and any officer receiving such presents, or being thus interested, directly or indirectly, shall be punished at the discretion of a court martial. No sutler shall sell to an enlisted man on credit to a sum exceeding one-fourth of his monthly pay within the same month; nor shall the regimental quartermasters allow the use of army wagons for sutlers' purposes; nor shall the quartermasters' conveyances be used for the transportation of sutlers' supplies.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That any sutler who shall violate any of the provisions of this act shall, by the colonel, with consent of the council of administration, be dismissed from the service, and be ineligible to a reappointment as sutler in the service of the United States.

Approved March 19, 1862.

III.—A RESOLUTION to authorize the Secretary of War to accept moneys appropriated by any State for the payment of its volunteers, and to apply the same as directed by such State.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That if any State, during the present rebellion, shall make any appropriation to pay the volunteers of that State, the Secretary of War is hereby authorized to accept the same, and cause it to be applied, by the Paymaster General, to the payments designated by the legislative acts making the appropriation in the same manner as if appropriated by act of Congress; and also to make any regulations that may be necessary for the disbursement and proper application of such funds to the specific purpose for which they may be appropriated by the several States.

In the changes recently made in the boundaries of Department commands, it may happen that troops belonging to one Department may either be in, or may unavoidably pass into, another. In such a case the troops so situated will continue under the command of the General under whose orders they may have been operating. But it is expected that they will be withdrawn as soon as the position they may occupy comes within the control of the proper commander of the Department.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, March 24, 1862.

I.—The very great carelessness shown by many detached officers, in keeping this office advised of their movements and address, makes it necessary to recall, in a particular manner, to the attention of every officer of the Army, paragraphs 176, 188, and 468, of the General Regulations, by which all officers on detached service and leaves of absence, are required to make monthly reports of their address, as well as of every change in their address, to this office, and also to their post and regimental commanders.

II.—The attention of officers commanding regiments, both volunteer and regular, and of all commanders of Military Departments, separate armies, detached army corps, divisions, and brigades, is once more directed to the subject of returns, and to the absolute necessity of promptly furnishing this office within the first three days of every month, with an exact return of the forces under their command.

III.—The commanding officers of all Military Departments and troops in the field are also reminded that, by General Orders No. 85, of October 1, 1861, they are required to furnish this office with tri-monthly field returns of their commands, on the 10th, 20th, and last days of each month.

IV.—The exceeding importance, at this moment, of the information derived from the above reports and returns,—information which can in no other way be obtained,—obliges the Secretary of War to reiterate the existing orders on the subject, and to notify all commanding officers that these orders must in future be more punctually obeyed. To this end he directs that General Orders, No. 74, of September 10, 1861, be republished to the troops, by their Corps, Division, and Brigade Commanders, and urges upon all commanding officers the necessity of giving to this subject their own earnest and unceasing attention.

V.—Justice to enlisted men who are separated from their companies, requires that they should have with them Descriptive Rolls showing the pay due them, their clothing accounts, and everything which would be required in settling with the Government, should they be discharged. Without such papers the men cannot receive the pay due them. The especial attention of company commanders is directed to this subject.

VI.—The enlisted men on extra duty in the several bureaux, offices and hospitals, and at the different headquarters, in this city, instead of being paid on separate vouchers as heretofore, will be mustered together in detachments, under the direction of their respective chiefs. The rolls may be made monthly, so as to constitute consolidated vouchers for each disbursing officer whose duty it may be to pay the men, and will be receipted after the manner of ordinary muster and pay rolls, at the time payment is made.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information of all concerned:

AN ACT to secure to the officers and men actually employed in the Western Department or Department of Missouri, their pay, bounty, and pension.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress Assembled, That the Secretary of War be and he is hereby authorized and required to allow and pay to the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians and privates who have been heretofore actually employed in the military service of the United States, whether mustered into actual service or not, where their services were accepted and actually employed by the generals who have been in command of the Department of the West, or the Department of the Missouri, the pay and bounty as in cases of regular enlistment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates so employed, who may have been wounded or incapacitated for service, shall be entitled to and receive the pension allowed for such disability: Provided, That the length and character of their enlistment and service be such as to entitle them under existing laws to such pension.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the heirs of those killed in battle, or of those who may have died from wounds received while so in service, shall be entitled to receive the bounty and pay to which they would have been entitled had they been regularly mustered into service: Provided, That the bounty and pay referred to in this act shall not be payable unless their term of enlistment and service be of such duration as to entitle them to receive the same, according to existing laws.

Approved March 25, 1862.

The following Regulations are published for the information of all concerned:

ADDITIONAL PARAGRAPHS ON THE SUBJECT OF PRISONERS OF WAR.

(Vide paragraphs 745 to 747, Revised Regulations for the Army, 1861.)

1. A General Commanding in the field, or a Department, will make arrangements for the safe-keeping and reasonable comfort of his prisoners.
2. For this purpose he will place them under guard already on duty, or detach a guard for the special service.
3. The General will give no order exchanging prisoners, or releasing them, except under instructions from the Secretary of War.

4. In emergencies admitting of no delay, the General will act upon his own authority, and give any order in relation to prisoners the public interest might require, promptly reporting his proceedings to the War Department through the Adjutant General.

5. In time of War a Commissary General of Prisoners will be announced, whose general duties will be those of an Inspector.

6. A General Depot for Prisoners will be designated by the Secretary of War, which shall be under the command of the Commissary General of Prisoners, with a body of troops as a guard under his orders. The Depot shall be the Headquarters of the Commissary General, to which communications may be sent.

7. Generals commanding Departments, or in the field, may, at their discretion, send their prisoners to the General Depot—furnishing proper rolls with them, showing when and where captured, &c.; after which their charge of them will cease.

8. The Commissary General of Prisoners is empowered to visit places at which prisoners may be held, and will recommend to the General, whose guards are responsible for them, whatever modification in their treatment may seem to him proper or necessary, and report the same to the War Department.

9. Generals sending prisoners to the depots, or to special localities, will furnish the Commissary General of Prisoners with the lists or rolls of all prisoners so sent, which the Commissary General of Prisoners will cause to be entered in a proper book, showing the name and designation of each prisoner, the time and place when and where taken. Any special information of importance will be added from time to time in a column of remarks. When disposed of, by exchange or otherwise, the fact, and the authority for it, and the name of the person for whom exchanged, should be noted in this record.

10. The Commissary General of Prisoners shall have authority to call for such reports from officers in command of guards over prisoners as may be necessary for the proper discharge of his own duties.

11. He will make reports monthly, or oftener, if required, to the Adjutant General, showing where and in what numbers prisoners are held, and be in readiness at all times to answer specific questions as to persons.

12. The duties of the Commissary General of Prisoners do not extend to prisoners of State.

1.—The General Hospitals are under the direction of the Surgeon General. Orders not involving expense of transportation may be given by him to transfer Medical Officers or Hospital Stewards from one General Hospital to another, as he may deem best for the service.

2.—The Chief Medical Officer to whom the charge of all the General Hospitals in a city may be entrusted, will cause certificates of disability to be made out for such men as, in his judgment, should be discharged. He will be responsible that the certificates are given for good cause, and that they are made in proper form, giving such medical description of the cases, with the degree of disability, as may enable the Pension Office to decide on any claim to pension which may be based upon them. The certificates of disability will be signed by the Chief Medical Officer and forwarded by him to the Military Commander in the city, who shall have authority to order the discharge and dispose of the case according to existing regulations.

3.—The final statements, and all the discharge papers, will be made out under the supervision of the Military Commander, and signed by him. Where the men are provided with their descriptive rolls there will be no delay in discharging them after their certificates of disability are acted on. But if they have no descriptive rolls, application will be made to the Company Commander for the proper discharge papers, and the men may be maintained at the hospital a reasonable time while awaiting them, to avoid their being turned off without means of support. The discharge will, in all cases, bear the date when the papers are actually furnished the soldier.

4.—When a man is received in any hospital without his descriptive roll, the fact will be immediately reported by the Medical Officer in charge to the Military Commander, who will at once call on the Company Commander, in the name of the Secretary of War, promptly to furnish the military history of the man, and his clothing, money, and other accounts with the Government.

5.—When too long a delay would arise in discharging the man because of the remote station of his company, application will be made by the Medical Officer to the Adjutant General for such account of the man as his records will furnish. To this partial descriptive roll the Medical Officer will add the period for which pay is due the man since his entry into the hospital. The man will then be discharged and receive the pay and travelling allowances thus shown to be due him, leaving the balance due him on account of clothing, retained pay, &c., for settlement in such manner as may hereafter be determined.

6.—The Military Commander's duties, in reference to all troops and enlisted men who happen to come within the limits of his command, will be precisely those of a commanding officer of a military post.

7.—It is made the duty of each Military Commander to correct, as far as may be in his power, the evils and irregularities arising from the peculiar state of the service at this time, by collecting stragglers and sending them forward to their proper stations, or discharging them on certificates of disability, if, on examination by the Chief Medical Officer, they be found unfit for the service.

8.—The Military Commander in each city will have control of such guards as may be furnished to preserve discipline and good order at the several military hospitals. He will advise the Adjutant General of the Army what number of companies will be required for such guards. He will cause them to be properly posted, relieved, and instructed.

9.—Whenever the Chief Medical Officer shall report a number of patients as fit to join their Regiments, the Military Commander will give the necessary orders to have them forwarded in good order and under suitable conduct.

10.—The Chief Medical Officer in each city is authorized to employ as cooks, nurses, and attendants, any convalescent, wounded, or feeble men, who can perform such duties, instead of giving them discharges.

11.—All officers and enlisted men of Volunteers who are on parole not to serve against the rebels, will be considered on leave of absence, until notified of their exchange or discharge. They will immediately report their address to the Governors of their States, who will be duly informed from this office as to their exchange or discharge.

12.—The duties of Military Commanders, as above defined, will devolve, in the District of Columbia, on the Military Governor; in the city of Baltimore, on the Commander of the Middle Department; in the city of Philadelphia, on Lieutenant Colonel H. Brooks, Second Artillery, hereby assigned to that station; in the city of New York, and the military posts in that vicinity, on Brevet Brigadier General H. The Secretary of War has observed, with some surprise, that the commanders of one or two military departments, conceiving themselves empowered to do so, have undertaken to accept the resignations of, and otherwise discharge from the service of the United States, officers commissioned or appointed by the President, in the volunteer staff of the Army.

All such discharges are irregular, and, unless confirmed by the President, void of effect. None but the President can discharge an officer appointed by himself. And, as he has not delegated this power to any General, no General must attempt to exercise it.

AN ACT to reorganize and increase the efficiency of the medical department of the army.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be added to the present medical corps of the army ten Surgeons and ten Assistant Surgeons, to be promoted and appointed under existing laws; twenty medical cadets, and as many hospital stewards as the Surgeon General may consider necessary for the public service, and that their pay and that of all hospital stewards in the volunteer as well as the regular service shall be thirty dollars per month, to be computed from the passage of this act. And all medical cadets in the service shall, in addition to their pay, receive one ration per day, either in kind or commutation.

SEC. 2.—And be it further enacted, That the Surgeon General to be appointed under this act shall have the rank, pay, and emoluments of a Brigadier General. There shall be one Assistant Surgeon General and one Medical Inspector General of Hospitals, each with the rank, pay, and emoluments of a Colonel of Cavalry, and the Medical Inspector General shall have, under the direction of the Surgeon General, the supervision of all that relates to the sanitary condition of the army, whether in transports, quarters, or camps, and of the hygiene, police, discipline, and efficiency of field and general hospitals, under such regulations as may hereafter be established.

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That there shall be eight Medical Inspectors, with the rank, pay, and emoluments each of a Lieutenant Colonel of Cavalry, and who shall be charged with the duty of inspecting the sanitary condition of transports, quarters, and camps, of field and general hospitals, and who shall report to the Medical Inspector General, under such regulations as may be hereafter established, all circumstances relating to the sanitary condition and wants of troops and of hospitals, and to the skill, efficiency, and good conduct of the officers and attendants connected with the medical department.

SEC. 4.—And be it further enacted, That the Surgeon General, the Assistant Surgeon General, Medical Inspector General, and medical inspectors, shall, immediately after the passage of this act, be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, by selection from the medical corps of the army, or from the surgeons in the volunteer service, without regard to their rank when so selected, but with sole regard to qualifications.

SEC. 5.—And be it further enacted, That medical purveyors shall be charged, under the direction of the Surgeon General, with the selection and purchase of all medical supplies, including new standard preparations, and of all books, instruments, hospital stores, furniture, and other articles required for the sick and wounded of the army. In all cases of emergency they may provide such additional accommodations for the sick and wounded of the army, and may transport such medical supplies as circumstances may render necessary, under such regulations as may hereafter be established, and shall make prompt and immediate issues upon all special requisitions made upon them under such circumstances by medical officers; and the special requisitions shall consist simply of a list of the articles required, the qualities required, dated, and signed by the medical officers requiring them.

SEC. 6.—And be it further enacted, That whenever the inspector general, or any one of the medical inspectors, shall report an officer of the medical corps as disqualified, by age, or otherwise, for promotion to a higher grade, or unfitted for the performance of his professional duties, he shall be reported by the Surgeon General, for examination, to a medical board, as provided by the seventeenth section of the act approved August third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 7.—And be it further enacted, That the provisions of this act shall continue and be in force during the existence of the present rebellion and no longer: Provided, however, That, when this act shall expire, all officers who shall have been promoted from the medical staff of the army under this act shall retain their respective rank in the army, with such promotion as they would have been entitled to.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States is hereby authorized to appoint, if he shall deem it necessary, a chaplain for each permanent hospital, whose pay, with that of chaplains of hospitals heretofore appointed by him, shall be the same as that of regimental chaplains in the volunteer force; and who shall be subject to such rules in relation to leave of absence from duty as are prescribed for commissioned officers of the army.

Approved May 20, 1862.

II.—The following are the Regulations which will govern the appointment of medical storekeepers under the first section of the foregoing act of Congress:

1. A board of not less than three medical officers will be assembled by the Secretary of War to examine such applicants as may, by him, be authorized to appear before it.

2. Candidates, to be eligible to examination, shall be not less than 25 years, nor more than 40 years of age; shall possess sufficient physical ability to perform their duties satisfactorily; and shall present with their applications satisfactory evidence of good moral character.

3. Candidates will be required to pass a satisfactory examination in the ordinary branches of a good English education, in pharmacy and materia medica; and to give proof that they possess the requisite business qualifications for the position.

4. The board will report to the Secretary of War the relative merits of the candidates examined, and they will receive appointments accordingly.

5. When appointed, each medical storekeeper will be required to give a bond in the amount of $40,000, before he shall be allowed to enter on the performance of his duties.

AN ACT to prevent and punish fraud on the part of officers intrusted with making of contracts for the government.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, of the Secretary of the Navy, and of the Secretary of the Interior, immediately after the passage of this act, to cause and require every contract made by them, severally, on behalf of the government, or by their officers under them appointed to make such contracts, to be reduced to writing, and signed by the contracting parties with their names at the end thereof, a copy of which shall be filed by the officer making and signing the said contract in the "Returns Office" of the Department of the Interior (hereinafter established for that purpose) as soon after the contract is made as possible, and within thirty days, together with all bids, offers, and proposals to him made by persons to obtain the same, as also a copy of any advertisement he may have published inviting bids, offers, or proposals for the same; all the said copies and papers in relation to each contract to be attached together by a ribbon and seal, and numbered in regular order numerically, according to the number of papers composing the whole return.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the further duty of the said officer before making his return according to the first section of this act, to affix to the same his affidavit in the following form, sworn to before some magistrate having authority to administer oaths: "I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that the copy of contract hereto annexed is an exact copy of a contract made by me personally with ————; that I made the same fairly, without any benefit or advantage to myself, or allowing any such benefit or advantage corruptly to the said ————, or any other person; and that the papers accompanying include all those relating to the said contract, as required by the statute in such case made and provided." And any officer convicted of falsely and corruptly swearing to such affidavit, shall be subject to all the pains and penalties now by law inflicted for wilful and corrupt perjury.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That any officer making contracts, as aforesaid, and failing or neglecting to make returns of the same, according to the provisions of this act, unless from unavoidable accident and not within his control, shall be deemed, in every case of such failure or neglect, to be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished with a fine of not less than one hundred dollars, nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for not more than six months, at the discretion of the court trying the same.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Interior, immediately after the passage of this act, to provide a fit and proper apartment in his Department, to be called the "Returns Office," within which to file the returns required by this act to be filed, and to appoint a clerk to attend to the same, who shall be entitled to an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, and whose duty it shall be to file all returns made to said office, so that the same may be of easy access, filing all returns made by the same officer in the same place, and numbering them as they are made in numerical order. He shall also provide and keep an index book, with the names of the contracting parties, and the number of each and every contract opposite to the said names; and he shall submit the said index book and returns to any person desiring to inspect the same; and he shall also furnish copies of said returns to any person paying for said copies to said clerk at the rate of five cents for every one hundred words, to which said copies certificates shall be appended in every case by the clerk making the same, attesting their correctness, and that each copy so certified is a full and complete copy of said return; which return, so certified under the seal of the Department, shall be evidence in all prosecutions under this act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the Secretary of War, of the Secretary of the Navy, and of the Secretary of the Interior, immediately after the passage of this act, to furnish each and every officer severally appointed by them with authority to make contracts on behalf of the government, with a printed letter of instructions, setting forth the duties of such officer under this act, and also to furnish therewith forms, printed in blank, of contracts to be made, and the affidavit of returns required to be affixed thereto, so that all the instruments may be as nearly uniform as possible.

The great number of officers absent from their regiments without sufficient cause is a serious evil which calls for immediate correction. By paragraph 177, General Regulations, the power of commanding officers to grant leaves of absence is limited to a "time of peace." In time of war, leaves of absence will only be granted by the Secretary of War, except when the certificate of a medical officer shall show, beyond doubt, that a change of location "is necessary to save life, or prevent permanent disability." (Paragraph 186, General Regulations.) In such case the Commander of an Army, a Department, or District, may grant not exceeding twenty days. At the expiration of that time, if the officer be not able to travel, he must make application to the Adjutant General of the Army for an extension, accompanied by the certificate of a medical officer of the army, in the usual form, and that he is not able to travel. If it be not practicable to procure such a certificate, in consequence of there being no army physician in the place where the officer resides, the certificate of a citizen physician, attested by a civil magistrate, may be substituted.

All officers of the Regulars and Volunteers, except those on parole, now absent from duty with leave, will be considered "absent without leave," (paragraph 1326, General Regulations,) unless they are found at their posts within fifteen days from the date of this order, or are authorized by orders from the Adjutant General to be absent, which orders will in all cases be based on a certificate as above described, and must be exhibited to the paymaster before payment is made them.

All invalid and wounded officers who are able to travel, although their disability may not have been removed (paragraph 187, General Regulations) will repair, without delay,—those from the East to Annapolis, to report to the General Commanding the Camp of Instruction; those from the West to report to the Commanding Officer of Camp Chase, Ohio. At those points they will remain until able to proceed to their regiments, or until an examining board may decide adversely on their ability to return to duty within a reasonable time, and orders may be given by the President for their discharge.

Their Excellencies the Governors of States are requested to make known this order, and to contribute to its execution, as may be in their power. Mustering and Recruiting Officers are directed to do the same. Extra copies of the order will be furnished them for distribution.

Failure to comply with the above regulations will be reported to the Adjutant General by Regimental Commanders.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

IX.—Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing Order, to the Companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment. Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence of the former.

X.—The numbers prefixed to the names of certain officers in the above list of appointments, indicate their rank among those of the same date.

XI.—Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and, in case of acceptance, the birth-place of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, and his full name, correctly written, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant General.

XII.—With the exception of those detached from their regiments on special duty, or unable from some other valid cause to comply with the order, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations, without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments. And those who deem themselves included in the exception just above made, will immediately submit a statement of their case, through the proper channel, to this office, for further consideration.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 64.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 11, 1862.

I.—All property captured by the Army, or seized by any Provost Marshal, or taken up estray, or taken from soldiers marching in the enemy's country, will be turned over to the Chiefs of the Staff Departments to which such property would appertain, on duty with the troops, and will be accounted for by them as captured property, and used for the public service, unless claimed by owners and ordered by the commanding officer to be returned. In such case, the receipts of the owners to whom the property is delivered will be taken therefor. Provost Marshals will make returns to the Adjutant General of all such property and of the disposition made of it, accounting on separate returns for ordnance, quartermaster, subsistence, medical stores, &c., furnishing and procuring the usual invoices and receipts, and charging the officers to whom the property has been delivered with the same, on the returns.

II.—Paragraph 41, Regulations for the Subsistence Department, of April 24, 1862, corresponding with paragraph 1217, Regulations for the Army, is hereby rescinded. The settlement of accounts for the board of soldiers in private hospitals is transferred to the Surgeon General's Department.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 65.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 12, 1862.

I.—Paragraph 1269, Army Regulations, is hereby so modified, that Private Physicians, employed as Medical Officers with an Army in the field in time of war, may be allowed a sum not to exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month, besides transportation in kind.

II.—The certificates of discharge to be given by the Medical Inspector General, or any Medical Inspector of the Army, under the Act of May 14, 1862, published in "General Orders," No. 53, will be made on the printed forms for Certificates of Disability, prescribed by the Army Regulations. The Inspector giving the discharge will endorse it with his own certificate that it is granted upon his own personal inspection of the soldier, and with the soldier's consent; and for disability, the nature, degree, and origin of which are correctly described in the within certificate.

III.—Each Medical Director must, under the orders of his Department Commander, regulate the distribution of the sick and wounded to the hospitals within the Military Department to which he belongs. When want of room in such hospitals, or the nature of the wounds or diseases of any invalids, require that detachments shall be sent beyond the limits of their departments, the Surgeon General will designate to the Medical Directors, either by general instructions, or specially by telegraph, to what points they shall be sent. Officers, whose duty it may become to forward such detachments, will take care that no men, except those provided with written passes from their hospital surgeon, or the Medical Director, shall be allowed to go.

Furloughs will not be given by Captains of Companies or Colonels of Regiments on any pretext whatever. A furlough from such authority will not relieve a soldier from the charge of desertion.

Enlisted men absent from their regiments without proper authority, are in fact deserters, and not only forfeit all pay and allowances, but are subject to the penalties awarded by law to such offenders. No plea of sickness, or other cause not officially established, and no certificate of a physician in civil life, unless it be approved by some officer acting as a military commander, will hereafter avail to remove the charge of desertion, or procure arrears of pay, when a soldier has been mustered as absent from his regiment without leave.

By application to the Governors of their States, or to any Military Commander, or United States Mustering Officer in a city, transportation can be procured to their regiments by soldiers who are otherwise able to join them.

Where no Military Commander has been appointed, the senior officer of the Army on duty as Mustering, or Recruiting Officer in the place, is hereby authorized and required to act in that capacity until another may be appointed.

Under "General Orders," No. 36, it is the duty of Military Commanders to collect all stragglers and forward them to their regiments. To do this they must establish camps or depots, under strict military discipline, and maintain sufficient guards to enforce this order. Convalescents in army hospitals will be reported by the surgeons in charge to the Military Commanders, to be kept at their camps or depots until they can be sent to join their Regiments. Muster rolls of each detachment will be made out from the best data at hand, the statement of the men being taken in the absence of other information concerning them. A duplicate of each muster roll must be forwarded to the Adjutant General the day the detachment starts.

To avoid confusion and retain necessary control over all soldiers in the United States service, those who are entertained in State or private hospitals must be subject to the nearest Military Commander, and are hereby required to report to him in person as soon as they become convalescent.

Immediately after receipt of this order, each Military Commander will publish, three times, in some newspaper, a brief notice requiring all United States soldiers in that city and the country around, who are not under treatment in a United States hospital, to report themselves to him without delay on penalty of being considered deserters. In cases of serious disability from wounds or sickness, which may prevent obedience to this requirement, the soldier must furnish a certificate of a physician of good standing, describing his case, on which, if satisfactory, the Military Commander may grant a written furlough for not exceeding thirty days, or a discharge on the prescribed form of certificate of disability, made out strictly according to the Regulations. But no discharges will be given on account of rheumatism, or where there is a prospect of recovery within a reasonable time.

Military Commanders may discharge men at their own request, who exhibit to them satisfactory proof of their being paroled prisoner of war. To other paroled men they will give furloughs until notified of their exchange, or discharged the service.

Military Commanders will report to the Adjutant General, tri-monthly, the names, companies, regiments, and residences of all the soldiers furloughed or discharged by them; and forward at the same time the certificates of disability in case of discharge.

They will make timely requisitions for the blanks, and such other things as may be necessary for the proper execution of this order.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 66.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 16, 1862.

Surgeon David S. Hays, 110th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers, having been ordered to conduct to this city a large detachment of sick and wounded men, and having shamefully neglected them after their arrival, the President directs that for this gross dereliction of duty he be dismissed the service, and he is hereby accordingly dismissed.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 67.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 17, 1862.

The supervision of Prisoners of War sent by Generals commanding in the field to posts or camps prepared for their reception, is placed entirely under Colonel WILLIAM HOFFMAN, Third Infantry, Commissary General of Prisoners, who is subject only to the orders of the War Department. All matters in relation to prisoners will pass through him.

He will establish regulations for issuing clothing to prisoners, and will direct the manner in which all funds arising from the saving of rations at prison hospitals, or otherwise, shall be accounted for and disbursed by the regular disbursing officers of the Departments, in providing, under existing regulations, such articles as may be absolutely necessary for the welfare of the prisoners.

He will select positions for camps for prisoners, (or prison camps,) and will cause plans and estimates for necessary buildings to be prepared and submitted to the Quartermaster General, upon whose approval they will be erected by the officers of the Quartermaster's Department.

He will, if practicable, visit the several prison camps once a month.

Loyal citizens who may be found among the prisoners of war, confined on false accusations or through mistake, may lay their cases before the Commissary General of Prisoners, who will submit them to the Adjutant General.

The Commissary General is authorized to grant paroles to prisoners, on the recommendation of the Medical Officer attending the prison, in case of extreme illness, but under no other circumstances.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders,
No. 68.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 18, 1862.

I.—Whenever soldiers are discharged while absent from their companies, the officers granting the discharge will furnish them with final statements for pay, and certificates of discharge. The same officers, including Medical Inspectors, will, in all cases, notify the Adjutant General and the commanding officer of the company to which the soldier belongs, of the date, place, and cause, of such discharge. Certificates of disability are never to be given into the hands of the soldier, but are to be forwarded to the Adjutant General, after being completed. (See Paragraphs 167 and 168, General Regulations.)

II.—The act of February 13, 1863, section 2, published in "General Orders" No. 15, although prohibiting the discharge of minors from the service, does not authorize their enlistment or muster into service, except with the written consent of their parents, masters, or guardians. Such consent must be taken in triplicate, and filed with triplicate copies of the muster in rolls.

III.—Officers now or hereafter detached from their regiments for Signal duty, will report immediately for orders to the Signal Officer of the Army; after which they will not be relieved from such duty, except by orders from the Adjutant General of the Army.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders,
No. 69.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, June 19, 1862.

The following is published for the information and guidance of all concerned, in connection with the Act of June 2, 1862, promulgated in "General Orders," No. 58:

WAR DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON CITY, D. C.,

June 16, 1862.

The Secretary of War is of opinion that the "Act to prevent and punish fraud on the part of officers entrusted with making contracts on the part of Government," approved June 2, 1862, applies only to such contracts as, under the laws and regulations in force at the time of its passage, were required to be in writing. The execution of the act, in any other sense, is utterly impracticable, and an attempt otherwise to enforce it, would everywhere instantly arrest the operation of our forces. It is therefore Ordered, That all contracts, which by the present regulations are prescribed to be made in writing, shall hereafter be made in quintuplicate, of which four shall be disposed of according to such regulations, and one shall be sent by the officer making and signing the same to the Return Office of the Department of the Interior, within thirty days after the contract is made, together with all proposals, and a copy of any advertisement published by him touching the same, attached and verified in the manner required by the act above specified.

EDWIN M. STANTON, Secretary of War.

No. 70.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 20, 1862.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information and government of all concerned:

AN ACT providing that the officers of volunteers shall be paid on the pay-rolls of the regiments or companies to which they belong.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That company officers of volunteers shall be paid on the muster and pay-rolls of their company, party, or detachment, and not otherwise, except when such officer may be on detached service without troops, or on leave of absence.

Approved June 18, 1862.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 21, 1862.

In every case of prisoners taken in arms against the United States, who may be tried and sentenced to death, the record of the tribunal before which the trial was had will be forwarded for the action of the President of the United States, without whose orders no such sentence, in such cases, will be executed.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 72.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, June 28, 1862.

I.—Whenever sick men, paroled prisoners or others, under circumstances entitling them to their descriptive lists, and accounts of pay and clothing, &c., are sent away from their regiments, or, being already separated from their regiments, are discharged from any hospital, or moved from point to point in a body, they will be put under charge of a trusty officer or non-commissioned officer—to be selected if possible, from their own number—who will exercise command over the party and conduct it to its destination. And to this officer or non-commissioned officer will be confided the descriptive lists of all; for the safe keeping of which, until properly turned over with each soldier, he will be held strictly accountable. Detailed instructions, in writing, for his guidance and government, during the journey, will, in every case, if possible, be furnished to such officer by his last commander. And should he, himself, be compelled to make any detachments from his party, he will, in each case, observe the same rules.

II.—That paragraph of General Orders No. 65, of June 12, 1862, which authorizes the discharge, when requested by them, of paroled prisoners, is hereby rescinded.

III.—No more furloughs will be granted to paroled prisoners. All furloughs heretofore given to them are hereby revoked; and all prisoners, now at large on their parole, or who may hereafter be paroled by the rebel authorities, will immediately repair—if belonging to regiments raised in the New England and Middle States, to the Camp of Instruction, established near Annapolis, Md.; if belonging to regiments raised in the States of Virginia, Tennessee, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan, to Camp Chase, near Columbus, Ohio: if belonging to regiments raised in the States of Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, and Missouri, to the Camp near Jefferson Barracks, Mo.,—and report for such duty, compatible with their parole, as may be assigned to them by the officers in command of said camps. And all, whether officers or soldiers, who fail to comply with this order, within the space of time necessary for them to do so, will be accounted deserters and dealt with accordingly.

The attention of all commanding, mustering, and recruiting officers is particularly directed to this order, and they are required to use their utmost exertions, not only to give it the widest circulation in their neighborhoods, but to see that it is faithfully carried out. And their Excellencies, the Governors of the several States, are respectfully solicited to lend their efforts to the same end.

IV.—The transportation necessary to a compliance with this order, can, on application, be procured from the Governors of the several States, or from the United States mustering or commanding officers in the various cities within them.

V.—The commanders of the different Camps of Instruction, to which paroled men are sent, will have them organized into companies and battalions, keeping those of the same regiment and of the same State as much together as possible; and will have correct muster rolls of them made out and forwarded to this office; and, on the 15th day of every muster month, will furnish a list of them to the company commanders; from whom, in return, they will procure full and exact descriptive lists of each man, and accounts of the pay, clothing, &c., due to or from him to the Government.

VII.—Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing Order, to the Companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment

Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence of the former.

VIII.—The numbers, prefixed to the names of certain officers, in the above list of appointments, indicate their rank among those of the same date.

IX.—Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and in case of acceptance, the birth-place of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, and his full name, correctly written, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant-General.

X. With the exception of those detached from their regiments on special duty, or unable from some other valid cause to comply with the order, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations, without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments. And those who deem themselves included in the exception just above made, will immediately submit a statement of their case, through the proper channel, to this office, for further consideration.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 74. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 7, 1862.

I.—The following resolution of Congress is published for the information of all concerned:

A RESOLUTION to encourage Enlistments in the Regular Army and Volunteer forces.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America, in Congress assembled, That so much of the ninth section of the act approved August third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act for the better organization of the military establishment," as abolishes the premium paid for bringing accepted recruits to the rendezvous, be and the same is hereby repealed, and hereafter a premium of two dollars shall be paid to any citizen, non-commissioned officer or soldier, for such accepted recruit for the regular army [as] he may bring to the rendezvous. And every soldier who hereafter enlists, either in the regular army or the volunteers, for three years, or during the war, may receive his first month's pay in advance, upon the mustering of his company into the service of the United States, or after he shall have been mustered into and joined a regiment already in the service.

Approved June 21, 1862.

II.—For the two dollar premium, regular service, the form of receipt roll annexed will be used as a consolidated voucher for the payments. The payments will be made from recruiting funds, and so soon as the recruit is accepted by the recruiting officer.

III.—For volunteer recruits, for old regiments, there will be paid a premium of three dollars, and for those entering new regiments a premium of two dollars. The premium may be paid either to the person bringing the recruit, or to the recruit in person, in case he presents himself.

These payments will be made so soon as the recruit has been inspected by the surgeon and mustered into service.

The amounts will be entered on the Muster-in Roll, opposite the names of the recruits so paid, and charged to the fund for "collecting, drilling, and organizing volunteers."

For a voucher, a modified form of that used in the regular service may be used.

IV.—The month's pay in advance for regular and volunteer recruits will be paid under such regulations as the Paymaster General may establish.

V.—During the continuance of the existing war, twenty-five dollars of the one hundred bounty previously authorized by act of Congress, will be paid to every recruit of the regular and volunteer forces.

These payments will be made as follows, viz:

1. To volunteer recruits for the old regiments, when the said recruits are inspected and mustered into the service, and to those of the new regiments when their companies are organized, muster-in rolls made out, and the mustering officer's certificate given thereto. The amounts will be entered on the muster-in rolls, opposite the name of the recruits, respectively, and charged under the head of "Expenses of Volunteer Recruiting Service." To this end, an account current separate from that for the fund for "collecting, drilling, and organizing volunteers," will be used, but the "volunteer recruiting fund" will be disbursed by the regularly appointed mustering and disbursing officers.

2. To recruits for the regular service when the recruit has been passed by the "Board of Inspectors," at the regimental or general service depot, as the case may be. The amounts under this head will be paid from the recruiting funds, and entered on the recruiting account current, opposite the names of the recruits respectively; and also on the first descriptive list of the soldier; whenever this list is given before bounty has been paid, an entry—" $25 due for enlistment" will be made thereon.

In case of re-enlisted soldiers, the entry, as to payment or non-payment, will be made on the first muster roll, and the superintendent of the recruiting service will be notified of the fact.

8. Vouchers for payment will be in the form of consolidated receipt rolls.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

We, the undersigned, do hereby acknowledge to have received from Lieut. _____, _____ Regiment of _____, Recruiting Officer, [or from _____ Mustering and Disbursing Officer,] the sums opposite our names, respectively, being in full for amounts due us for procuring and bringing to the rendezvous accepted recruits. Our names are placed opposite the names of recruits so furnished, and we have signed duplicates hereof.

Date.	No.	Name of Recruit.	Amount.	Name of person procuring Recruits.*	Witness.	REMARKS.

I certify that the above is correct; that the recruits accepted are "effective and able bodied;" and that, in accepting them, I have been strictly governed by paragraphs 925 and 926 Recruiting Regulations.

_____, Lieut. _____ Infantry, Recruiting Officer.

NOTES.—1. Act of February 13, 1862, published in G. O. No. 15, although prohibiting discharge of minors from the service, does not authorize their enlistment or muster into service, except with written consent of parent, guardian, or master.

2. It should be borne in mind that the law provides for the enlistment of "effective able-bodied" men; and if any officer shall enlist any person contrary to the true intent and meaning of the law, it is further provided that, for every offence, "he shall forfeit and pay the amount of the bounty and clothing which the person so recruited may have received from the public, to be deducted out of the pay and emoluments of such officer."

* In case of volunteer recruits the name of the recruit will appear in this column in case the money was paid to him.

General Orders, }
No. 75.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 8, 1862.

I.—In organizing new Regiments of Volunteers, the Governors of States are hereby authorized to appoint, in addition to the Staff Officers heretofore authorized, one Second Lieutenant for each Company, who shall be mustered into the service at the commencement of the organization, who shall have authority to muster in recruits as they are enlisted. If any recruit shall be enlisted by such officer, who shall afterwards, on medical inspection, prove to have been obviously unfit for the service at the time of his enlistment, all expenses caused thereby shall be paid by such officer, to be stopped against him from any payment that may be coming to him from the Government thereafter.

Any officer, thus appointed and mustered, shall only be entitled to be paid on the muster and pay-roll of his company, and should he fail to secure an organized company within such reasonable time as the Governor may designate, his men may be transferred to some other company, his appointment be revoked, and he discharged without pay; unless the Governor shall think proper to give him a position in the consolidated company to which his men have been transferred.

Articles of enlistment, as in the regular army, will be made out in triplicate by such recruiting officers, one copy of which will be sent to the Adjutant General of the State, one to the Adjutant of the regiment, and one will be kept by the recruiting officer.

Recruits will be sent to the regimental rendezvous at least as often as once a week, where they will be immediately examined by the Surgeon of the Regiment, and if found unfit for duty, by reason of permanent disability, will be discharged from the service forthwith by the Surgeon, who will report such discharges to the Adjutant General of the State, and also to the Adjutant of the Regiment, noting particularly those cases where the disability was obvious at the time of enlistment.

The muster-in rolls of each company will be made out by the Adjutant of the Regiment, from a list to be furnished by the Adjutant General of the State, together with the articles of enlistment furnished him by the recruiting officer, and will note upon it the names of all persons discharged by the Surgeon for permanent disability, designating particularly those cases where the disability was apparent at the time of enlistment.

As soon as the organization of a regiment is completed, it will be carefully inspected by the mustering officer for the State, who will see that at least the minimum number of each company is present; no absentees, except sick in hospital, will be counted. He will also compare the muster-in rolls, and if found correct, will sign the roll certifying to the muster of each man at the date of his enlistment.

Mustering officers will report promptly to the Adjutant General of the Army the names of all recruiting Lieutenants mustered into the service by them, under conditional letters of appointment, together with the regiments to which they belong.

II.—Officers will be mustered into the service only on the authority of the Governor of the State to which their regiments belong.

III.—Until regiments are organized and their muster rolls completed, they will be under the exclusive control of the Governors of the States, and all requisitions for quartermaster, medical, and ordnance stores, and contracts for subsistence, will, if approved by them, be allowed, and not otherwise.

IV.—Where it is desired by the Governors of States, the United States officers of the quartermaster, medical, and ordnance departments, may turn over stores to the State authorities to be issued by them in accordance with the regulations, and accounted for to the proper Bureau of the War Department.

V.—Persons traveling under the order of a Governor of a State, on business connected with the recruiting service, will be allowed the actual cost of transportation, to be paid by the mustering and disbursing officer on presentation of the account, accompanied by proper vouchers, and the order under which the journey was performed.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information of all concerned:

AN ACT making appropriations for the support of the Army for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three, and additional appropriations for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the support of the army for the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-three:

For the recruiting service of the army, namely: For the enlistment of recruits, for quarters, fuel, stationery, straw, postage, bunks, compensation to citizen surgeons for medical attendance, transportation from rendezvous to depots, and all other expenses until put in march to join regiments, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

For purchase of books of tactics and instructions for volunteers, fifty thousand dollars.

For pay of the army, eight million nine hundred and five thousand three hundred and eighteen dollars.

For commutation of officers' subsistence, one million five hundred and seventy-four thousand one hundred and eighty-six dollars and fifty cents.

For commutation of forage for officers' horses, two hundred and eighty-three thousand four hundred and fourteen dollars.

For payments to discharged soldiers for clothing not drawn, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For payments in lieu of clothing for officers' servants, seventy-one thousand six hundred and thirty dollars.

For pay of volunteers under acts of twenty-second and twenty-fifth of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, two hundred and twenty-six millions two hundred and eighty-three thousand two hundred and eighty-two dollars: Provided, That the President shall not be authorized to appoint more than forty major generals, nor more than two hundred brigadier generals. And all acts and parts of acts authorizing a greater number of major and brigadier generals than are above provided for are hereby repealed.

For subsistence in kind for regulars and volunteers, seventy-eight millions three hundred and eighty-six thousand six hundred and forty dollars and eighty cents.

For the regular supplies of the quartermaster's department, consisting of fuel for the officers, enlisted men, guard, hospitals, storehouses, and offices, of forage in kind for the horses, mules, and oxen, of the quartermaster's department at the several posts and stations, and with the armies in the field; for the horses of the several regiments of cavalry, batteries of artillery, and such companies of infantry as may be mounted, and for the authorized number of officers' horses when serving in the field and at the outposts, including bedding for the animals; of straw for soldiers' bedding, and of stationery, including blank books for the quartermaster's department, certificates for discharged soldiers, blank forms for the pay and quartermaster's departments; and for the printing of division and department orders and reports, thirty-six million nine hundred and twelve thousand dollars.

For the incidental expenses of the quartermaster's department, consisting of postage on letters and packets received and sent by officers of the army on public service; expenses of courts-martial and courts of inquiry, including the additional compensation of judge advocates, recorders, members, and witnesses, while on that service, under the act of March sixteenth, eighteen hundred and two; extra pay to soldiers employed, under the direction of the quartermaster's department, in the erection of barracks, quarters, storehouses, and hospitals; in the construction of roads and on other constant labor, for periods of not less than ten days, under the acts of March second, eighteen hundred and nineteen, and August fourth, eighteen hundred and fifty-four, including those employed as clerks at division and department headquarters; expenses of expresses to and from the frontier posts and armies in the field; of escorts to paymasters and other disbursing officers and to trains where military escorts cannot be furnished; expenses of the interment of officers killed in action, or who die when on duty in the field, or at posts on the frontiers, or at other posts and places when ordered by the Secretary of War, and of non-commissioned officers and soldiers; authorized office furniture; hire of laborers in the quartermaster's department, including the hire of interpreters, spies, and guides for the army; compensation of clerks of the officers of the quartermaster's department; compensation of forage and wagon masters, authorized by the act of July 5th, eighteen hundred and thirty-eight; for the apprehension of deserters, and the expenses incident to their pursuit; and for the following expenditures required for the several regiments of cavalry, the batteries of light artillery, and such companies of infantry as may be mounted, viz: the purchase of travelling forges, blacksmiths' and shoeing tools, horse and mule shoes and nails, iron and steel for shoeing, hire of veterinary surgeons, medicines for horses and mules, picket ropes, and for shoeing the horses of the corps named; also, generally, the proper and authorized expenses for the movements and operations of an army not expressly assigned to any other department, twenty million eight hundred and thirty-six thousand seven hundred and fifty dollars.

For the purchase of cavalry and artillery horses, five million four hundred thousand dollars.

For mileage, or the allowance made to officers of the army for the transportation of themselves and their baggage, when travelling on duty without troops, escorts, or supplies, one million two hundred and ninety-one thousand six hundred dollars.

For transportation of the army, including the baggage of the troops when moving, either by land or water; of clothing, camp and garrison equipage, from the depots at Philadelphia and New York to the several posts and army depots, and from those depots to the troops in the field; and subsistence from the places of purchase and from the places of delivery under contract, to such places as the circumstances of the service may require them to be sent; of ordnance, ordnance stores, and small arms, from foundries and armories to the arsenals, fortifications, frontier posts, and army depots; freights, wharfage, tolls, and ferriages; for the purchase and hire of horses, mules, oxen, and harness, and the purchase and repair of wagons, carts, and drays, and of ships, and other sea-going vessels, and boats required for the transportation of supplies and for garrison purposes; for drayage and cartage at the several posts; hire of teamsters; transportation of funds for the pay and other disbursing departments; the expense of sailing public transports on the various rivers, the Gulf of Mexico, and the Atlantic and Pacific; and for procuring water at such posts as, from their situation, require that it be brought from a distance; and for clearing roads, and removing obstructions from roads, harbors, and rivers, to the extent which may be required for the actual operations of the troops in the field, forty million dollars.

For hire or commutation of quarters for officers on military duty; hire of quarters for troops; of storehouses for the safe keeping of military stores; of grounds for summer cantonments; for the construction of temporary huts, hospitals, and stables; and for repairing public buildings at established posts, four million two hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars.

For heating and cooking stoves, ninety thousand dollars.

For maintenance of gunboat fleet proper, two millions one hundred and sixty thousand dollars.

For maintenance of steam rams, one hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

For contingencies of the army, five hundred thousand dollars.

For clothing for the army, camp, and garrison equipage, and for expenses of offices and arsenals, thirty-nine million three hundred and twenty-two thousand five hundred and thirteen dollars and twenty-five cents.

For constructing and extending the telegraph for military purposes, and for expenses in operating the same, five hundred thousand dollars.

For the medical and hospital department, including pay of private physicians, purchase and repair of surgical instruments, purchase of extra hospital bedding, clothing, iec, pay of male citizens as hospital attendants; the maintenance of sick and wounded soldiers, placed in private houses or hospitals; and other necessary comforts for the sick and convalescing in the various military hospitals, five million seven hundred and five thousand nine hundred and eighty-four dollars.

For contingent expenses of the Adjutant General's department at department headquarters, two thousand dollars.

For supplies, transportation, and care of prisoners of war, three million three hundred and seventy-three thousand seven hundred and twenty-eight dollars.

For armament of fortifications, one million sixty-two thousand five hundred dollars.

For the current expenses of the ordnance service, seven hundred and thirty-two thousand six hundred dollars.

For ordnance, ordnance stores, and supplies, including horse equipments for all mounted troops, seven million three hundred and eighty thousand dollars.

For the manufacture of arms at the national armory, one million eight hundred thousand dollars.

For repairs and improvements and new machinery at the national armory at Springfield, Massachusetts, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For the purchase of gunpowder and lead, one million one hundred thousand dollars.

For additions to and extension of shop room, machinery, tools, and fixtures at arsenals, five hundred thousand dollars.

For the purchase and manufacture of arms for volunteers and regulars, and ordnance and ordnance stores, thirteen million dollars.

For surveys of military defences, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For purchase and repair of instruments, ten thousand dollars.

For printing charts of lake surveys, ten thousand dollars.

For continuing the survey of the Northern and Northwestern lakes, including Lake Superior, one hundred and five thousand dollars.

For completion of Fort Clinch, Amelia Island, Florida, one hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

For secret service fund, and to reimburse the contingent fund of the army, five hundred thousand dollars.

For payment of bounty to volunteers, and to the widows and legal heirs of such as may die or be killed in the service of the United States, authorized by the fifth and sixth sections of an act entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, twenty millions of dollars, or so much thereof as may be found necessary.

For collecting, organizing, and drilling volunteers, in addition to any sums heretofore appropriated for that purpose, five millions of dollars.

For providing for the comfort of discharged soldiers who may arrive in the principal cities of the United States so disabled by disease or by wounds received in the service as to be unable to proceed to their homes, and for forwarding destitute soldiers to their homes, two millions of dollars, to be applied and expended under the direction of the President of the United States.

For enlarging, repairing, and furnishing the northwest executive building, twenty thousand dollars.

For grading and improving that part of Judiciary square, in the city of Washington, upon which the general hospital of the United States is located, four thousand dollars, to be expended under the direction of the Surgeon General.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That so much of the seventh section of the act approved third March, eighteen hundred and fifty-one, entitled "An act to found a military asylum for the relief and support of invalid, and disabled soldiers of the army of the United States," as requires that "all moneys, not exceeding two-thirds of the balance on hand, of the hospital fund and of the post fund of each military station, after deducting the necessary expenses," shall be set apart for the support of the military asylum, be and the same is hereby repealed.

SEC. 3.—And be it further enacted, That the enlisted men of the Ordnance Department now designated as master-workmen shall hereafter be designated and mustered as sergeants; those now designated as armorers, carriage-makers, and black-smiths, shall be designated and mustered as corporals; those now designated as artificers shall be designated and mustered as privates of the first class, and those now designated as laborers shall be designated and mustered as privates of the second class: Provided, That the pay, rations, and clothing now authorized by law to the respective grades of enlisted ordnance men shall not be changed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That in all cases where recruiting officers have in good faith paid the two dollars for bringing accepted recruits to the rendezvous, before receiving notice of the repeal of the regulation allowing the same, the accounts of such officer shall be allowed in settlement by the Treasury Department.

SEC. 5.—And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the clerical force of the Surgeon's General's office one clerk of class one, and one clerk of class two; and there shall be added to the clerical force of the Paymaster General's office twenty clerks of class two and twenty clerks of class one; and there shall be added to the clerical and other force of the Adjutant General's office four clerks of class two, six clerks of class one, and ten other clerks at a monthly compensation of sixty dollars each; and the Adjutant General may detail ten more non-commissioned officers of the army as clerks in his office; and the sum of fifty-one thousand two hundred dollars is hereby appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated to pay the salaries of the clerks hereby authorized.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That section five of the act "to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and section five of the act "to increase the present military establishment of the United States," approved July twenty-nine, eighteen hundred and sixty one, shall be so construed as to allow twenty-five dollars of the bounty of one hundred dollars therein provided to be paid immediately after enlistment to every soldier of the regular and volunteer forces hereafter enlisted during the continuance of the existing war, and the sum of seven millions five hundred thousand dollars is hereby appropriated for such payment.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That all the aides-de-camp appointed by authority of the act approved fifth August, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act supplementary to an act entitled an act to increase the present military establishment of the United States," approved July twenty-nine, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, shall be nominated to the Senate for its advice and consent.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be and he hereby is authorized, by and with the consent of the Senate, to appoint as many military storekeepers in the quartermaster's department of the army as the exigencies of the service may require; provided the whole number of military storekeepers in that department shall not exceed twelve.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the following sums be and the same are hereby, in like manner, appropriated, out of any money in the treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the service of the year ending the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two:

For the construction and maintenance of the gunboat fleet proper, four hundred thousand dollars.

For purchasing, construction, and maintenance of steam rams, four hundred thousand dollars.

For pay of private physicians, purchase and repair of surgical instruments, purchase of extra hospital bedding, clothing, ice, and other necessary comforts for the sick and convalescing in the various military hospitals, one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

For compensation of chaplains of hospitals, from the date of the commencement of their service to the thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, twelve thousand dollars.

For the contingent expenses of the Paymaster General's office for the year ending thirtieth of June, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, one thousand dollars.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of War be authorized to commute the army ration of coffee and sugar, for the extract of coffee, combined with milk and sugar, to be procured in the same manner and under like restrictions and guarantees as preserved meats, pickles, butter, and desiccated vegetables are procured for the navy, if he shall believe it will be conducive to the health and comfort of the army, and not more expensive to the Government than the present ration, and if it shall be acceptable to the men.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the restriction or limitation contained in the proviso to the joint resolution, approved April sixteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, transferring the superintendency of the Capitol extension from the War Department to the Department of the Interior, shall not be so construed or applied as to prevent the completion of and the payment for the painting now in progress on the wall over the stairway on the western side of the south wing agreeably to the terms of the contract made between.

General M. C. Meigs, on behalf of the Government, and E. Leutze, the artist, on the ninth day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

Approved July 5, 1862.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 14, 1862.

I.—The many evils which arise from giving furloughs to enlisted men, require that the practice shall be discontinued. Hospitals, provided with ample medical attendance, nurses, food, and clothing, are established by the Government, at great expense, not only near the scenes of active military operations, but in many of the Northern States. When it is expedient and advisable, sick and wounded patients may, under the direction of the Surgeon General, be transferred in parties, but not in individual cases, to hospitals at the North; and, as far as practicable, the men will be sent to States in which their regiments were raised, provided United States hospitals have been established there. Such regulations will be adopted at all the hospitals as will permit relatives and friends to visit the patients, and furnish them with comforts, at such hours and in such manner as will not interfere with the discipline of the hospitals and the welfare of the mass of patients. The men will thus be under the fostering care of the Government while unfit for duty; will be in position to be promptly discharged if proper, and being always under military control, will be returned to their regiments as soon as they are able to resume their duties. The unauthorized removal of soldiers from under the control of the United States authorities, by any agents whatever, subjects them to loss of pay and other penalties of desertion.

II.—At large camps, depots, or posts, where absentees arrive en route to their companies, the commanding officers will immediately set apart a particular place where the men may be quartered, in buildings, tents, or huts, as soon as they arrive, and may, without delay, receive food and clothing. Parties will be detailed to await at landing places the arrival of such soldiers, and to direct them to their quarters. They will be assigned immediately to temporary companies, composed as far as possible of men from the same regiments or brigades; and each of these companies will be forwarded in a body to the command to which they belong, according to the directions contained in paragraph I. of "General Orders, No. 72."

III.—Chaplains appointed by the President for hospitals, will be assigned by the Surgeon General to hospitals in the cities for which they were appointed. Should the breaking up of a hospital leave a chaplain supernumerary in any city, the fact will be immediately reported to the Adjutant General. Chaplains will be subordinate to the hospital surgeons. Leaves of absence will be granted them by the Surgeon General when approved by the Surgeons in charge of their hospitals.

I.—The following Acts of Congress are published for the information of all concerned:

1.—AN ACT making appropriations for the payment of the bounty authorized by the sixth section of an act entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums be, and the same are hereby, appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the objects hereinafter expressed, viz.:

For payment of the bounty to widows, children, fathers, mothers, brothers, and sisters of such volunteers as may have died or been killed, or may die or be killed, in service, authorized by the sixth section of an act entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, five millions of dollars, or so much thereof as may be found necessary: Provided, That said bounty shall be paid to the following persons, and in the order following, and to no other person, to wit: First, to the widow of such deceased soldier, if there be one. Second, if there be no widow, then to the children of such deceased soldier, share and share alike. Third, if such soldier left neither widow nor child nor children, then, and in that case, such bounty shall be paid to the following persons, provided they be residents of the United States, to wit: First, to his father; or if he shall not be living, or has abandoned the support of his family, then to the mother of such soldier; and if there be neither father nor mother as aforesaid, then such bounty shall be paid to the brothers and sisters of the deceased soldier, resident as aforesaid.

For compensation of twenty additional clerks, hereby authorized to be employed in the office of the Commissioner of Pensions, to wit: For fifteen clerks of the first class, eighteen thousand dollars; for five clerks of the second class, seven thousand dollars.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the sum of three thousand dollars, or so much thereof as may be found necessary, be, and the same is hereby, appropriated for the expenses of the committees on disloyal employees of the Government, appointed by resolution of the House of Representatives, July eight, eighteen hundred and sixty-one.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That that part of the sixth section of the act "to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, which secured to the widow, if there be one, and if not the legal heirs of such volunteers as die or may be killed in service, in addition to all arrears of pay and allowances, a bounty of one hundred dollars, shall be held to apply to those persons who have enlisted in the regular forces since the first day of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or shall enlist in the regular forces during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-two, and be paid to the heirs named in this act, and that the bounties herein provided for shall be paid out of any money appropriated for bounty to volunteers.

Approved, July 11, 1862.

2.—AN ACT to provide for additional medical officers of the volunteer service.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That there shall be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, forty surgeons and one hundred and twenty assistant surgeons of volunteers, who shall have the rank, pay, and emoluments of officers of corresponding grades in the regular army: Provided, That no one shall be appointed to any position under this act unless he shall previously have been examined by a board of medical officers to be appointed by the Secretary of War, and that vacancies in the grade of surgeon shall be filled by selection from the grade of assistant surgeon on the ground of merit only: And provided further, That this act shall continue in force only during the existence of the present rebellion.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That from and after the passage of this act brigade surgeons shall be known and designated as surgeons of volunteers, and shall be attached to the general medical staff under the direction of the Surgeon General; and hereafter such appointments for the medical service of the army shall be appointed surgeons of volunteers.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That instead of "one assistant surgeon," as provided by the second section of the act of July 22d, 1861, each regiment of volunteers in the service of the United States shall have two assistant surgeons.

Approved July 2, 1862.

II.—Under the provisions of the foregoing act approved July 2, 1862, the Brigade Surgeons already appointed are transferred, according to their present rank, to the Corps of Volunteer Surgeons, which will accordingly consist of those officers and of the forty provided for by the act.

The Surgeon General will appoint a Board to examine such persons as may be authorized by the Secretary of War to present themselves before it as candidates for the forty vacancies in the grade of Surgeon and one hundred and twenty in that of Assistant Surgeon.

Applications for the appointments will be made to the Adjutant General of the Army, in the handwriting of the applicant, accompanied by one or more testimonials from respectable persons in regard to moral character.

The Board of Examiners will determine whether the candidate be fit for the position of Surgeon or Assistant Surgeon; but no one under thirty years of age will be appointed to the former grade, or under twenty-one years, to the latter grade.

After all the vacancies have been filled in the manner here prescribed, future examinations will be for the grade of Assistant Surgeon only, and vacancies which may happen in the grade of Surgeon will be filled by the appointment of Assistant Surgeons who shall have shown themselves worthy of promotion by a faithful performance of duty and general good conduct.

The following Act of Congress is published for the information and government of all concerned:

AN ACT to prescribe an oath of office, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter every person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the Government of the United States, either in the civil, military, or naval departments of the public service, excepting the President of the United States, shall, before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emoluments thereof, take and subscribe to the following oath or affirmation: "I, A. B., do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the United States since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel, or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have neither sought nor accepted nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever under any authority or pretended authority in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, authority, power, or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto. And I do further swear (or affirm) that, to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion; and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter, so help me God;" which said oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, House of Congress, or Department to which the said office may appertain. And any person who shall falsely take the said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office and rendered incapable forever after of holding any office or place under the United States.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 17, 1862.

I.—At the General Court Martial which convened at Fort Columbus, New York Harbor, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 143, of June 24, 1862, from the War Department, and of which Colonel WILLIAM GATES, Third Artillery, is President, was arraigned and tried First Lieutenant Wesley F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, on the following charge and specifications:

CHARGE.

"Repeated neglect of duty, to the prejudice of good order and military discipline."

Specification 1st—"In this; that he, First Lieutenant Wesley F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, being in command of Company "F," Permanent Party, a part of the garrison of Fort Columbus, and the only officer present, did neglect to attend Reveille roll call of said company on the morning of June 12, 1862."

Specification 2d—"In this; that he, the said First Lieutenant Wesley F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, did neglect to drill his company on the morning of the 12th June, 1862."

Specification 3d—"In this; that he, the said First Lieutenant Wesley F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, having had his attention called to this neglect and disobedience on the 12th June, 1862, by Colonel Loomis, Fifth Infantry, commanding post, did, notwithstanding such admonition, neglect to drill his company on the morning of June 13, 1862. All this at Fort Columbus, Governor's Island, harbor of New York."

To which charge and specifications the accused pleaded as follows:

To the Specifications, "Guilty."

To the CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

FINDING OF THE COURT.

After mature deliberation, the Court finds the accused, First Lieutenant Wesley F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, "Guilty" of the charge and specifications preferred against him, and does therefore sentence him "To be reprimanded in General Orders from the War Department."

II.—The proceedings of the General Court Martial in the foregoing case have been submitted to the Secretary of War, and the following is his order thereon: "Lieutenant W. F. Miller, Seventh Infantry, is found guilty of neglect and violation of duty, deserving the serious censure of the Department."

III.—The General Court Martial of which Colonel WILLIAM GATES, Third Artillery, is President, is dissolved.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 21, 1862.

The following order has been received from the President of the United States:

Representations have been made to the President by the Ministers of various foreign powers in amity with the United States, that subjects of such powers have, during the present insurrection, been obliged or required by military authorities to take an oath of general or qualified allegiance to this Government. It is the duty of all aliens residing in the United States to submit to and obey the laws, and respect the authority of the Government. For any proceeding or conduct inconsistent with this obligation, and subversive of that authority, they may rightfully be subjected to military restraints when this may be necessary. But they cannot be required to take an oath of allegiance to this Government, because it conflicts with the duty they owe to their own sovereigns. All such obligations heretofore taken are, therefore, remitted and annulled. Military Commanders will abstain from imposing similar obligations in future, and will, in lieu thereof, adopt such other restraints of the character indicated as they shall find necessary, convenient, and effectual, for the public safety. It is further directed that whenever any order shall be made affecting the personal liberty of an alien, reports of the same, and of the causes thereof, shall be made to the War Department, for the consideration of the Department of State.

The following order is published for the information of the Army :

WAR DEPARTMENT, Washington City, D. C., July 22, 1862.

ORDER in respect to clothing for sick and wounded soldiers.

The following is a Joint Resolution of Congress, approved 12th July, 1862 :

JOINT RESOLUTION authorizing the Secretary of War to furnish extra clothing to sick, wounded, and other soldiers.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be authorized to furnish extra clothing to all sick, wounded, and other soldiers who may have lost the same by casualties of war, under such rules and regulations as the Department may prescribe, during the existence of the present rebellion.

In pursuance of the foregoing resolution, it is ordered, That the Quartermaster's Department shall issue, upon the requisition of the Medical Officer in charge of any hospital or depot of sick and wounded soldiers, such regulation clothing, necessary to their health and comfort, as may be requisite to replace that lost by them from the casualties of war. The necessity of the issue to be certified by the Surgeon, and the requisition to be approved by the Medical Director, or Medical Inspector, of the station. Such issue to be gratuitous and not charged to the soldier.

The Quartermaster General will cause blank requisitions to be furnished to the officers of the various hospitals upon their application.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 23, 1862.

I.—Descriptive lists and accounts of the pay, clothing, &c., of soldiers, will never, where it can be avoided, be given into their own hands. Such papers should be entrusted only to the officer, or non-commissioned officer, in charge of the party, with which they are.

II.—Except in such cases as that of an Ordnance Sergeant, specially assigned to duty at a post where there are no troops, and where he cannot be regularly mustered, no soldier must be paid on a mere descriptive list and account of pay and clothing, but only upon the muster and pay roll of his company, detachment or party, or on that of a general hospital, if he be there sick or on duty. No payments will, therefore, be made to enlisted men on furlough.

III.—The giving in duplicate, by any officer of the Army, of certificates of discharge, or final statements, is peremptorily forbidden; (see paragraph 165 of the Revised Regulations.) Not even if such papers are lost, or destroyed, is any officer of the Army authorized to replace them.

IV.—The proper course to be pursued in such cases will be found indicated in paragraph 1341 of the Revised Regulations, and is substantially as follows :

Application for payment in these cases must be made through the Paymaster General of the Army, to the Second Comptroller of the Treasury. The application must be accompanied by the soldier's statement, under oath, that his final statements and certificate of discharge are lost, destroyed, or have never been received by him ; that he has made diligent search or application for them ; that they cannot be recovered or obtained ; and that he has not received pay on them, nor assigned them to any other person.

All the circumstances of the case must be fully set forth in the affidavit, and this again must be accompanied by all the evidence, in corroboration of his statement, which the soldier can procure.

On receipt of this, the Second Comptroller will audit the account, and, if satisfied with the evidence, will order payment to the soldier of the amount found justly due to him.

V.—The attention of all officers of the Army—and particularly of all company, regimental, and post commanders, surgeons in charge of general hospitals and paymasters, and of all soldiers discharged from the service, who, from the want of their final statements and certificates of discharge are unable to procure a settlement of their accounts with the Government—is specially directed to this order.

VI.—Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing Order, to the Companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment. Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence of the former.

VII.—The numbers prefixed to the names of certain officers, in the above list of appointments, indicate their rank among those of the same date.

VIII.—Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and, in case of acceptance, the birth-place of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, and his full name, correctly written, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant General.

IX.—With the exception of those detached from their regiments on special duty, or unable from some other valid cause to comply with the order, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations, without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments. And those who deem themselves included in the exception just above made, will immediately submit a statement of their case, through the proper channel, to this office, for further consideration.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 25, 1862.

1.—The recruiting detail for each volunteer regiment in the field will hereafter consist of two commissioned officers from the regiment and one non-commissioned officer or private from each company. Paragraph III. of "General Orders," No. 105, of 1861, is amended accordingly. Regimental commanders will at once select the additional men herein authorized; and the order for detail will, as before, be given by the Commanders of Departments or Corps d'Armée.

2.—One commissioned officer of the detail will remain constantly at the general recruiting depot to receive the recruits when sent from the rendezvous, and to exercise care and control over them after their arrival until they are ordered to their regiments.

3.—Recruits for regiments now in the field will be permitted to select any company of the regiment they may prefer. Should the company thus selected be full when they join it, they will be allowed to select another.

4.—All men who desire, singly or by squads, to join any particular regiment or company in the field, are hereby authorized to present themselves to any recruiting officer, when they will be enrolled and forwarded at once to the general depot for the State or district, there to be duly mustered, and to receive the bounty allowed by law. In such cases enlistment papers and descriptive lists will be forwarded as directed in "General Orders" No. 105, of 1861, from this office.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, July 25, 1862.

I.—The following order of the President of the United States communicates information of the death of ex-President Martin Van Buren :

WASHINGTON, July 25, 1862.

The President, with deep regret, announces to the people of the United States, the decease, at Kinderhook, New York, on the 24th instant, of his honored predecessor, Martin Van Buren.

This event will occasion mourning in the nation for the loss of a citizen and a public servant whose memory will be gratefully cherished. Although it has occurred at a time when his country is afflicted with division and civil war, the grief of his patriotic friends will measurably be assuaged by the consciousness that, while suffering with disease and seeing his end approaching, his prayers were for the restoration of the authority of the government of which he had been the head, and for peace and good will among his fellow-citizens.

As a mark of respect for his memory, it is ordered that the Executive Mansion and the several Executive Departments, except those of the War and the Navy, be immediately placed in mourning, and all business be suspended during to-morrow.

It is further ordered, that the War and Navy Departments cause suitable military and naval honors to be paid on this occasion to the memory of the illustrious dead.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

II.—On the day after the receipt of this order, the troops will be paraded at 10 o'clock A. M., and the order read to them. The national flag will be displayed at half-staff. At dawn of day, thirteen guns will be fired, and afterwards, at intervals of thirty minutes between rising and setting sun, a single gun; and at the close of the day a national salute of thirty-four guns. The officers of the army will wear crape on the left arm and on their swords, and the colors of the several regiments will be put in mourning for the period of six months.

I.—PUBLIC RESOLUTION.—No. 43.

A RESOLUTION to provide for the presentation of "medals of honor" to the enlisted men of the army and volunteer forces who have distinguished or may distinguish themselves in battle during the present rebellion.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the President of the United States be, and he is hereby, authorized to cause two thousand "medals of honor" to be prepared with suitable emblematic devices, and to direct that the same be presented, in the name of Congress, to such non-commissioned officers and privates as shall most distinguish themselves by their gallantry in action, and other soldier-like qualities, during the present insurrection. And that the sum of ten thousand dollars be, and the same is hereby, appropriated out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the purpose of carrying this Resolution into effect.

Approved July 12, 1862.

II.—PUBLIC—No. 137.

AN ACT to grant pensions.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That if any officer, non-commissioned officer, musician, or private of the army, including regulars, volunteers, and militia, or any officer, warrant or petty officer, musician, seaman, ordinary seaman, flotillaman, marine, clerk, landsman, pilot, or other person in the navy or marine corps, has been, since the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or shall hereafter be, disabled by reason of any wound received or disease contracted while in the service of the United States, and in the line of duty, he shall, upon making due proof of the fact according to such forms and regulations as are or may be provided by or in pursuance of law, be placed upon the list of invalid pensions of the United States, and be entitled to receive, for the highest rate of disability, such pension as is hereinafter provided in such cases, and for an inferior disability an amount proportionate to the highest disability, to commence as hereinafter provided, and continue during the existence of such disability. The pension for a total disability for officers, non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates employed in the military service of the United States, whether, regulars, volunteers, or militia, and in the marine corps, shall be as follows, viz.: Lieutenant colonel, and all officers of a higher rank, thirty dollars per month; major, twenty-five dollars per month; captain, twenty dollars per month; first lieutenant seventeen dollars per month; second lieutenant, fifteen dollars per month; and non-commissioned officers, musicians, and privates, eight dollars per month. The pension for total disability for officers, warrant, or petty officers, and others employed in the naval service of the United States, shall be as follows, viz: Captain, commander, surgeon, paymaster, and chief engineer, respectively ranking with commander by law, lieutenant commanding, and master commanding, thirty dollars per month; lieutenant surgeon, paymaster, and chief engineer, respectively, ranking with lieutenant by law, and passed assistant surgeon, twenty-five dollars per month; professor of mathematics, master, assistant surgeon, assistant paymaster, and chaplain, twenty dollars per month; first assistant engineers and pilots, fifteen dollars per month; passed midshipman, midshipman, captain's and paymaster's clerk, second and third assistant engineer, master's mate, and all warrant officers, ten dollars per month; all petty officers, and all other persons before named employed in the naval service, eight dollars per month; and all commissioned officers of either service, shall receive such and only such pension as is herein provided for the rank in which they hold commissions.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any officer or other person named in the first section of this act has died since the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or shall hereafter die, by reason of any wound received or disease contracted while in the service of the United States, and in the line of duty, his widow, or, if there be no widow, his child or children under sixteen years of age, shall be entitled to receive the same pension as the husband or father would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled, to commence from the death of the husband or father, and to continue to the widow during her widowhood, or to the child or children until they severally attain the age of sixteen years and no longer.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That where any officer or other person named in the first section of this act shall have died subsequently to the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or shall hereafter die, by reason of any wound received or disease contracted while in the service of the United States, and in the line of duty, and has not left and shall not leave a widow nor legitimate child, but has left or shall leave a mother who was dependent upon him for support, in whole or in part, the mother shall be entitled to receive the same pension as such officer or other person would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled; which pension shall commence from the death of the officer or other person dying as aforesaid: Provided, however, That if such mother shall herself be in receipt of a pension as a widow, in virtue of the provisions of the second section of this act, in that case no pension or allowance shall be granted to her on account of her son, unless she gives up the other pension or allowance: And provided, further, That the pension given to a mother on account of her son shall terminate on her re-marriage: And provided, further, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to entitle the mother of an officer or other person dying, as aforesaid, to more than one pension at the same time under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That where any officer or other person named in the first section of this act shall have died subsequently to the fourth day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, or shall hereafter die, by reason of any wound received or disease contracted while in the service of the United States and in the line of duty, and has not left or shall not leave a widow, nor legitimate child, nor mother, but has left or may leave an orphan sister or sisters, under sixteen years of age, who were dependent upon him for support, in whole or in part, such sister or sisters shall be entitled to receive the same pension as such officer or other person would have been entitled to had he been totally disabled; which pension to said orphans shall commence from the death of the officer or other person dying as aforesaid, and shall continue to the said orphans until they severally arrive at the age of sixteen years, and no longer: Provided, however, That nothing herein shall be so construed as to entitle said orphans to more than one pension at the same time, under the provisions of this act: And provided, further, That no moneys shall be paid to the widow, or children, or any heirs of any deceased soldier on account of bounty, back pay or pension, who have in any way been engaged in or who have aided or abetted the existing rebellion in the United States; but the right of such disloyal widow or children, heir or heirs of such soldier, shall be vested in the loyal heir or heirs of the deceased, if any there be.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That pensions which may be granted, in pursuance of the provisions of this act, to persons who may have been, or shall be, employed in the military or naval service of the United States, shall commence on the day of the discharge of such persons in all cases in which the application for such provisions is filed within one year after the date of said discharge; and in cases in which the application is not filed during said year, pensions granted to persons employed as aforesaid shall commence on the day of the filing of the application.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That the fees of agents and attorneys, for making out and causing to be executed the papers necessary to establish a claim for a pension, bounty, and other allowance, before the Pension Office under this act, shall not exceed the following rates: For making out and causing to be duly executed a declaration by the applicant, with the necessary affidavits, and forwarding the same to the Pension Office, with the requisite correspondence, five dollars. In cases wherein additional testimony is required, by the Commissioner of Pensions, for each affidavit so required and executed and forwarded, (except the affidavits of surgeons, for which such agents and attorneys shall not be entitled to any fees,) one dollar and fifty cents.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That any agent or attorney who shall, directly or indirectly demand or receive any greater compensation for his services under this act than is prescribed in the preceding section of this act, or who shall contract or agree to prosecute any claim for a pension, bounty, or other allowance under this act on the condition that he shall receive a per centum upon, or any portion of the amount of such claim, or who shall wrongfully withhold from a pensioner or other claimant the whole or any part of the pension or claim allowed and due to such pensioner or claimant, shall be deemed guilty of a high misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall, for every such offence, be fined not exceeding three hundred dollars, or imprisoned at hard labor not exceeding two years, or both, according to the circumstances and aggravations of the offence.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Pensions be, and he is hereby, empowered to appoint, at his discretion, civil surgeons, to make the biennial examinations of pensioners which are or may be required to be made by law, and to examine applicants for invalid pensions, where he shall deem an examination by a surgeon to be appointed by him necessary; and the fees for each of such examinations, and the requisite certificate thereof, shall be one dollar and fifty cents, which fees shall be paid to the surgeon by the person examined, for which he shall take a receipt, and forward the same to the Pension Office; and upon the allowance of the claim of the person examined, the Commissioner of pensioners shall furnish to such person an order on the pension agent of his State for the amount of the surgeon's fees.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the Commissioner of Pensions, on application made to him in person or by letter by any claimants or applicants for pension, bounty, or other allowance required by law to be adjusted and paid by the Pension Office, shall furnish such claimants, free of all expense or charge to them, all such printed instructions and forms as may be necessary in establishing and obtaining said claim; and in case such claim is prosecuted by an agent or attorney of such claimant or applicant, on the issue of a certificate of pension or the granting of a bounty or allowance, the Commissioner of Pensions shall forthwith notify the applicant or claimant that such certificate has been issued or allowance made, and the amount thereof.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That the pilots, engineers, sailors, and crews upon the gunboats and war vessels of the United States, who have not been regularly mustered into the service of the United States, shall be entitled to the same bounty allowed to persons of corresponding rank in the naval service, provided they continue in service till the close of the present war; and all persons serving as aforesaid, who have been or may be wounded or incapacitated for service, shall be entitled to receive for such disability the pension allowed by the provisions of this act, to those of like rank, and each and every such person shall receive pay according to corresponding rank in the naval service: Provided, That no person receiving pension or bounty under the provisions of this act shall receive either pension or bounty for any other service in the present war.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the widows and heirs of all persons described in the last preceding section who have been or may be employed as aforesaid, or who have been or may be killed in battle, or of those who have died or shall die of wounds received while so employed, shall be paid the bounty and pension allowed by the provisions of this act, according to rank, as provided in the last preceding section.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the Secretary of the Interior be and he is hereby authorized to appoint a special agent for the Pension Office, to assist in the detection of frauds against the pension laws, to cause persons committing such frauds to be prosecuted, and to discharge such other duties as said Secretary may require him to perform; which said agent shall receive for his services an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars, and his actual traveling expenses, incurred in the discharge of his duties, shall be paid by the Government.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved July 14, 1862.

III.—PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 61.

A RESOLUTION to regulate the compensation for paying pensions.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That agents for paying pensions shall receive two per centum on all disbursements made by them to pensioners of the United States: Provided, That the aggregate compensation to any one agent, paying both army and navy pensions, shall not exceed two thousand dollars per annum.

Approved July 17, 1862.

IV.—PUBLIC—No. 148.

AN ACT to prevent members of Congress and officers of the Government of the United States from taking consideration for procuring contracts, office, or place, from the United States, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That any member of Congress or any officer of the Government of the United States who shall, directly or indirectly, take, receive, or agree to receive, any money, property, or other valuable consideration whatsoever, from any person or persons for procuring, or aiding to procure, any contract, office, or place, from the Government of the United States or any Department thereof, or from any officer of the United States, for any person or persons whatsoever, or for giving any such contract, office, or place to any person whomsoever, and the person or persons who shall directly or indirectly offer or agree to give, or give, or bestow any money, property, or other valuable consideration whatsoever, or the procuring or aiding to procure any contract, office, or place, as aforesaid, and any member of Congress who shall direetly or indirectly take, receive, or agree to receive, any money, property, or other valuable consideration whatsoever after his election as such member, for his attention to, services, action, vote, or decision on any question, matter, cause, or proceeding which may then be pending, or may by law or under the Constitution of the United States be brought before him in his official capacity, or in his place of trust and profit as such member of Congress, shall, for every such offence, be liable to indictment as for a misdemeanor in any court of the United States having jurisdiction thereof, and on conviction thereof shall pay a fine of not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and suffer imprisonment in the penitentiary not exceeding two years, at the discretion of the court trying the same; and any such contract or agreement, as aforesaid, may, at the option of the President of the United States, be declared absolutely null and void; and any member of Congress or officer of the United States convicted, as aforesaid, shall, moreover, be disqualified from holding any office of honor, profit, or trust under the Government of the United States.

Approved July 16, 1862.

VI.—PUBLIC—No. 159.

AN ACT prohibiting the confinement of persons in the military service of the United States in the penitentiary of the District of Columbia, except as a punishment for certain crimes, and to discharge therefrom certain convicts by sentence of courts-martial, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter no person in the military service of the United States, convicted and sentenced by a court-martial, shall be punished by confinement in the penitentiary of the District of Columbia, unless the offence of which such person may be convicted would by some statute of the United States or at common law, as the same exists in the said District, subject such convict to said punishment.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That all such persons in the military service, as aforesaid, who have heretofore been, or may hereafter be, convicted and sentenced by a court-martial for any offence which, if tried before the criminal court of said District, would not subject such person to imprisonment in said penitentiary, and who are now or may hereafter be confined therein, shall be discharged from said imprisonment, upon such terms and conditions of further punishment as the President of the United States may, in his discretion, impose as a commutation of said sentence.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That upon the application of any citizen of the United States, supported by his oath, alleging that a person or persons in the military service, as aforesaid, are confined in said penitentiary under the sentence of a court-martial for any offence not punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary by the authority of the criminal court aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the judge of said court, or, in case of his absence or inability, of one of the judges of the circuit court of said District, if upon an inspection of the record of proceedings of said court-martial, he shall find the facts to be as alleged in said application, immediately to issue the writ of habeas corpus to bring before him the said convict; and if, upon an investigation of the case, it shall be the opinion of such judge that the case of such convict is within the provisions of the previous sections of this act, he shall order such convict to be confined in the common jail of said District, until the decision of the President of the United States as to the commutation aforesaid shall be filed in said court, and then such convict shall be disposed of and suffer such punishment as by said commutation of his said sentence may be imposed.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That no person convicted upon the decision of a court-martial shall be confined in any penitentiary in the United States, except under the conditions of this act.

Approved July 16, 1862.

VII.—BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

A Proclamation.

In pursuance of the sixth section of the act of Congress entitled "An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes, approved July 17, 1862, and which act, and the joint resolution explanatory thereof, are herewith published, I, Abraham Lincoln, President of the United States, do hereby proclaim to and warn all persons within the contemplation of said sixth section to cease participating in, aiding, countenancing, or abetting the existing rebellion, or any rebellion, against the Government of the United States, and to return to their proper allegiance to the United States, on pain of the forfeitures and seizures as within and by said sixth section provided.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-fifth day of July, in the year of [L. S.] our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the Independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

By the President:

WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

PUBLIC—No. 160.

AN ACT to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That every person who shall hereafter commit the crime of treason against the United States, and shall be adjudged guilty thereof, shall suffer death, and all his slaves, if any, shall be declared and made free; or, at the discretion of the court, he shall be imprisoned for not less than five years and fined not less than ten thousand dollars, and all his slaves, if any, shall be declared and made free; said fine shall be levied and collected on any or all of the property, real and personal, excluding slaves, of which the said person so convicted was the owner at the time of committing the said crime, any sale or conveyance to the contrary notwithstanding.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That if any person shall hereafter incite, set on foot, assist, or engage in any rebellion or insurrection against the authority of the United States, or the laws thereof, or shall give aid or comfort thereto, or shall engage in, or give aid and comfort to, any such existing rebellion or insurrection, and be convicted thereof, such person shall be punished by imprisonment for a period not exceeding ten years, or by a fine not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and by the liberation of all his slaves, if any he have; or by both of said punishments, at the discretion of the court.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That every person guilty of either of the offences described in this act shall be forever incapable and disqualified to hold any office under the United States.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That this act shall not be construed in any way to affect or alter the prosecution, conviction, or punishment of any person or persons guilty of treason against the United States before the passage of this act, unless such person is convicted under this act.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That, to insure the speedy termination of the present rebellion, it shall be the duty of the President of the United States to cause the seizure of all the estate and property, money, stocks, credits and effects of the persons hereinafter named in this section, and to apply and use the same and the proceeds thereof for the support of the Army of the United States; that is to say:

First. Of any person hereafter acting as an officer of the army or navy of the rebels in arms against the Government of the United States.

Secondly. Of any person hereafter acting as President, Vice President, member of Congress, judge of any court, cabinet officer, foreign minister, commissioner or consul of the so-called Confederate States of America.

Thirdly. Of any person acting as Governor of a State, member of a convention or legislature, or judge of any court of any of the so-called Confederate States of America.

Fourthly. Of any person who, having held an office of honor, trust, or profit in the United States, shall hereafter hold an office in the so-called Confederate States of America.

Fifthly. Of any person hereafter holding any office or agency under the government of the so-called Confederate States of America, or under any of the several States of the said Confederacy, or the laws thereof, whether such office or agency be national, state, or municipal in its name or character: Provided, That the persons thirdly, fourthly, and fifthly above described shall have accepted their appointment or election since the date of the pretended ordinance of secession of the State, or shall have taken an oath of allegiance to, or to support the Constitution of, the so-called Confederate States.

Sixthly. Of any person who, owning property in any loyal State or Territory of the United States, or in the District of Columbia, shall hereafter assist and give aid and comfort to such rebellion; and all sales, transfers, or conveyances of any such property shall be null and void; and it shall be a sufficient bar to any suit brought by such person for the possession or use of such property, or any of it, to allege and prove that he is one of the persons described in this section.

SEC. 6.—And be it further enacted, That if any person within any State or Territory of the United States, other than those named as aforesaid, after the passage of this act, being engaged in armed rebellion against the Government of the United States, or aiding or abetting such rebellion, shall not, within sixty days after public warning and proclamation duly given and made by the President of the United States, cease to aid, countenance, and abet such rebellion, and return to his allegiance to the United States, all the estate and property, moneys, stocks, and credits of such person shall be liable to seizure as aforesaid, and it shall be the duty of the President to seize and use them as aforesaid or the proceeds thereof. And all sales, transfers, or conveyances of any such property after the expiration of the said sixty days from the date of such warning and proclamation shall be null and void; and it shall be a sufficient bar to any suit brought by such person for the possession or the use of such property, or any of it, to allege and prove that he is one of the persons described in this section.

SEC. 7.—And be it further enacted, That to secure the condemnation and sale of any of such property, after the same shall have been seized, so that it may be made available for the purpose aforesaid, proceedings in rem shall be instituted in the name of the United States in any district court thereof, or in any Territorial court, or in the United States district court for the District of Columbia, within which the property above described, or any part thereof, may be found, or into which the same, if movable, may first be brought, which proceedings shall conform as nearly as may be to proceedings in admiralty or revenue cases; and if said property, whether real or personal, shall be found to have belonged to a person engaged in rebellion, or who has given aid or comfort thereto, the same shall be condemned as enemies' property and shall become the property of the United States, and may be disposed of as the court shall decree, and the proceeds thereof paid into the Treasury of the United States for the purposes aforesaid.

SEC. 8.—And be it further enacted, That the several courts aforesaid shall have power to make such orders, establish such forms of decree and sale, and direct such deeds and conveyances to be executed and delivered by the marshals thereof where real estate shall be the subject of sale, as shall fitly and efficiently effect the purposes of this act, and vest in the purchasers of such property good and valid titles thereto. And the said courts shall have power to allow such fees and charges of their officers as shall be reasonable and proper in the premises.

SEC. 9.—And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the Government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army; and all slaves captured from such persons or deserted by them and coming under the control of the Government of the United States, and all slaves of such persons found on [or] being within any place occupied by rebel forces and afterwards occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

SEC. 10.—And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State, Territory, or the District of Columbia, from any other State, shall be delivered up, or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime, or some offense against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being dismissed from the service.

SEC. 11.—And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States is authorized to employ as many persons of African descent as he may deem necessary and proper for the suppression of this rebellion, and for this purpose he may organize and use them in such manner as he may judge best for the public welfare.

SEC. 12.—And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States is hereby authorized to make provision for the transportation, colonization, and settlement, in some tropical country beyond the limits of the United States, of such persons of the African race, made free by the provisions of this act, as may be willing to emigrate, having first obtained the consent of the government of said country to their protection and settlement within the same, with all the rights and privileges of freemen.

SEC. 13.—And be it further enacted, That the President is hereby authorized, at any time hereafter, by proclamation, to extend to persons who may have participated in the existing rebellion in any State or part thereof, pardon and amnesty, with such exceptions and at such time and on such conditions as he may deem expedient for the public welfare.

SEC. 14.—And be it further enacted, That the courts of the United States shall have full power to institute proceedings, make orders and decrees, issue process, and do all other things necessary to carry this act into effect.

Approved July 17, 1862.

VIII.—PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 54.

JOINT RESOLUTION explanatory of "An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes."

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the provisions of the third clause of the fifth section of "An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate the property of rebels, and for other purposes," shall be so construed as not to apply to any act or acts done prior to the passage thereof, nor to include any member of a State legislature or judge of any State court who has not, in accepting or entering upon his office, taken an oath to support the constitution of the so-called "Confederate States of America;" nor shall any punishment or proceedings under said act be so construed as to work a forfeiture of the real estate of the offender beyond his natural life.

Approved July 17, 1862.

IX.—PUBLIC—No. 164.

AN ACT to provide for the more prompt settlement of the accounts of disbursing officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That from and after the passage of this act any officer or agent of the United States who shall receive public money which he is not authorized to retain as salary, pay, or emolument, shall render his accounts monthly, instead of quarterly, as heretofore; and such accounts, with the vouchers necessary to the correct and prompt settlement thereof, shall be rendered direct to the proper accounting officer of the Treasury, and be mailed or otherwise forwarded to its proper address within ten days after the expiration of each successive month. And in case of the non-receipt at the Treasury of any accounts within a reasonable and proper time thereafter, the officer whose accounts are in default shall be required to furnish satisfactory evidence of having complied with the provisions of this act; and for any default on his part the delinquent officer shall be deemed a defaulter, and be subject to all the penalties prescribed by the sixteenth section of the act of August sixth, eighteen hundred and forty-six, "to provide for the better organization of the Treasury, and for the collection, safe-keeping, transfer, and disbursement of the public revenue:" Provided, That the Secretary of the Treasury may, if in his opinion the circumstances of the case justify and require it, extend the time hereinbefore prescribed for the rendition of accounts: And provided, further, That nothing herein contained shall be construed to restrain the heads of any of the departments from requiring such other returns or reports from the officer or agent subject to the control of such heads of departments as the public interest may require.

Approved, July 17, 1862.

X.—PUBLIC—No. 165.

AN ACT to define the pay and emoluments of certain officers of the army, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That officers of the army entitled to forage for horses shall not be allowed to commute it, but may draw forage in kind for each horse actually kept by them, when, and at the place where, they are on duty, not exceeding the number authorized by law: Provided, however, That when forage in kind cannot be furnished by the proper department, then, and in all such cases, officers entitled to forage may commute the same according to existing regulations: And provided, further, That officers of the army and of volunteers assigned to duty which requires them to be mounted, shall, during the time they are employed on such duty, receive the pay, emoluments, and allowances of cavalry officers of the same grade respectively.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That major generals shall be entitled to draw forage in kind for five horses; brigadier generals for four horses; colonels, lieutenant colonels, and majors, for two horses; captains and lieutenants of cavalry and artillery, or having the cavalry allowance, for two horses each; and chaplains, for one horse only.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That whenever an officer of the army shall employ a soldier as his servant he shall, for each and every month during which said soldier shall be so employed, deduct from his own monthly pay the full amount paid to or expended by the government per month on account of said soldier; and every officer of the army who shall fail to make such deduction shall, on conviction thereof before a general court-martial, be cashiered.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the first section of the act approved August six, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act to increase the pay of privates in the regular army and in the volunteers in the service of the United States, and for other purposes," shall not be so construed, after the passage of this act, as to increase the emoluments of the commissioned officers of the army. And the eighth section of the act of twenty-second July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act to authorize the employment of volunteers to aid in enforcing the laws and protecting public property," shall be so construed as to give to quartermaster sergeants the same compensation as to regimental commissary sergeants.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That so much of the aforesaid act approved twenty-second July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as authorizes each regiment of volunteers in the United States service to have twenty-four musicians for a band, and fixes the compensation of the leader of the band, be, and the same is hereby, repealed; and the men composing such bands shall be mustered out of the service within thirty days after the passage of this act.

[The provisions of this section will be forthwith carried into effect. But in mustering the regimental bands out of service, all enlisted men who have been detached from companies to serve in them, but were not originally mustered in as members of the bands, will be returned to duty in their companies. Not having been enlisted as musicians, they are not entitled to discharge as such. With their own consent, musicians of regimental bands, instead of being discharged, may be transferred on their present enlistment, to form the brigade bands authorized by section 6, of this act, at the discretion of the brigade commanders.]

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That each brigade in the volunteer service may have sixteen musicians as a band, who shall receive the pay and allowances now provided by law for regimental bands, except the leader of the band, who shall receive forty-five dollars per month with the emoluments and allowances of a quartermaster sergeant.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That in lieu of the present rate of mileage allowed to officers of the Army when travelling on public duty, where transportation in kind is not furnished to them by the government, not more than six cents per mile shall hereafter be allowed, unless where an officer is ordered from a station east of the Rocky mountains to one west of the same mountains, or vice versa, when ten cents per mile shall be allowed to him; and no officer of the Army or Navy of the United States shall be paid mileage except for travel actually performed at his own expense, and in obedience to orders.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That so much of section 9, of the aforesaid act, approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and of section seven of the "Act providing for the better organization of the military establishment," approved August third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as defines the qualifications of chaplains in the Army and volunteers, shall hereafter be construed to read as follows: That no person shall be appointed a chaplain in the United States Army who is not a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination, and who does not present testimonials of his present good standing as such minister, with a recommendation for his appointment as an Army chaplain from some authorized ecclesiastical body, or not less than five accredited ministers belonging to said religious denomination.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That hereafter the compensation of all chaplains in the regular or volunteer service or Army hospitals, shall be one hundred dollars per month and two rations a day, when on duty; and the chaplains of the permanent hospitals appointed under the authority of the second section of the act approved May twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, shall be nominated to the Senate for its advice and consent, and they shall in all respects fill the requirements of the preceding section of this act, relative to the appointment of chaplains in the Army and volunteers, and the appointments of chaplains to Army hospitals heretofore made by the President, are hereby confirmed, and it is hereby made the duty of each officer commanding a district or post containing hospitals, or a brigade of troops, within thirty days after the reception of the order promulgating this act, to inquire into the fitness, efficiency, and qualifications of the chaplains of hospitals or regiments, and to muster out of service such chaplains as were not appointed in conformity with the requirements of this act, and who have not faithfully discharged the duties of chaplains during the time they have been engaged as such. Chaplains employed at the military posts called "chaplain posts" shall be required to reside at the posts, and all chaplains in the United States service shall be subject to such rules in relation to leave of absence from duty, as are prescribed for commissioned officers of the United States Army stationed at such posts.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That so much of the fifth section of the act approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as allows forty cents per day for the use and risk of the horses of company officers of cavalry, and the tenth section of the aforesaid act, approved August three, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, be, and the same are hereby, repealed.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That whenever an officer shall be put under arrest, except at remote military posts or stations, it shall be the duty of the officer by whose orders he is arrested to see that a copy of the charges on which he has been arrested and is to be tried shall be served upon him within eight days thereafter, and that he shall be brought to trial within ten days thereafter, unless the necessities of the service prevent such trial; and then he shall be brought to trial within thirty days after the expiration of the said ten days, or the arrest shall cease: Provided, That if the copy of the charges be not served upon the arrested officer, as herein provided, the arrest shall cease; but officers released from arrest under the provisions of this section may be tried whenever the exigencies of the service will permit, within twelve months after such release from arrest: And provided, further, That the provisions of this section shall apply to all persons now under arrest and awaiting trial.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That whenever the name of any officer of the army or marine corps, now in the service, or who may hereafter be in the service of the United States, shall have been borne on the army register or naval register, as the case may be, forty-five years, or he shall be of the age of sixty-two years, it shall be in the discretion of the President to retire him from active service and direct his name to be entered on the retired list of officers of the grade to which he belonged at the time of such retirement; and the President is hereby authorized to assign any officer retired under this section or the act of August third, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, to any appropriate duty; and such officer thus assigned, shall receive the full pay and emoluments of his grade, while so assigned and employed.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That all contracts made for, or orders given for the purchase of, goods or supplies by any department of the government shall be promptly reported to Congress by the proper head of such department if Congress shall at the time be in session, and if not in session, said reports shall be made at the commencement of the next ensuing session.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That no contract or order, or any interest therein, shall be transferred by the party or parties to whom such contract or order may be given, to any other party or parties, and that any such transfer shall cause the annulment of the contract or order transferred, so far as the United States are concerned: Provided, That all rights of action are hereby reserved to the United States for any breach of such contract by the contracting party or parties.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That every person who shall furnish supplies of any kind to the army or navy shall be required to mark and distinguish the same, with the name or names of the contractors so furnishing said supplies, in such manner as the Secretary of War and the Secretary of the Navy may respectively direct, and no supplies of any kind shall be received unless so marked and distinguished.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That whenever any contractor for subsistence, clothing, arms, ammunition, munitions of war, and for every description of supplies, for the army or navy of the United States, shall be found guilty by a court-martial of fraud or wilful neglect of duty, he shall be punished by fine, imprisonment, or such other punishment as the court-martial shall adjudge; and any person who shall contract to furnish supplies of any kind or description for the army or navy, he shall be deemed and taken as a part of the land or naval forces of the United States, for which he shall contract to furnish said supplies, and be subject to the rules and regulations for the government of the land and naval forces of the United States.

SEC. 17. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States be, and hereby is, authorized and requested to dismiss and discharge from the military service either in the army, navy, marine corps, or volunteer force, in the United States service, any officer for any cause which, in his judgment, either renders such officer unsuitable for, or whose dismissal would promote, the public service.

SEC. 18. And be it further enacted, That the President of the United States shall have power whenever in his opinion it shall be expedient, to purchase cemetery grounds, and cause them to be securely enclosed, to be used as a national cemetery for the soldiers who shall die in the service of the country.

SEC. 19. And be it further enacted, That so much of the act approved the fifth of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, entitled "An act supplementary to an act entitled 'An act to increase the present military establishment of the United States,'" approved the twenty-ninth of July, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as authorizes the appointment of additional aides-de-camp, be, and the same is hereby, repealed. But this repeal shall not be construed so as to deprive those persons already appointed, in strict conformity with said act of the fifth of August, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, from holding their offices in the same manner as if it had not been repealed.

SEC. 20. And be it further enacted, That the different regiments and independent companies heretofore mustered into the service of the United States as volunteer engineers, pioneers, or sappers and miners, under the orders of the President or Secretary of War, or by authority of the commanding general of any military Department of the United States, or which having been mustered into the service as infantry, shall have been reorganized and employed as engineers, pioneers, or sappers and miners, shall be, and the same are hereby recognized and accepted as volunteer engineers, on the same footing, in all respects in regard to their organization, pay and emoluments, as the corps of engineers of the regular army of the United States, and they shall be paid for their services, already performed, as is now provided by law for the payment of officers, non-commissioned officers, and privates of the engineer corps of the regular army.

SEC. 21. And be it further enacted, That any alien of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who has enlisted or shall enlist in the armies of the United States, either the regular or the volunteer forces, and has been or shall be hereafter honorably discharged, may be admitted to become a citizen of the United States, upon his petition, without any previous declaration of his intention to become a citizen of the United States, and that he shall not be required to prove more than one year's residence within the United States previous to his application to become such citizen; and that the court admitting such alien shall, in addition to such proof of residence and good moral character as is now provided by law, be satisfied by competent proof of such person having been honorably discharged from the service of the United States as aforesaid.

SEC. 22. And be it further enacted, That there shall be added to the Adjutant General's department, by regular promotion of its present officers, one colonel, two lieutenant Colonels, and nine majors; and that the grade of captain in said department shall thereafter be abolished, and all vacancies occurring in the grade of major shall be filled by selection from among the captains of the army.

XI.—PUBLIC—No. 166.

AN ACT to amend the act calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrection, and repel invasions, approved February twenty-eighth, seventeen hundred and ninety-five, and the acts amendatory thereof, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That whenever the President of the United States shall call forth the militia of the States, to be employed in the service of the United States, he may specify in his call the period for which such service will be required, not exceeding nine months; and the militia so called shall be mustered in and continue to serve for and during the term so specified, unless sooner discharged by command of the President. If by reason of defects in existing laws, or in the execution of them, in the several States, or any of them, it shall be found necessary to provide for enrolling the militia and otherwise putting this act into execution, the President is authorized in such cases to make all necessary rules and regulations; and the enrollment of the militia shall in all cases include all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, and shall be apportioned among the States according to representative population.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the militia, when so called into service, shall be organized in the mode prescribed by law for volunteers.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized, in addition to the volunteer forces which he is now authorized by law to raise, to accept the services of any number of volunteers, not exceeding one hundred thousand, as infantry, for a period of nine months unless sooner discharged. And every soldier who shall enlist under the provisions of this section shall receive his first month's pay, and also twenty-five dollars as bounty, upon the mustering of his company or regiment into the service of the United States. And all provisions of law relating to volunteers enlisted in the service of the United States for three years, or during the war, except in relation to bounty, shall be, and the same are, extended to, and are hereby declared to embrace, the volunteers to be raised under the provisions of this section.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That for the purpose of filling up the regiments of Infantry now in the United States service, the President be, and he hereby is, authorized to accept the services of volunteers in such numbers as may be presented for that purpose, for twelve months, if not sooner discharged. And such volunteers, when mustered into the service, shall be in all respects upon a footing with similar troops in the United States service, except as to service bounty, which shall be fifty dollars, one half of which to be paid upon their joining their regiments, and the other half at the expiration of their enlistment.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the President shall appoint, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, a judge advocate general, with the rank, pay, and emoluments of a colonel of cavalry, to whose office shall be returned, for revision, the records and proceedings of all courts martial and military commissions, and where a record shall be kept of all proceedings had thereupon. And no sentence of death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, shall be carried into execution until the same shall have been approved by the President.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That there may be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, for each army in the field, a judge advocate, with the rank, pay, and emoluments, each, of a major of cavalry, who shall perform the duties of judge advocate for the army to which they respectively belong, under the direction of the judge advocate general.

SEC. 7. And be it further enacted, That hereafter all offenders in the army charged with offences now punishable by a regimental or garrison court-martial shall be brought before a field officer of his regiment, who shall be detailed for that purpose, and who shall hear and determine the offence, and order the punishment that shall be inflicted; and shall also make a record of his proceedings, and submit the same to the brigade commander, who, upon the approval of the proceedings of such field officer, shall order the same to be executed: Provided, That the punishment in such cases be limited to that authorized to be inflicted by a regimental or garrison court-martial. And provided further, That, in the event of there being no brigade commander, the proceedings as aforesaid shall be submitted for approval to the commanding officer of the post.

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That all officers who have been mustered into the service of the United States as battalion adjutants and quartermasters of cavalry under the orders of the War Department, exceeding the number authorized by law, shall be paid as such for the time they were actually employed in the service of the United States, and that all such officers now in service, exceeding the number as aforesaid, shall be immediately mustered out of the service of the United States.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to establish and organize army corps according to his discretion.

SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That each army corps shall have the following officers, and no more, attached thereto, who shall constitute the staff of the commander thereof; one assistant adjutant general, one quartermaster, one commissary of subsistence, and one assistant inspector general, who shall bear, respectively, the rank of lieutenant colonel, and who shall be assigned from the army or volunteer force by the President. Also three aides-de-camp, one to bear the rank of major, and two to bear the rank of captain, to be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, upon the recommendation of the commander of the army corps. The senior officer of artillery in each army corps shall, in addition to his other duties, act as chief of artillery and ordnance at the headquarters of the corps.

SEC. 11. And be it further enacted, That the cavalry forces in the service of the United States shall hereafter be organized as follows; Each regiment of cavalry shall have one colonel, one lieutenant colonel, three majors, one surgeon, one assistant surgeon, one regimental adjutant, one regimental quartermaster, one regimental commissary, one sergeant major, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, two hospital stewards, one saddler sergeant, one chief trumpeter, and one chief farrier or blacksmith, and each regiment shall consist of twelve companies or troops, and each company or troop shall have one captain, one first lieutenant, one second lieutenant, and one supernumerary second lieutenant, one first sergeant, one quartermaster sergeant, one commissary sergeant, five sergeants, eight corporals, two teamsters, two farriers or blacksmiths, one saddler, one wagoner, and seventy-eight privates; the regimental adjutants, the regimental quartermasters, and the regimental commissaries to be taken from their respective regiments: Provided, That vacancies caused by this organization shall not be considered as original, but shall be filled by regular promotion.

SEC. 12. And be it further enacted, That the President be, and he is hereby, authorized to receive into the service of the United States, for the purpose of constructing intrenchments, or performing camp service, or any other labor or any military or naval service for which they may be found competent, persons of African descent, and such persons shall be enrolled and organized under such regulations, not inconsistent with the Constitution and laws, as the President may prescribe.

SEC. 13. And be it further enacted, That when any man or boy of African descent, who by the laws of any State shall owe service or labor to any person who, during the present rebellion, has levied war or has borne arms against the United States, or adhered to their enemies by giving them aid and comfort, shall render any such service as is provided for in this act, he, his mother and his wife and children, shall forever thereafter be free, any law, usage, or custom whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided, That the mother, wife, and children of such man or boy of African descent shall not be made free by the operation of this act, except where such mother, wife, or children owe service or labor to some person who during the present rebellion, has borne arms against the United States, or adhered to their enemies by giving them aid and comfort.

SEC. 14. And be it further enacted, That the expenses incurred to carry this act into effect shall be paid out of the general appropriation for the army and volunteers.

SEC. 15. And be it further enacted, That all persons who have been or shall be hereafter enrolled in the service of the United States under this act shall receive the pay and rations now allowed by law to soldiers, according to their respective grades: Provided, That persons of African descent, who under this law shall be employed, shall receive ten dollars per month and one ration, three dollars of which monthly pay may be in clothing.

SEC. 16. And be it further enacted, That medical purveyors and storekeepers shall give bonds in such sums as the Secretary of War may require, with security to be approved by him.

Approved July 17, 1862.

XII.—PUBLIC—No. 167.

AN ACT to allow and pay to the State of Missouri the amount of money expended by said State in the arming and paying of troops employed in the suppression of insurrection against the laws of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the State of Missouri shall be entitled to a credit against the direct tax apportioned to said State by the "Act to provide increased revenue from imports to pay interest on the public debt, and for other purposes," approved August fifth, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, for all sums of money expended by said State in the arming, equipping, subsisting and paying of troops organized under the ordinances of the convention of said State, passed during the year eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and employed in concert with the Federal authorities in suppressing insurrection against the United States, and enforcing the laws thereof.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That, for the purpose of ascertaining the amount due to said State for moneys so expended, the Secretary of War shall, immediately after the passage of this act, by commission or otherwise, cause the accounts to be examined, and a report made to him of the amount due, which, being approved by the Secretary of War, and by him certified to the Secretary of the Treasury, the amount thereof shall be allowed to said State, and deducted from the amount apportioned thereto by the aforesaid act, and the remainder only, if any, shall be collected as therein prescribed: Provided, That, in the adjustment of accounts under this act, no greater rate of compensation shall be allowed than was provided for by the laws of the United States applicable to the arming, equipping, subsisting, and payment of volunteers, in force at the time of enrolment of such troops of Missouri.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That if said State shall assume and pay into the Treasury the balance of said direct tax, if any, at such time as may be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury, or should said expenditures be found to be equal to the tax, the deduction or discount of fifteen per centum, as prescribed in the fifty-third section of the said recited act, shall be allowed on the whole amount thus apportioned.

Approved July 17, 1862.

XIII.—PUBLIC RESOLUTION—No. 42.

A RESOLUTION to suspend all payments under the act approved twenty-fifth of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An Act to secure to the officers and men actually employed in the Western Department, or Department of Missouri, their pay, bounty, and pension," and for other purposes. [See Gen. Orders, No. 31.]

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of War be, and he is hereby authorized and directed to suspend all payments under the act approved twenty-fifth March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, entitled "An act to secure to the officers and men actually employed in the Western Department, or Department of Missouri, their pay, bounty, and pension," and that there shall be appointed by the President, immediately after the passage of this resolution, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, three commissioners, to examine all claims arising under the provisions of that act, and report the same, with the facts connected therewith, to the Secretary of War; said commissioners to have such compensation for their services as the Secretary of War may consider just and reasonable: Provided, That said commissioners shall be required to examine and report within sixty days after the passage of this resolution upon all such claims as may be presented by persons claiming to have been organized or employed in the State of Missouri and to have performed service according to the provisions of the said recited act, whereupon payments shall be made as recommended by said commissioners and as required by said act: And provided further, That within ninety days from the passage of this Resolution the said commissioners shall examine and report upon all other claims arising under the act aforesaid, when payments shall be made as herein prescribed.

Approved July 12, 1862.

XIV.—PUBLIC—No. 168.

AN ACT to suspend temporarily the operation of an act entitled "An act to prevent and punish fraud on the part of officers intrusted with making of contracts for the Government," approved June two, eighteen hundred sixty-two. [See Gen. Orders, No. 58.]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the operation of the act entitled "An act to prevent and punish frauds on the part of officers intrusted with making of contracts for the Government," approved June two, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, be, and the same is hereby suspended until the first Monday of January, eighteen hundred and sixty-three.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 92.

WAR DEPT', ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, July 31, 1862.

The following order is published for the information of all concerned:

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, D. C., July 31, 1862.

The absence of officers and privates from their duty under various pretexts, while receiving pay, at great expense and burden to the Government, makes it necessary that efficient measures be taken to enforce their return to duty, or that their places be supplied by those who will not take pay while rendering no service. This evil, moreover, tends greatly to discourage the patriotic impulses of those who would contribute to support the families of faithful soldiers.

It is therefore ordered by the President—

I.—That on Monday, the 11th day of August, all leaves of absence and furloughs, by whomsoever given, unless by the War Department, are revoked and absolutely annulled, and all officers capable of service are required forthwith to join their respective commands, and all privates capable of service to join their regiments, under penalty of dismissal from the service, or such penalty as a Court Martial may award, unless the absence be occasioned by lawful cause.

II.—The only excuses allowed for the absence of officers or privates after the 11th day of August are:

- 1st.—The order or leave of the War Department.
- 2d.—Disability from wounds received in service.
- 3d.—Disability from disease that renders the party unfit for military duty.

But any officer or private whose health permits him to visit watering places or places of amusement, or to make social visits, or walk about the town, city, or neighborhood in which he may be, will be considered fit for military duty, and as evading duty by absence from his command or ranks.

III.—On Monday, the eighteenth day of August, at ten o'clock a. m., each Regiment and Corps shall be mustered. The absentees will be marked, three lists of the same made out, and within forty-eight hours after the muster, one copy shall be sent to the Adjutant General of the Army, one to the Commander of the Corps, the third to be retained; and all officers and privates fit for duty absent at that time will be regarded as absent without cause, their pay will be stopped, and they dismissed from the service, or treated as deserters, unless restored; and no officer shall be restored to his rank unless by the judgment of a Court of Inquiry, to be approved by the President, he shall establish that his absence was with good cause.

IV.—Commanders of Corps, Divisions, Brigades, Regiments, and detached Posts, are strictly enjoined to enforce the muster and return aforesaid. Any officer failing in his duty herein will be deemed guilty of gross neglect of duty, and be dismissed from the service.

V.—A commissioner shall be appointed by the Secretary of War to superintend the execution of this order in the respective States.

The United States Marshals in the respective districts, the mayor and chief of police of any town or city, the sheriff of the respective counties in each State, all postmasters and justices of the peace, are authorized to act as special provost marshals to arrest any officer or private soldier, fit for duty, who may be found absent from his command without just cause, and convey him to the nearest military post or depot. The transportation, reasonable expenses of this duty, and five dollars, will be paid for each officer or private so arrested and delivered.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, August 9, 1862.

REGULATIONS FOR THE ENROLMENT AND DRAFT OF THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MILITIA.

In pursuance of an Order by the President of the United States, bearing date August 4, 1862, whereby it is provided that a draft of three hundred thousand militia be immediately called into the service of the United States to serve for nine months, unless sooner discharged, and that the Secretary of War shall assign the quotas to the States, and establish regulations for the draft; also, that if any State shall not by the 15th of August, furnish its quota of the additional three hundred thousand volunteers authorized by law, the deficiency of volunteers in that State shall also be made up by special draft from the militia, and that the Secretary of War shall establish regulations for this purpose—

IT IS ORDERED:

First. The Governors of the respective States will proceed forthwith to furnish their respective quotas of three hundred thousand militia, called for by the Order of the President, dated the fourth day of August, 1862, which quotas have been furnished to the Governors respectively by communication from this Department of this date, according to the regulations hereinafter set forth.

Second. The Governors of the several States are hereby requested forthwith to designate rendezvous for the drafted militia of said States, and to appoint commandants therefor, and to notify the Secretary of War of the location of such rendezvous and the names of the commandants.

It is important that the rendezvous should be few in number, and located with a view to convenience of transportation.

Third. The Governors of the respective States will cause an enrolment to be made forthwith by the assessors of the several counties, or by any other officers to be appointed by such Governors, of all able-bodied male citizens between the ages of eighteen and forty-five, within the respective counties, giving the name, age, and occupation of each, together with remarks showing whether he is in the service of the United States, and in what capacity, and any other facts which may determine his exemption from military duty.

All reasonable and proper expenses of such enrolment, and of the draft hereinafter provided, will be reimbursed by the United States, upon vouchers showing the detailed statement of service performed, and expenses incurred, to be approved by such Governors.

Fourth. Where no provision is made by law in any State for carrying into effect the draft hereby ordered, or where such provisions are in any manner defective, such draft shall be conducted as follows:

1. Immediately upon completion of the enrolment, the lists of enrolled persons shall be filed in the offices of the sheriffs of the counties in which such enrolled persons reside.

2. The Governors of the several States shall appoint a commissioner for each county of their respective States, whose duty it shall be to superintend the drafting, and hear and determine the excuses of persons claiming to be exempt from military duty. Such commissioner shall receive a compensation of four dollars per diem for each day he may be actually employed in the discharge of his duties as such commissioner.

3. The enrolling officer shall immediately, upon the filing of the enrolment lists, notify said commissioner that said lists have been so filed, and the commissioner shall thereupon give notice, by handbills posted in each township of his county, of the time and place at which claims of exemption will be received and determined by him, and shall fix the time to be specified in the order aforesaid within ten days of the filing of the enrolment at which the draft shall be made, and all persons claiming to be exempt from military duty shall, before the day fixed for the draft, make proof of such exemption before said commissioner, and if found sufficient, his name shall be stricken from the list by a red line drawn through it, leaving it still legible.

The commissioner shall, in like manner, strike from the list the names of all persons now in the military service of the United States, all telegraph operators and constructors actually engaged on the fifth day of August, 1862, all engineers of locomotives on railroads, all artificers and workmen employed in any public arsenal or armory, the Vice President of the United States, the officers, judicial and executive, of the Government of the United States, the members of both houses of Congress, and their respective officers, all custom-house officers and their clerks, all post officers and stage drivers who are employed in the care and conveyance of the mail of the Post Office of the United States, all ferrymen who are employed at any ferry on the post road, all pilots, all mariners actually employed in the sea service of any citizen or merchant within the United States, all engineers and pilots of registered or licensed steamboats and steamships, and all persons exempted by the laws of the respective States from military duty, on sufficient evidence, or on his personal knowledge that said persons belong to any of the aforesaid classes, whether the exemption is claimed by them or not.

Exemption will not be made for disability, unless it be of such permanent character as to render the person unfit for service for a period of more than thirty days, to be certified by a surgeon appointed by the Governor, in each county for that purpose.

5. At the time fixed as before provided by the commissioner for making the draft, the sheriff of the county, or, in his absence, such person as the commissioner may appoint, shall, in the presence of said commissioner, publicly place in a wheel or box of a like character to such as are used for drawing jurors, separate folded ballots, containing the names of all persons remaining on said enrolment lists not stricken off as before provided, and a proper person, appointed by the commissioner, and blindfolded, shall thereupon draw from said box or wheel a number of ballots, equal to the number of drafted men fixed by the Governor of such State as the proper quota of such county.

6. A printed or written notice of his enrolment and draft, and of the place of rendezvous of the drafted military force, shall thereupon be served by a person to be appointed by the commissioner, upon each person so drafted, either by delivering the same in person or by leaving it at his last known place of residence.

7. Any person so drafted may offer a substitute at the time of the rendezvous of the drafted militia force, and such substitute, if he shall be an able-bodied man, between the ages of eighteen and forty-five years, and shall consent in writing (with the consent of his parent or guardian, if a minor) to subject himself to all the duties and obligations to which his principal would have been subject, had he personally served, shall be accepted in lieu of such principal.

8. The persons thus drafted shall assemble at the county seat of their respective counties, within five days after the time of drafting, whence transportation will be furnished them by the Governors of the several States to the place of rendezvous.

9. As soon as the draft has been made and the names marked on the enrolment lists, the commissioner will send a copy of the draft to the commandant of rendezvous, and another of the same to the Adjutant General of the State, who will immediately organize the drafted men into companies and regiments of infantry, by assigning one hundred and one men to each company, and ten companies to each regiment, and send a copy of the organization to the commandant of the rendezvous.

10. At the expiration of the time allowed for the drafted men to reach the rendezvous, the commandant shall proceed to complete the organization of the companies and regiments by proclaiming the names of the regimental commissioned officers, which shall be designated in accordance with the laws of the respective States, the number and grade being the same as in the volunteer service; and in case the laws of any State shall provide for the election of officers, they shall be elected under the direction of the commandant of the rendezvous, and reported forthwith to the Governors of such States in order that they may be commissioned, and the non-commissioned officers may be appointed either before or after muster, as the colonel of the regiment shall decide.

11. As soon as the officers of the companies and regiments are designated, the muster-rolls shall be made out under the direction of the commandant of the rendezvous, and the troops inspected and mustered into the service of the United States by the mustering officer appointed for that purpose.

12. In States where enlistments have been made by municipalities and towns, instead of counties, the Governors of such States are authorized to apply the foregoing rules of draft to such municipalities and towns instead of counties.

Fifth. Provost Marshals will be appointed by the War Department in the several States, on the nomination of the Governor thereof, with such assistants as may be necessary to enforce the attendance of all drafted persons who shall fail to attend at such places of rendezvous.

Sixth. In case any State shall not, by the 15th day of August, furnish its quota of the additional three hundred thousand volunteers called for by the President on the 2d day of July, 1862, unless otherwise ordered, all incomplete regiments shall then be consolidated, under the direction of the Governors of the respective States, and an additional draft shall be made, as before provided, sufficient to fill up such quota; the number to be drafted from each county of the State to be fixed by the Governor thereof.

Seventh. From and after the 15th day of August, no new regiments of Volunteers will be organized, but the premium, bounty, and advance pay will continue to be paid to those volunteering to go into the old Regiments.

AFTER ORDER, AUGUST 14, 1862.

- Eighth. That in filling all requisitions for militia, the quotas of the several States will be apportioned by the Governors among the several counties, and (where practicable) among the subdivisions of counties, so that allowance shall be made to such counties and subdivisions for all volunteers theretofore furnished by them and mustered into the service of the United States, and whose stipulated term of service shall not have expired.

General Orders, } No. 100.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 11, 1862.

I.—So much of General Orders, No. 61, current series, as relates to the extension of sick leaves of absence is hereby revoked and no applications for such extensions need hereafter be made. The order of the President dated July 31, [General Orders, No. 92,] fully explains what may be considered as good cause for absence. Surgeons' certificates of disability, required by existing orders and regulations, must be forwarded not only to the Adjutant General of the Army, but also to the Commander of the Regiment, or, in case of a staff officer, to his Commanding General.

II.—Officers absent from duty without leave or beyond the time of their leaves, will not be allowed to draw pay until a court or commission, which will be ordered on their return to their post or command, shall determine whether there was sufficient cause for their absence. They will accordingly provide themselves with a full description of the nature and cause of their disability, certified by the proper medical authority, as required by existing orders and regulations.

III.—Officers of volunteers who are absent from duty on account of disease contracted before they entered the service, will be immediately mustered out. Those who have been absent for more than sixty days on account of wounds or disease contracted in the line of their duty, and who are still unable to return to duty, will be reported to the Adjutant General of the Army for discharge, in order that their places may be filled by others fit for field service. For this class of officers Congress has provided pensions.

IV.—Applications for pensions must be made to the Commissioner of Pensions, who is the judge of the sufficiency of evidence in support of such claims, and who furnishes the forms and regulations relating thereto.

V.—When an officer returns to his command after having overstaid his leave of absence, he may be tried by a court-martial for this as a military offence, or a commission may be appointed by the commanding officer of his division, army corps or army, as the case may be, to investigate his case, and to determine whether or not he was absent from proper cause; and if there should be found to be such proper case, he will be entitled to pay during such absence. The proceedings of such commission will be sent to the Adjutant General of the Army for the approval of the Secretary of War. Such commissions will consist of not less than three nor over five commissioned officers.

VI.—Where troops are serving in an army corps, or an army, no leaves of absence will be granted on the certificate of a regimental or brigade surgeon till the same has been approved by the medical director of such army corps or army; and no medical director will endorse any certificate until he has made a personal examination of the applicant, or received a favorable report from a medical officer appointed by him to make such personal examination. And if upon such personal examination it be found that the certificate of disability was given without proper cause, the name of the medical officer giving it will be reported to the Adjutant General of the Army, in order that he may be dismissed from the service.

VII.—Where officers are not serving in a division, army corps, or separate army, applications for leaves may be made to the Adjutant General of the Army; but, except in very extraordinary cases, no leave of absence will be granted unless the application be accompanied by a certificate of the same character as that prescribed in General Orders, No. 61.

VIII.—In all cases of personal application for leaves of absence made to the War Department, the applicant will be examined by a medical officer assigned to that duty in this city.

II.—The oath of allegiance will not be administered to any person against his own will: it must in all cases be a voluntary act on his part. Nor will any compulsory parole of honor be received. But oaths taken, and paroles given, to avoid arrest, detention, imprisonment, or expulsion, are voluntary or free acts, and cannot be regarded as compulsory. All persons guilty of violating such oaths or paroles will be punished according to the laws and usages of war.

III.—The laws of the United States and the general laws of war, authorize, in certain cases, the seizure and conversion of private property for the subsistence, transportation, and other uses of the army; but this must be distinguished from pillage; and the taking of property for public purposes is very different from its conversion to private uses. All property lawfully taken from the enemy, or from the inhabitants of the enemy's country, instantly becomes public property, and must be used and accounted for as such. The 52d Article of War authorizes the penalty of death for pillage or plundering, and other articles authorize severe punishments for any officer or soldier who shall sell, embezzle, misapply, or waste military stores, or who shall permit the waste or misapplication of any such public property. The penalty is the same whether the offence be committed in our own or in an enemy's territory.

IV.—All property, public or private, taken from alleged enemies, must be inventoried and duly accounted for. If the property taken be claimed as private, receipts must be given to such claimants or their agents. Officers will be held strictly accountable for all property taken by them or by their authority, and it must be returned for, the same as any other public property.

V.—Where foraging parties are sent out for provisions or other stores, the commanding officer of such party will be held accountable for the conduct of his command, and will make a true report of all property taken.

VI.—No officer or soldier will, without authority, leave his colors or ranks, to take private property, or to enter a private house for that purpose. All such acts are punishable with death, and an officer who permits them is equally as guilty as the actual pillager.

VII.—Commanding officers of the armies and corps will be held responsible for the execution of these orders in their respective commands.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 Washington, August 20, 1862.

Detachments of recruits will be furnished with at least two days' cooked rations before starting from the depot for their regiments. If delayed in any city en route, a detachment will be marched to the "Soldier's Rest," where additional cooked rations will be issued to the men sufficient to last till their arrival at the next "Rest," or at the destination of the detachment, according to circumstances. Superintendents of the recruiting service for States or Districts will see that this order is executed.

The officers, or non-commissioned officers, in charge of detachments en route, are responsible that the rations are not wasted. Also that such as are required are obtained at the Rests. Purchases of articles of food on public account are not authorized.

The following orders are published for the information and government of all concerned:

ORDER RESPECTING TRADE REGULATIONS.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington City, D. C., August 28, 1862.

The attention of all officers and others connected with the Army of the United States is called to the Regulations of the Secretary of the Treasury concerning commercial intercourse with insurrectionary States, or sections, dated August 28, 1862.

I.—Commandants of Departments, Districts, and Posts, will render all such military aid as may become necessary in carrying out the provisions of said Regulations and enforcing observance thereof to the extent directed by the Secretary of the Treasury, so far as can possibly be done without danger to the operations or safety of their respective commands.

II.—There will be no interference with trade in, or shipments of, cotton, or other merchandise, conducted in pursuance of said regulations, within any territory occupied and controlled by the forces of the United States, unless absolutely necessary to the successful execution of military plans or movements therein. But in cases of the violation of the conditions of any clearance or permit granted under said Regulations, and in cases of unlawful traffic, the guilty party or parties will be arrested, and the facts promptly reported to the commandant of the department for orders.

III.—No officer of the Army, or other person connected therewith, will seize cotton, or other property of individuals, unless exposed to destruction by the enemy, or needed for military purposes, or for confiscation under the act of Congress; and in all such cases of seizure the same shall be promptly reported to the commandant of the Department wherein they are made for his orders therein.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, August 29, 1862.

ORDER CONCERNING SUPPLIES TO DRAFTED MILITIA.

The commissioners for drafting in each county will, on the assembling of the draft at the county seat, appoint a lance corporal for every eight men, and a lance sergeant for every sixteen men, and will make fair and reasonable contracts for cooked provisions sufficient to subsist the men until their arrival at the camp of rendezvous and twenty-four hours thereafter; copies of these contracts, and duplicate bills, certified by the commissioner and by the mustering officer, will be sent to the Commissary General for payment.

The commissioner will accompany the men to the camp, taking the control of them, providing for their transportation by railroad or steamboat when practicable, and where it is necessary to march, he may provide a reasonable amount of transportation for the provisions and baggage of the men. The expenses of transportation will be paid by the Quartermaster's Department on duplicate bills, certified by the commissioner.

The chief mustering officer of each State will immediately, in conformity with the regulations of the Subsistence Department, advertise for separate proposals, and make contracts for uncooked rations for each camp, and will also immediately make their requisitions on the Commissary General for funds to meet all subsistence for drafted men, while they remain at camp of rendezvous.

Until companies are organized, the rations will be supplied on the returns of the commander of each camp, and his receipt will be the basis for a settlement with the contractor.

After organization into companies, rations will be issued on returns signed by the company commanders, and approved by the commandant of the camp.

After being organized into regiments, rations will be supplied to the Regimental Quartermaster on regimental returns signed by him, and approved by the Colonel—the Regimental Quartermaster being charged with their distribution to the companies.

Cooking utensils, and such other camp equipage and blankets as can be furnished by the Quartermaster's Department, will be supplied as soon as possible by the United States Quartermasters hereinafter named, on the requisitions of the commandants of camps of rendezvous within their respective districts, and will be issued by such commandants to the men, as follows: Each man receiving a blanket will receipt for the same, which receipt will be turned over by the commandant of the camp of rendezvous to the quartermaster of his regiment, as soon as he shall be appointed, and he shall make the proper entry on his account.

Camp equipage, issued before the organization of companies, will be receipted for by the lance sergeant of the squad, and taken up by the quartermaster of the regiment, on his return, as soon as the regiment is organized. When issued after the organization of a company, it will be receipted for by the captain, and taken up in like manner.

It will be the duty of the officer of the United States Quartermaster's Department to forward to the several camps of rendezvous, as soon as possible, camp and garrison equipage, necessary for the first organization. Arrangements now in progress will provide the uniform clothing, which will not be issued to the soldiers until the organization of regiments is completed.

As the sudden call for volunteers and militia has exhausted the supply of blankets, fit for military purposes, in the market, and it will take some time to procure by manufacture or importation a sufficient supply, all citizens who may volunteer or be drafted are advised to take with them to the rendezvous, if possible, a good stout woolen blanket. The regulation military blanket is 84x66 inches, and weighs five pounds.

As all clothing, blankets, and shoes issued by the United States to its troops are charged at average cost, and no soldier who furnishes his own blanket is required to draw one, it is to his interest to supply himself, and thereby avoid much discomfort, as it is impossible for the United States to supply all the troops immediately.

The camps of rendezvous in the different States will be supplied by the United States Quartermaster, as follows: Camps in Maine,

New Hampshire,
Massachusetts,

} Captain McKim,
Assistant Q. M.,
Boston.

Vermont,
Connecticut,
Rhode Island,
New York,
New Jersey, (part of)

} Colonel Vinton,
Deputy Q. M. G.,
New York.

New Jersey, (part of),
Pennsylvania,
Delaware,

} Colonel Crosman,
Deputy Q. M. G.,
Philadelphia.

Camps near Harrisburg will be supplied by requisition upon Captain E. C.

Wilson, A. Q. M., at Harrisburg. Those near Pittsburg by Major A. Montgomery, Q. M., U. S. A., at Pittsburg.

Ohio—Captain J. H. Dickerson, A. Q. M., Cincinnati.

Indiana—Captain James A. E. Kin, A. Q. M., Indianapolis.

Illinois, } Captain J. A. Potter, A. Q. M.,

Wisconsin, } Chicago.

Kentucky—Colonel Thomas Swords, A. Q. M. Gen'l, Louisville.

Michigan—Captain G. W. Lee, A. Q. M., Detroit.

Iowa—Captain H. B. Hendershott, 2d Artillery, Davenport.

Minnesota—Captain T. M. Saunders, 3d Artillery, St. Paul.

Camps near St. Louis will be supplied by Major Robert Allen, Chief Quartermaster of the Department of the Mississippi.

I.—The following is the organization of Regiments and Companies of the Volunteer Army of the United States:

1. REGIMENT OF INFANTRY—Ten Companies.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------------------|
| 1 Colonel. | 2 Assistant Surgeons. |
| 1 Lieutenant Colonel. | 1 Chaplain. |
| 1 Major. | 1 Sergeant Major. |
| 1 Adjutant (an extra Lieutenant.) | 1 Regimental Quartermaster Sergeant. |
| 1 Quartermaster (an extra Lieutenant.) | 1 Regimental Commissary Sergeant. |
| 1 Surgeon. | 1 Hospital Steward. |

Company of Infantry.

- | | |
|----------------------|--------------|
| 1 Captain. | 4 Sergeants. |
| 1 First Lieutenant. | 8 Corporals. |
| 1 Second Lieutenant. | 2 Musicians. |
| 1 First Sergeant. | 1 Wagoner. |

And { 64 Privates—minimum.
82 Privates—maximum.

2. REGIMENT OF CAVALRY—Twelve Companies or Troops.

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1 Colonel. | 1 Regimental Commissary (an extra Lieutenant.) |
| 1 Lieutenant Colonel. | |
| 3 Majors. | 1 Chaplain. |
| 1 Surgeon. | 1 Sergeant Major. |
| 1 Assistant Surgeon. | 1 Quartermaster Sergeant. |
| 1 Regimental Adjutant (an extra Lieutenant.) | 1 Commissary Sergeant. |
| | 2 Hospital Stewards. |
| 1 Regimental Quartermaster (an extra Lieutenant.) | 1 Saddler Sergeant. |
| | 1 Chief Farrier or Blacksmith. |

Company or Troop of Cavalry.

- | | |
|---------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 Captain. | 8 Corporals. |
| 1 First Lieutenant. | 2 Teamsters. |
| 1 Second Lieutenant. | 2 Farriers or Blacksmiths. |
| 1 First Sergeant. | 1 Saddler. |
| 1 Quartermaster Sergeant. | 1 Wagoner, and |
| 1 Commissary Sergeant. | 78 Privates. |
| 5 Sergeants. | |

There being no bands now allowed, the chief trumpeter authorized by law will not be mustered into service. If any have been so mustered, they will, upon receipt of this order, be mustered out.

The law does not authorize musicians for companies. To remedy this defect, two musicians may be enlisted for each company. They will be rated and paid as privates.

3. REGIMENT OF ARTILLERY—Twelve Batteries.

1 Colonel.	1 Chaplain.
1 Lieutenant Colonel.	1 Sergeant Major.
1 Major for every four batteries.	1 Quartermaster Sergeant.
1 Adjutant (not an extra Lieutenant.)	1 Commissary Sergeant.
1 Quartermaster (not an extra Lieutenant.)	1 Hospital Steward.

Battery of Artillery.

1 Captain.	8 Corporals.
1 First Lieutenant.	2 Musicians.
1 Second Lieutenant.	2 Artificers.
1 First Sergeant.	1 Wagoner, and
1 Quartermaster Sergeant.	122 Privates.
4 Sergeants.

To the above organization of a battery, one First and one Second Lieutenant, two Sergeants and four Corporals may be added, at the President's discretion.

The field officers, chaplain, and regimental staff—commissioned and non-commissioned—will not be mustered, or received into service, without special authority from the War Department. As a general rule, artillery will be called for, and received, by batteries, thus rendering the field and staff unnecessary.

II.—Chaplains must meet the requirements of section 8 of the act of July 17, 1862, as follows :

“No person shall be appointed a chaplain in the United States Army, who is not a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination, and who does not present testimonials of his present good standing as such minister, with a recommendation for his appointment as an Army chaplain from some authorized ecclesiastical body, or not less than five accredited ministers belonging to said religious denomination.”

After Chaplains are appointed, under section 9, of the act of July 22, 1861, they must be mustered into service by an officer of the regular Army, and thereafter borne on the field and staff roll of the regiment.

Mustering officers, before mustering Chaplains into service, will require from them a copy of the proceedings on which the appointment is based. The said copy, if found conformable to the requirements of the law, will be endorsed by the mustering officer, and by him forwarded to the Adjutant General's office, for file with the muster-in roll.

III.—The foregoing organization must be strictly adhered to by all concerned. Commanding Officers of Departments, Armies, and Army Corps, will, without delay, direct an inspection to be made of their commands, to ascertain if the regiments, and units thereof, conform to this organization, and all deviation from it will be promptly corrected. Supernumerary officers, if any, will be mustered out of service from the date of the receipt of this order. Reports of the inspection will be forwarded to the Adjutant General of the Army.

No commissioned officer or enlisted man, of any grade, in excess of the legal organization, will be recognized. And any commander who may acknowledge, or receive, as in service, any such officer, or enlisted man, will be brought to trial for neglect of duty and disobedience of orders. No person, acting in the capacity of a supernumerary will, under any circumstances, be permitted to receive pay and allowances from the government, and Paymasters, making payment to such supernumeraries, will be held individually accountable for amounts so paid.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, September 7, 1862.

The Army will learn with as much regret as the Secretary of War feels in announcing it, the death of the late Paymaster General, Colonel B. F. LARNED, who, after a long and painful illness, departed this life on the afternoon of the 6th instant, at his residence in this city.

One of the veterans of our last war with Great Britain, Colonel LARNED entered the army as Ensign of the 21st Infantry, on the 1st of October, 1813—served with distinction through the War, and was Brevetted Captain for gallant conduct in the defence of Fort Erie, where he commanded a company. Retained as Paymaster of the 5th Infantry at the reduction of the Army in 1815, he was made Deputy Paymaster General during the Mexican war, and, on the demise of the lamented Towson, succeeded him as Paymaster General of the Army.

From that date, until overtaken by his last illness—a period of eight years—he continued to discharge the onerous and responsible duties of his office, with intelligence, ability, and rare integrity. Already an old man when the rebellion broke out, had he simply consulted his own feelings, he would gladly have retired; but well knowing that his services were now become more indispensable than ever, and unappalled by the gigantic labor, before him, for eighteen months he resolutely persevered at his post, in spite of failing strength and the entreaties of friends that he would spare himself, until, after having thoroughly re-organized his vast Department, and just as he was beginning to see things working in it to his satisfaction, his overtasked powers gave way, and, sacrificed to his sense of duty, the life which he had vowed to the service of his country, ebbed lingeringly and prematurely away.

A man of the most genial disposition, attractive society and unsullied life—a sincere Christian above all—Colonel LARNED was deservedly respected and beloved by all who had the happiness of knowing him. May the Army, which has reason to be proud of such a son, never cease to imitate the virtues of which he was so worthy an example.

The necessary arrangements for his funeral will be made by the Military Governor of the District.

As an appropriate tribute of respect to his memory, there will be fired at every military post, on the day after the receipt of this order, nine minute guns, commencing at meridian. The national flag will be displayed at half staff from the same hour until sunset of the same day, and for thirty days the prescribed badge of mourning will be worn by the officers of the Army.

I.—The President directs that the First, Second, and Third Corps of the "Army of Virginia," announced in "General Orders," No. 103, be hereafter designated the First, Eleventh, and Twelfth. The several Army Corps will now stand as follows:

The First, Second, Third, and Fourth, as arranged in "General Orders," No. 101, of March 13, 1862, from the Headquarters, Army of the Potomac.

The Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, and Ninth, as announced in "General Orders," No. 84, of July 22, 1862, from this office.

The Tenth as announced in "General Orders," No. 123, of September 3, 1862, from this office.

The Eleventh and Twelfth, the same as the First and Second Corps "Army of Virginia."

II.—By direction of the President Captain Lloyd Beall, 2d U. S. Infantry, is hereby dismissed the service.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

I.—The attention of all officers, and especially of commanders of Departments and Army Corps, is called to the absolute necessity of reducing the baggage trains of troops in the field. The mobility of our armies is destroyed by the vast trains which attend them, and which they are required to guard. This evil requires a prompt remedy. Officers will hereafter be allowed to carry into the field only the ordinary mess chest and a valise or carpet bag. No trunks or boxes will be permitted in the baggage trains. Privates frequently carry carpet bags and boxes in the regimental wagons. This must be immediately stopped. Inspectors, quartermasters, and wagonmasters will see that such articles are ejected from the wagons and cars wherever found; and regimental and company officers who permit these abuses will be reported, through the proper channels, for dismissal from the service. Commanders of Departments and Army Corps will direct frequent inspections to be made of baggage trains, and especially of officers' baggage, and see that this order is strictly enforced in their respective commands.

II.—Another cause of the increase of trains is the carrying of sutlers' goods in regimental or quartermaster wagons, under the guise of quartermaster and commissary stores. Hereafter, any officer or wagonmaster who permits this abuse will be duly punished, and the sutler whose goods are so carried will be placed without the lines of the army, and his appointment revoked.

The following Proclamation by the President is published for the information and government of the Army and all concerned :

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

I, ABRAHAM LINCOLN, President of the United States of America, and Commander-in-Chief of the Army and Navy thereof, do hereby proclaim and declare that hereafter, as heretofore, the war will be prosecuted for the object of practically restoring the constitutional relation between the United States and each of the States, and the people thereof, in which States that relation is or may be suspended or disturbed.

That it is my purpose, upon the next meeting of Congress, to again recommend the adoption of a practical measure tendering pecuniary aid to the free acceptance or rejection of all Slave States, so called, the people whereof may not then be in rebellion against the United States, and which States may then have voluntarily adopted, or thereafter may voluntarily adopt, immediate or gradual abolishment of slavery within their respective limits; and that the effort to colonize persons of African descent, with their consent, upon this continent or elsewhere, with the previously obtained consent of the governments existing there, will be continued.

That on the first day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free; and the Executive Government of the United States, including the military and naval authority thereof, will recognize and maintain the freedom of such persons, and will do no act or acts to repress such persons or any of them, in any efforts they may make for their actual freedom.

That the Executive will, on the first day of January aforesaid, by proclamation, designate the States, and parts of States, if any, in which the people thereof respectively shall then be in rebellion against the United States; and the fact that any State, or the people thereof, shall on that day be in good faith represented in the Congress of the United States, by members chosen thereto at elections wherein a majority of the qualified voters of such State shall have participated, shall, in the absence of strong countervailing testimony, be deemed conclusive evidence that such State, and the people thereof, are not then in rebellion against the United States.

That attention is hereby called to an act of Congress entitled "An act to make an additional Article of War," approved March 13, 1862, and which act is in the words and figures following:

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That hereafter the following shall be promulgated as an additional article of war for the government of the Army of the United States, and shall be obeyed and observed as such:

"ARTICLE —. All officers or persons in the military or naval service of the United States are prohibited from employing any of the forces under their respective commands for the purpose of returning fugitives from service or labor who may have escaped from any persons to whom such service or labor is claimed to be due; and any officer who shall be found guilty by a court-martial of violating this article, shall be dismissed from the service.

"SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this act shall take effect from and after its passage."

Also, to the ninth and tenth sections of an act entitled "An act to suppress insurrection, to punish treason and rebellion, to seize and confiscate property of rebels, and for other purposes," approved July 17, 1862, and which sections are in the words and figures following:

"SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That all slaves of persons who shall hereafter be engaged in rebellion against the government of the United States, or who shall in any way give aid or comfort thereto, escaping from such persons and taking refuge within the lines of the army; and all slaves captured from such persons, or deserted by them and coming under the control of the government of the United States; and all slaves of such persons found on [or] being within any place occupied by rebel forces and afterwards occupied by the forces of the United States, shall be deemed captives of war, and shall be forever free of their servitude, and not again held as slaves.

"SEC. 10. And be it further enacted, That no slave escaping into any State, Territory or the District of Columbia, from any other State, shall be delivered up, or in any way impeded or hindered of his liberty, except for crime, or some offense against the laws, unless the person claiming said fugitive shall first make oath that the person to whom the labor or service of such fugitive is alleged to be due is his lawful owner, and has not borne arms against the United States in the present rebellion, nor in any way given aid and comfort thereto; and no person engaged in the military or naval service of the United States shall, under any pretence whatever, assume to decide on the validity of the claim of any person to the service or labor of any other person, or surrender up any such person to the claimant, on pain of being dismissed from the service."

And I do hereby enjoin upon and order all persons engaged in the military and naval service of the United States to observe, obey, and enforce, within their respective spheres of service, the act and sections above recited.

And the Executive will in due time recommend that all citizens of the United States who shall have remained loyal thereto throughout the rebellion shall (upon the restoration of the constitutional relation between the United States and their respective States and people, if that relation shall have been suspended or disturbed) be compensated for all losses by acts of the United States, including the loss of slaves.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done at the city of Washington, this twenty-second day of September, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, and of the independence of the United States the eighty-seventh.

ORDER respecting Special Provost Marshals, and defining their duties.

First. There shall be a Provost Marshal General of the War Department, whose headquarters will be at Washington, and who will have the immediate supervision, control, and management of the corps.

Second. There will be appointed in each State one or more Special Provost Marshals, as necessity may require, who will report to, and receive instructions and orders from the Provost Marshal General of the War Department.

Third. It will be the duty of the Special Provost Marshals to arrest all deserters, whether Regulars, Volunteers, or Militia, and send them to the nearest Military Commander, or military post, where they can be cared for and sent to their respective Regiments; to arrest upon the warrant of the Judge Advocate, all disloyal persons subject to arrest under the orders of the War Department; to inquire into and report treasonable practices, seize stolen or embezzled property of the government, detect spies of the enemy, and perform such other duties as may be enjoined upon them by the War Department; and report all their proceedings promptly to the Provost Marshal General.

Fourth. To enable Special Provost Marshals to discharge their duties efficiently, they are authorized to call on any available military force within their respective districts, or else to employ the assistance of citizens, constables, sheriffs, or police officers, so far as may be necessary, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Provost Marshal General of the War Department, with the approval of the Secretary of War.

Fifth. Necessary expenses incurred in this service will be paid on duplicate bills certified by the Special Provost Marshals stating the time and nature of the service, after examination and approval by the Provost Marshal General.

Sixth. The compensation of Special Provost Marshals will be dollars per month, and actual travelling expenses and postage will be refunded on bills certified under oath and approved by the Provost Marshal General.

Seventh. All appointments in this service will be subject to be revoked at the pleasure of the Secretary of War.

Eighth. All orders heretofore issued by the War Department conferring authority upon other officers to act as Provost Marshals (except those who have received special commissions from the War Department) are hereby revoked.

The following Proclamation by the President is published for the information and government of the Army and all concerned:

BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS it has become necessary to call into the service not only Volunteers but also portions of the Militia of the States by draft, in order to suppress the insurrection existing in the United States, and disloyal persons are not adequately restrained by the ordinary processes of law from hindering this measure and from giving aid and comfort in various ways to the insurrection:

Now, therefore, be it ordered—

First. That during the existing insurrection, and as a necessary measure for suppressing the same, all rebels and insurgents, their aiders and abettors, within the United States, and all persons discouraging volunteer enlistments, resisting militia drafts, or guilty of any disloyal practice, affording aid and comfort to rebels against the authority of the United States, shall be subject to martial law, and liable to trial and punishment by courts-martial or military commission.

Second. That the writ of habeas corpus is suspended in respect to all persons arrested, or who are now, or hereafter during the rebellion shall be, imprisoned in any fort, camp, arsenal, military prison, or other place of confinement by any military authority, or by the sentence of any court martial or military commission.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, September 25, 1862.

The following is the cartel under which prisoners are exchanged in the existing war with the Southern States:

HAXALL'S LANDING ON JAMES RIVER, VA.,
July 22, 1862.

The undersigned, having been commissioned by the authorities they respectively represent to make arrangements for a general exchange of prisoners of war, have agreed to the following articles:

Article 1. It is hereby agreed and stipulated that all prisoners of war held by either party, including those taken on private armed vessels known as privateers, shall be discharged upon the conditions and terms following:

Prisoners to be exchanged man for man and officer for officer; privateers to be placed upon the footing of officers and men of the Navy.

Men and officers of lower grades may be exchanged for officers of a higher grade, and men and officers of different services may be exchanged according to the following scale of equivalents:

A General commanding in chief or an Admiral shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank, or for sixty privates or common seamen.

A Flag Officer or Major General shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or for forty privates or common seamen.

A Commodore carrying a broad pennant or a Brigadier General shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or twenty privates or common seamen.

A Captain in the Navy or a Colonel shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or for fifteen privates or common seamen.

A Lieutenant Colonel or a Commander in the Navy shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or for ten privates or common seamen.

A Lieutenant Commander or a Major shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or eight privates or common seamen.

A Lieutenant or a Master in the Navy or a Captain in the Army or Marines shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or six privates or common seamen.

Master's Mates in the Navy or Lieutenants and Ensigns in the Army shall be exchanged for officers of equal rank or four privates or common seamen.

Midshipmen, Warrant Officers in the Navy, Masters of merchant vessels, and Commanders of privateers shall be exchanged for Officers of equal rank or three privates or common seamen.

Second Captains, Lieutenants, or Mates of merchant vessels or privateers, and all petty officers in the Navy and all non-commissioned officers in the Army or Marines, shall be severally exchanged for persons of equal rank or for two privates or common seamen; and private soldiers or common seamen, shall be exchanged for each other man for man.

Article 2. Local, State, civil, and militia rank held by persons not in actual military service will not be recognized, the basis of exchange being the grade actually held in the naval and military service of the respective parties.

Article 3. If citizens held by either party on charges of disloyalty or any alleged civil offence are exchanged, it shall only be for citizens. Captured sutlers, teamsters, and all civilians in the actual service of either party, to be exchanged for persons in similar position.

Article 4. All prisoners of war to be discharged on parole in ten days after their capture, and the prisoners now held and those hereafter taken to be transported to the points mutually agreed upon, at the expense of the capturing party. The surplus prisoners not exchanged shall not be permitted to take up arms again, nor to serve as military police or constabulary force in any fort, garrison, or field work held by either of the respective parties, nor as guards of prisons, depots, or stores, nor to discharge any duty usually performed by soldiers, until exchanged under the provisions of this cartel. The exchange is not to be considered complete until the officer or soldier exchanged for has been actually restored to the lines to which he belongs.

Article 5. Each party, upon the discharge of prisoners of the other party, is authorized to discharge an equal number of their own officers or men from parole, furnishing at the same time to the other party a list of their prisoners discharged and of their own officers and men relieved from parole; thus enabling each party to relieve from parole such of their own officers and men as the party may choose. The lists thus mutually furnished will keep both parties advised of the true condition of the exchange of prisoners.

Article 6. The stipulations and provisions above mentioned to be of binding obligation during the continuance of the war, it matters not which party may have the surplus of prisoners, the great principles involved being—1st. An equitable exchange of prisoners, man for man, officer for officer, or officers of higher grade exchanged for officers of lower grade or for privates, according to the scale of equivalents; 2d. That privateers and officers and men of different services may be exchanged according to the same scale of equivalents; 3d. That all prisoners, of whatever arm of service, are to be exchanged or paroled in ten days from the time of their capture, if it be practicable to transfer them to their own lines in that time; if not, as soon thereafter as practicable; 4th. That no officer, soldier, or employé in the service of either party is to be considered as exchanged and absolved from his parole until his equivalent has actually reached the lines of his friends; 5th. That the parole forbids the performance of field, garrison, police, or guard, or constabulary duty.

Major General.

(Signed) D. H. HILL,
Major General C. S. A.

SUPPLEMENTARY ARTICLES.

Article 7. All prisoners of war now held on either side, and all prisoners hereafter taken, shall be sent with all reasonable despatch to A. M. Aikens, below Dutch Gap, on the James river, Virginia, or to Vicksburg, on the Mississippi river, in the State of Mississippi, and there exchanged or paroled until such exchange can be effected, notice being previously given by each party of the number of prisoners it will send, and the time when they will be delivered at those points respectively; and in case the vicissitudes of war shall change the military relations of the places designated in this article to the contending parties so as to render the same inconvenient for the delivery and exchange of prisoners, other places, bearing as nearly as may be the present local relations of said places to the lines of said parties, shall be by mutual agreement substituted. But nothing in this article contained shall prevent the commanders of two opposing armies from exchanging prisoners or releasing them on parole at other points mutually agreed on by said commanders.

Article 8. For the purpose of carrying into effect the foregoing articles of agreement, each party will appoint two agents, to be called Agents for the exchange of prisoners of war, whose duty it shall be to communicate with each other, by correspondence and otherwise, to prepare the lists of prisoners, to attend to the delivery of the prisoners at the places agreed on, and to carry out promptly, effectually, and in good faith, all the details and provisions of the said articles of agreement.

Article 9. And in case any misunderstanding shall arise in regard to any clause or stipulation in the foregoing articles, it is mutually agreed that such misunderstanding shall not interrupt the release of prisoners on parole, as herein provided, but shall be made the subject of friendly explanations, in order that the object of this agreement may neither be defeated nor postponed.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 Washington, October 1, 1862.

SIMEON DRAPER, Esquire, of New York, has been appointed, from this date, Provost Marshal General of the War Department, under the provisions of "General Orders," No. 140. He will be respected accordingly.

By ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
 No. 149.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 Washington, October 2, 1862.

No person shall be mustered into the service of the United States as a member of the Corps of Sharpshooters, unless he shall produce a certificate of some person, duly authorized by the Governor of the State in which the company is raised, that he has in five consecutive shots, at two hundred yards at rest, made a string not over twenty-five inches; or the same string off-hand at one hundred yards; the certificate to be written on the target used as the test.

The following order is published for the information of all concerned:

ORDER TRANSFERRING GUN-BOAT FLEET.

WAR DEPARTMENT,
Washington, D. C., October 1, 1862.

Under the Act of Congress of 16th July, 1862, the Western gunboat fleet is this day transferred from the War to the Navy Department.

The officers in charge will transfer to the officers of the Navy authorized to receive them, the vessels, navy stores, supplies, and property of all kinds pertaining to the fleet. The usual receipts will be taken in triplicate for all property transferred.

The Chief Quartermaster, Captain G. D. Wise, of the Gun-boat fleet, will settle up all indebtedness of the fleet to the 1st of October, make the usual returns and will close his accounts, and report by letter to the Quartermaster General.

In thus transferring this fleet, organized and built under the direction of the War Department, to the Navy Department, the Secretary of War desires to express to the officers both of the Army and Navy, and to the civilians temporarily employed upon this dangerous service of the Gun-boat fleet, his high sense of the valor, skill, and patriotism with which the operations of this fleet have been conducted. The brilliant and important services of the gun-boats at Fort Henry, Fort Donelson, Columbus, Island No. 10, Pittsburg Landing, Memphis, Vicksburg, Natchez, Baton Rouge, and generally in independent action or in co-operation with the Army on the Western rivers, will constitute one of the brightest pages in the history of the war for the preservation of the integrity of the country, and the suppression of a causeless and wicked rebellion.

They have the thanks, so well deserved, of this government and of the people of the United States.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 4, 1862.

I.—Captain George H. Johnston, Assistant Adjutant General, having sent a letter to a Member of Congress censuring his superior officers, and enclosing a copy of an official report of a confidential character, in relation to the defence of his post, and asking that his communication be brought to the notice of the Secretary of War, thus doubly violating the Army Regulations and General Orders, is hereby publicly reprimanded.

His immediate Commander is not free from censure for permitting Captain Johnston to copy and transmit, out of the prescribed channels, official documents.

II.—If any officer shall hereafter, without proper authority, permit the publication of any official letter or report, or allow any copy of such document to pass into the hands of persons not authorized to receive it, his name will be submitted to the President for dismissal. This rule applies to all official letters and reports written by an officer himself.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 6, 1862.

The attention of all officers commanding posts, districts, or brigades of troops, to which Chaplains are attached, is again directed to section 8 and 9 of the act "to define the pay and emoluments of certain officers of the Army, &c.," approved July 17, 1862, and to the duty therein enjoined on them,—a duty which they will at once fulfil.

The two sections of this law, referred to, though already published in General Orders, No. 91, of July 29, 1862, are republished for their information:

SEC. 8. And be it further enacted, That so much of section nine of the aforesaid act, approved July twenty-second, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, and of section seven of the "Act providing for the better organization of the military establishment," approved August 3d, eighteen hundred and sixty-one, as defines the qualifications of Chaplains in the army and volunteers, shall hereafter be construed to read as follows: That no person shall be appointed a Chaplain in the United States Army who is not a regularly ordained minister of some religious denomination, and who does not present testimonials of his present good standing as such minister, with a recommendation for his appointment as an Army Chaplain from some authorized ecclesiastical body, or not less than five accredited ministers belonging to said religious denomination.

SEC. 9. And be it further enacted, That hereafter the compensation of all Chaplains in the regular or volunteer service or army hospitals shall be one hundred dollars per month and two rations a day when on duty; and the Chaplains of the permanent hospitals, appointed under the authority of the second section of the act approved May twentieth, eighteen hundred and sixty-two, shall be nominated to the Senate for its advice and consent, and they shall, in all respects, fill the requirements of the preceding section of this act relative to the appointment of Chaplains in the army and volunteers, and the appointments of Chaplains to army hospitals, heretofore made by the President, are hereby confirmed; and it is hereby made the duty of each officer commanding a district or post containing hospitals, or a brigade of troops, within thirty days after the reception of the order promulgating this act, to inquire into the fitness, efficiency, and qualifications of the Chaplains of hospitals or regiments, and to muster out of service such Chaplains as were not appointed in conformity with the requirements of this act, and who have not faithfully discharged the duties of Chaplains during the time they have been engaged as such.

Chaplains employed at the military posts called "Chaplains' posts" shall be required to reside at the posts, and all Chaplains in the United States service shall be subject to such rules in relation to leave of absence from duty as are prescribed for commissioned officers of the United States army stationed at such posts.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 9, 1862.

The commanding officer of each regiment, battalion, and battery of the Regular Army in the field, will appoint one or more recruiting officers, who are hereby authorized to enlist, with their own consent, the requisite number of efficient volunteers to fill the ranks of their command to the legal standard.

The enlistments will be made in the usual mode, and for three years, or for the remaining portion of the period of three years which the volunteer has yet to serve, if he so prefer.

The recruiting officers will furnish to the commanding officers of companies to which volunteers whom they may enlist belong, lists of such volunteers, exhibiting the dates of enlistment of each in the Regular Service. All the men upon such lists will be reported as honorably discharged the day previous to the date of their enlistment, on the first subsequent muster roll of their company.

As an inducement to volunteers to enlist in the Regular Army, it will be remembered that promotion to commissions therein is open by law to its meritorious and distinguished non-commissioned officers; and that many have already been promoted.

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 160. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 18, 1862.

The following regulations are established for Army Trains and Baggage:

I.—There will be allowed—

For headquarters train of an Army Corps, four wagons; of a Division or Brigade, three; of a full Infantry Regiment, six; and of a Light Artillery Battery or Squadron of Cavalry, three.

In no case will this allowance be exceeded, but always proportionably reduced according to the number of officers and men actually present. All surplus wagons will be turned over to the Chief Quartermaster to be organized, under direction of the Commanding Generals, into supply trains, or sent to the nearest depot.

The requisite supply trains, their size depending upon the state of the roads and character of the campaign, will be organized by the Chief Quartermaster, with the approval of the Commanding Generals, subject to the control of the War Department.

II.—The wagons allowed to a regiment, battery, or squadron, must carry nothing but forage for the teams, cooking utensils, and rations for the troops, hospital stores, and officers' baggage. One wagon to each regiment will transport exclusively hospital supplies, under the direction of the Regimental Surgeon; the one for regimental headquarters will carry the grain for the officers' horses; and the three allowed for each battery or squadron, will be at least half loaded with grain for their own teams.

Stores in bulk and ammunition will be carried in the regular or special supply trains.

III.—In active campaign, troops must be prepared to bivouac on the march, the allowance of tents being limited, as follows:

For the headquarters of an Army Corps, Division, or Brigade, one wall tent to the Commanding General, and one to every two officers of his staff.

For the Colonel, Field, and Staff of a full regiment, three wall tents; and for every other commissioned officer, one shelter tent each.

For every two non-commissioned officers, soldiers, officers' servants, and authorized camp followers, one shelter tent.

One hospital tent will be allowed for office purposes at Corps headquarters, and one wall tent at those of a Division or Brigade. All tents beyond this allowance will be left in depot.

IV.—Officers' baggage will be limited to blankets, one small valise or carpet-bag, and a moderate mess-kit. The men will carry their own blankets and shelter tents, and reduce the contents of their knapsacks as much as possible.

The Depot Quartermaster will provide storage for a reasonable amount of officers' surplus baggage, and the extra clothing and knapsacks of the men.

V.—Hospital tents are for the sick and wounded, and, except those allowed for Army Corps headquarters, must not be diverted from their proper use.

VI.—Commanding officers will be held responsible for the strict enforcement of these regulations, especially the reduction of officers' baggage, within their respective commands.

VII.—On all marches, quartermasters, under the orders of their commanding officers, will accompany and conduct their trains in a way not to obstruct the movement of the troops.

VIII.—All quartermasters and commissaries will personally attend to the reception and issue of supplies for their commands, and will keep themselves informed of the condition of the depots, roads, and other communications.

IX.—All quartermasters and commissaries will report, by letter, on the first of every month, to the chiefs of their respective departments at Washington, D. C., their station, and generally the duty on which they have been engaged during the preceding month.

B. BRUEN, 12th Infantry, was President, was arraigned and tried—

Second Lieutenant Alonzo A. Cole, 7th U. S. Infantry.

CHARGE—"Neglect of duty."

Specification 1st—"In this; that 2d Lieutenant Alonzo A. Cole, 7th Infantry, did fail to attend the morning drill of his Company, between the hours of 7 and 9 o'clock a. m. This at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, September 25, 1862."

Specification 2d—"In this; that 2d Lieutenant Alonzo A. Cole, 7th Infantry, having been sent for by his commanding officer, Colonel G. Loomis, 5th Infantry, to ascertain the cause of his absence, did send back the answer, that he would be out, but did fail to make his appearance during the whole time of the drill—one hour. This at Fort Columbus, New York harbor, September 25, 1862."

To which charge and specifications the accused pleaded "Guilty."

The Court confirms the plea of the accused, and does therefore sentence him, the said 2d Lieutenant Alonzo A. Cole, 7th Infantry, "To be reprimanded in General Orders."

II.—Second Lieutenant Cole will be released from arrest and returned to duty. It is hoped this admonition will be sufficient to warn him against the recurrence of such offenses in future.

No. 166.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 23, 1862.

It appearing that large quantities of government property have been unlawfully disposed of by non-commissioned officers and soldiers, in violation of law and of the Army rules and regulations, it is therefore ordered: That all United States officers commanding posts shall seize all military clothing, blankets, shoes, arms, equipments, and other such supplies, which have been issued by the Government to soldiers, and lost or disposed of by them. And it shall be incumbent on any person, not a soldier, who may have any such property in his possession, to prove that he has lawfully acquired possession thereof.

Such property, when seized, will be turned over to a United States Quartermaster, and his receipt in duplicate taken therefor, one of such receipts to be transmitted to the Quartermaster General. The seizure will also be reported to the Adjutant General.

All Provost Marshals appointed by the Department will assist in recovering to the United States this description of public property.

Commanding officers of companies are reminded that it is their duty not only to cause soldiers who are guilty of violating the law forbidding the sale, destruction, or negligent loss of clothing, arms, and public property, to be charged on the muster-rolls with all the articles improperly lost or disposed of, but also to enforce such other punishment as the nature of their offence may demand.

General Orders, }
No. 167.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 24, 1862.

Every commanding officer of a detachment, company, regiment, or post, who has any arms in his possession, or under his control, for which he is accountable, shall, within ten days after the reception of this order at the camp or post at which he may be stationed, or, if on the march, within twenty days after it has been communicated to him from the headquarters to which he reports, make an inventory, stating—

First. The number of arms for which he is accountable, giving the name or names of the arms.

Second. The calibre of the arms.

Third. Whether they are smooth or rifled.

Fourth. How many are serviceable, and how many require repairs.

Fifth. How many of the arms are in use, and at what place or places those not in use are kept, and what is their condition.

Sixth. The date at which this order was communicated to him.

Such inventory will be signed by the officer making it with his full name, title, and post office address, and be transmitted without delay, by mail, to Brigadier General James W. Ripley, Chief of Ordnance, Washington, D. C., with a letter of advice.

Commanding officers of armies, corps, divisions, brigades, regiments, and posts, are required to see that this order is enforced in their respective commands, and to report to the Adjutant General whether it has been complied with, stating the names of all officers who fail or neglect to comply with it within the time specified.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, October 28, 1862.

I.—In accordance with the 5th section of the Act approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings of the military commission, in the case of Sely Lewis, have been submitted to the President of the United States.

II.—The following order promulgates the proceedings in the case:

GENERAL ORDERS, No. 75; HEADQ'RS FIFTH DIVISION,

ARMY OF THE TENNESSEE,

Memphis, August 26, 1862.

Before a Military Commission assembled in Memphis, July 28, pursuant to General Orders, No. 63, dated Memphis, July 26, 1862, of which Colonel W. H. H. Taylor was President, were arraigned and tried:

24. Sely Lewis, a citizen.

CHARGE 1st—"Smuggling goods through the lines."

Specification—"In this; that the said Sely Lewis did, on or about the 18th day of August 1862, engage one ——— to haul one trunk, one carpet-bag, and one basket, containing boots, snuff, chloroform, and morphine, through the lines, against the order of the General commanding United States forces at Memphis, Tenn."

CHARGE 2d—"Violation of the 57th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that the said Sely Lewis did, on or about the 18th day of August, 1862, pass through the lines of the U. S. forces at Memphis, with the intention of visiting the enemy and giving them information. All this at or near the city of Memphis."

To which the prisoner, Sely Lewis, pleaded—

To the 1st charge, "Not Guilty."

To the 2d charge, "Not Guilty."

Of the specifications, "Not Guilty."

After a careful examination of the testimony in the above case, and after mature deliberation, the Commission are satisfied that the prisoner is,

Of specification, 1st charge, "Guilty."

Of 1st charge, "Guilty."

Of specification, 2d charge, "Guilty."

Of 2d charge, "Guilty."

And the Commission are convinced that the prisoner is a Spy.

And therefore unanimously recommend that the prisoner "be hanged as a spy, until he is dead, at such time and place as the Commanding Officer shall direct.

* * * * *

In case 24, of Sely Lewis, a citizen, convicted of being a spy, the execution of the sentence will be suspended until the pleasure of the President be made known, according to law. In the meantime he will be carefully guarded, and all communication with him, except in the presence of an officer, be denied him.

BY ORDER OF MAJOR GENERAL W. T. SHERMAN:

J. H. HAMMOND, A. A. Gen'l.

III.—The following is the order of the President:

So far as the sentence in the case relates to the accused as a spy, it is disapproved, the Commission not having jurisdiction of the offense. The sentence of death is mitigated to imprisonment for the term of six months, commencing this day—October 25, 1862.

A. LINCOLN.

IV.—The sentence, as mitigated by the President, will be carried into execution, under the orders of the Commanding General Department of the Tennessee.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 171. }

WAR DEPT., ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, October 29, 1862.

I.—At a General Court Martial, which convened at St. Augustine, Florida, on the 2d day of May, 1862, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 80, dated April 28, 1862, from Headquarters Northern District Department of the South, Hilton Head, South Carolina, and of which Colonel Alfred H. Terry, 7th Regiment Connecticut Volunteers, was President, was arraigned and tried—

CHARGE 1st.—“Desertion.”

Specification—“In this; that he, the said Private William W. Lunt, Company I, 9th Maine Regiment, stationed at Fernandina, Florida, at the time the alleged crime was committed, did desert from the U. S. Army and go to the enemy's lines, without arms and accoutrements. This at Fernandina, Florida, on or about the 7th of April, 1862.”

CHARGE 2d.—“Highway robbery.”

Specification—“In this; that he, the said Private William W. Lunt, Company I, 9th Maine Regiment, near the railroad bridge called Lofton, on the railroad running from Fernandina to Baldwin, Florida, did forcibly take from Miss Ellen Manning money to the amount of two hundred and sixty-eight dollars, more or less. This at Fernandina, Florida, on or about the 8th of April, 1862.”

To which charges and specifications the prisoner pleaded as follows:

To the Specification of the 1st Charge, “Not Guilty.”

To the 1st CHARGE, “Not Guilty.”

To the Specification of the 2d Charge, “Not Guilty.”

To the 2d CHARGE, “Not Guilty.”

FINDING.

The Court, after mature deliberation upon the testimony adduced, finds the accused as follows:

Of the Specification of the 1st Charge, “Guilty.”

Of the 1st CHARGE, “Guilty.”

Of the Specification of the 2d Charge, “Guilty.”

Of the 2d CHARGE, “Guilty.”

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence him, the said William W. Lunt, Company I, 9th Maine Volunteers, two-thirds of the members concurring therein, “To be shot to death, at such time and place as the Commanding General may direct.”

II. In compliance with the 5th section of the Act, approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings in the case of Private William W. Lunt have been submitted to the President of the United States, and the sentence is by him approved.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 172. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 29, 1862.

At a General Court Martial, which convened at Rienza, Mississippi, on the 9th day of July, 1862, pursuant to “General Orders,” No. 44, dated July 8, 1862, from the Headquarters of the Cavalry Division, and of which Major W. P. Hepburn, 2d Iowa Cavalry, was President, was arraigned and tried—

Private James Weldon, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry.

CHARGE 1st.—“Conduct prejudicial to good order and military discipline.”

Specification 1st.—“In this; that he, James Weldon, Private, of Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, did, on the 9th day of March, A. D. 1862, attempt to force his way by or past the guard, properly posted for the protection and safety of the camp of the 2d Battalion of the said 7th Illinois Cavalry, and did, further, by force, resist the sentinel while in the discharge of his duty. All this at or near Oak Grove, Missouri."

Specification 2d—"In this; that the said James Weldon, Private, of Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, on the 9th day of March, A. D. 1862, threatened to shoot one John W. Houston, Private, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, the said Private John W. Houston being then and there a sentinel, properly posted, and in the discharge of his duty. All this at or near Oak Grove, Missouri."

Specification 2d—"In this; that the said James Weldon, Private, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, did, on or about the 14th day of March, A. D. 1862, take, steal, and carry away four boxes of tobacco, the property of John Clemmens and William M. Summers, of the value of fifty dollars, and appropriated or converted the same to his own use. All this at or near Sykestown, Mo."

CHARGE 3d—"Disobedience of orders."

Specification—"In this; that the said James Weldon, Private, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, did, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1862, on being ordered by his superior officers to go to his quarters, refuse to obey said order, and would not go to his quarters. This near Sykestown, Mo."

CHARGE 3d—"Violation of the 9th Article of War."

Specification 1st—"In this; that he, the said Private James Weldon, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, did, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1862, at camp at Sykestown, Mo., strike his superior officer, Captain P. Bartlett, 7th Illinois Cavalry, he being then and there in the execution of his office."

Specification 2d—"In this; that he, the said James Weldon, Private, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, did, on the 15th day of March, A. D. 1862, at or near Sykestown, Mo., attempt and try to shoot his superior officer, Captain Bartlett, 7th Illinois Cavalry, he being then and there in the execution of his office."

To which the prisoner pleaded as follows:

CHARGE 1.

"Not Guilty" to the 1st Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 2d Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 3d Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 1st CHARGE."

CHARGE 2.

"Not Guilty" to the Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 2d CHARGE.

CHARGE 3.

"Not Guilty" to the 1st Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 2d Specification.

"Not Guilty" to the 3d CHARGE.

FINDINGS OF THE COURT.

The Court, after mature deliberation upon the testimony adduced, find the prisoner, Private James Weldon, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, as follows:

Of the 1st Specification, 1st CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

Of the 2d Specification, 1st CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

Of the 3d Specification, 1st CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

Of the 1st CHARGE, "Not Guilty."

Of the Specification, 2d CHARGE, "Guilty."

Of the 2d CHARGE, "Guilty."
 Of the 1st Specification, 3d Charge, "Guilty."
 Of the 2d Specification, 3d CHARGE, "Guilty."
 Of the 3d CHARGE "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence him, Private James Weldon, Company C, 7th Illinois Cavalry, "To be shot to death, at such time and place as the Commanding General of this Department may designate."

II.—In compliance with the 5th section of the act approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings in the case of Private James Weldon have been submitted to the President of the United States. The record in this case is fatally defective in not showing that the Judge Advocate was duly sworn in the presence of the prisoner; and that two-thirds of the members of the Court concurred in the sentence to death. The sentence is not approved by the President.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
 No. 173. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, October 29, 1862.

I.—At a General Court Martial, which convened at Headquarters of the Third Division, Army of the Southwest, Helena, Arkansas, on the 9th day of August, 1862, pursuant to General Orders, No. 42, dated August 8, 1862, from the said Headquarters, and of which Lieutenant Colonel RUDOLF BLOME, 4th Missouri Cavalry, was President, was arraigned and tried Private Conrad Zachringer, Company A, 12th Missouri Volunteers.

CHARGE 1st—"Violation of the 7th Article of War."

Specification—"In this; that said Private Zachringer, Company A, 12th Missouri Infantry, caused and excited mutiny, by taking hold of First Lieutenant Mittmann, then Officer of the Day, by the throat, and tried to prevent Lieutenant Mittmann from the execution of his duty. This in the camp of the 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, on the 10th day of August, 1862, near Helena, Arkansas.

CHARGE 2d—"Violation of the 9th Article of War."

Specification 1st—"In this; that said Private Conrad Zachringer, of Company A, 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, did strike First Lieutenant Engelmann, and threw him on the ground."

Specification 2d—"In this; that said Private Conrad Zachringer, of Company A, 12th Missouri Infantry, grasped in a violent manner First Lieutenant Mittmann by the throat, Lieutenant Mittmann being in the execution of his office. All this in the camp of the 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, on the 10th day of August, 1862, near Helena, Arkansas."

CHARGE 3d—"Violation of the 27th Article of War."

Specification 1st—"In this; that said Private Conrad Zachringer, of Company A, 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, while taking part in and exciting disorder, did refuse to obey the order of First Lieutenant Mittmann, 12th Missouri Infantry, and offered and did violence to First Lieutenant Mittmann, then Officer of the Day."

Specification 2d—"In this; that said Private Conrad Zachringer, of Company A, 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, did resist and strike First Lieutenant Engelmann, 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, who was aiding the Officer of the Day in quelling disorder. All this in the camp of the 12th Missouri Volunteer Infantry, on the 10th day of August, 1862, near Helena, Arkansas."

To which charges and specifications the accused pleaded as follows:

"That he was drunk, and knew nothing of them."

FINDING.

The Court, after mature deliberation upon the testimony adduced, finds the prisoner as follows:

Of the Specification to the 1st Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 1st CHARGE, "Guilty."

Of the 1st Specification to the 2d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 2d Specification to the 2d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 2d CHARGE, "Guilty."

Of the 1st Specification to the 3d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 2d Specification to the 3d Charge, "Guilty."

Of the 3d CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence him, the said Private Conrad Zachringer, Company A, 12th Missouri Volunteers, two-thirds of the members concurring, "To be shot to death, at such time and place as the Commanding General may direct."

II.—In accordance with the 5th section of the Act approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings in the case of Private Conrad Zachringer have been submitted to the President of the United States, and the following are his orders:

OCTOBER 25, 1862.

The prisoner's offense in this case, being to some extent the result of sudden passion, and not of premeditation, the sentence of death is mitigated to imprisonment for one year, commencing on this day, and to be dishonorably discharged the service, with loss of pay and emoluments.

A. LINCOLN.

III.—The sentence will be executed, under the direction of the proper officer.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 174. }

WAR DEPT., ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, October 30, 1862.

I.—By a Military Commission which convened in Sante Fé, New Mexico, on the 14th day of July, 1862, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 119, dated Headquarters Department of New Mexico, Sante Fé, N. M., July 8, 1862, and of which Major Henry D. Wallen, 7th Infantry, was President, was arraigned and tried—

José Maria Rivas.

CHARGE—"Lurking or acting as a Spy."

Specification—"In this; that the said José Maria Rivas did, during the winter of 1861-'62 and the spring of 1862, act as a Spy against the Federal troops in New Mexico, first for Colonel Baylor, then for General Sibley, and until caught, as a Spy and Guide for Captain Coopwood, all of the Confederate forces; and the said Rivas did, during the greater part of the time above mentioned, continue to act, as a Spy and Guide, adversely to the Federal Government, to which he owed allegiance."

To which the prisoner pleaded as follows:

To the Specification, "Not Guilty."

— FINDINGS OF THE COMMISSION.

The Commission, after mature deliberation upon the testimony adduced, found the prisoner as follows:

Of so much of the Specification as sets forth that he acted as a Spy for the Confederate forces and against the Government of the United States, in the winter of 1861-'62, "Guilty,"

And of the CHARGE, "Guilty."

SENTENCE.

And the Commission does therefore sentence him, José Maria Rivas, "To be shot to death by a detachment of New Mexican Volunteers, at such time and place as the Department Commander may designate: two-thirds of the members concurring therein."

II.—In accordance with the 5th section of the act approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings of the Military Commission in the case of José Maria Rivas, have been submitted to the President of the United States. The following is the order in the case:

OCTOBER 25, 1862.

Waiving the question of jurisdiction in the case, the sentence is not approved, because the accused is not shown to have been within our lines in disguise, or by false pretense, except by hearsay testimony; and because in his admission that he was a "Spy," he may not have understood the technical term, and may have meant no more than that he was a scout of the enemy. He clearly is a prisoner of war.

A. LINCOLN.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, October 31, 1862.

I.—The Court of Inquiry appointed to meet in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 8th instant, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 280, dated Headquarters of the Army, Adjutant General's Office, Washington, October 6, 1862, and of which Brigadier General W. S. Harney, U. S. Army, is President, has investigated the charge preferred by Major General Fitz John Porter against Brigadier General Martindale, U. S. Volunteers.

It being the opinion of the Court that the charge against Brigadier General Martindale is disproved, and that the interests of the service do not require the further investigation of the subject-matter of the inquiry, Brigadier General Martindale is restored to duty.

II.—The Court of Inquiry of which Brigadier General Harney, U. S. Army, is President, is dissolved.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE.

Washington, October 31, 1862.

The case of Private Justus Fay, of Company B, 1st Battalion "U. S. Reserve Corps Cavalry," whose sentence for the crimes of burglary, larceny, and robbery, is promulgated in "General Orders," No. 42, from the Headquarters Department of the Missouri, dated St. Louis, February 17, 1862, has been brought to the notice of the President of the United States.

In consideration of the youth of the prisoner; of the fact that he has been a brave, though misguided soldier in defence of his country; and of his enfeebled condition—the result of confinement to which he has been subjected—the President is pleased to remit the remainder of his term of imprisonment on condition that the goods stolen, or their money value, be restored to the owner.

X.—Officers have been arranged, in the foregoing order, to the companies to which they succeeded in the natural course of promotion or appointment. Should a different assignment, however, have since been made by competent authority, it will take precedence.

XL.—The numbers prefixed to the names of certain officers, in the above list of appointments, indicate their rank among those of the same date.

XII.—Acceptance or non-acceptance of appointments, and, in case of acceptance, the birth-place of the officer appointed, his age and residence when appointed, and his full name, correctly written, will in every case be promptly reported to the Adjutant General.

XIII.—With the exception of those detached from their regiments, on special duty, or unable from some other valid cause to comply with the order, the officers promoted and appointed will join their proper regiments, companies, and stations, without delay. Those recently appointed, who fail to do so within a reasonable time, will be considered as having declined their appointments. And those who deem themselves included in the exception just above made will immediately submit a statement of their case, through the proper channel, to this office, for further consideration.

I.—The Military Commission, of which Major General DAVID HUNTER, United States Volunteers, is President, appointed to meet in the city of Washington, on the 25th of September, pursuant to "Special Orders," No. 255, of September 23, 1862, to investigate the circumstances of the abandonment of Maryland Heights and the surrender of Harper's Ferry, having reported that Colonel Thomas H. Ford, 32d Ohio Volunteers, conducted the defense of Maryland Heights "without ability, abandoned his position without sufficient cause, and has shown throughout such a lack of military capacity as to disqualify him, in the estimation of the Commission, for a command in the service," the said Colonel Thomas H. Ford is, by direction of the President, dismissed from the service of the United States.

II.—The Commission having reported that the behavior of the 126th New York Infantry was disgraceful, and that Major William H. Baird, for his bad conduct, ought to be dismissed, the said Major Baird, of the 126th New York Volunteers, is, by direction of the President, dismissed from the service of the United States.

III.—The Commission having reported that Brigadier General Julius White, United States Volunteers, acted with decided capability and courage, and merits approbation, and having found nothing in the conduct of the subordinate officers calling for censure, Brigadier General White and the subordinate officers brought before the Commission are released from arrest and will report for duty.

IV.—The Military Commission, of which Major General HUNTER is President, is dissolved.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, November 19, 1862.

When there is no mustering officer to certify to the accounts payable by the Commissary General of Subsistence, according to the first paragraph of "General Orders," No. 121, the affidavit of the claimant, supported by the certificate of the Commissioner for drafting, will be required before payment of the account.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, }
No. 191. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, November 19, 1862.

I.—The following announcement is officially made of the result of the recent exchange of prisoners of war arranged at Aiken's Landing, November 11, 1862, and all officers and enlisted men interested will be governed accordingly :

First. All officers and enlisted men in the United States service, who have been captured and paroled in Virginia and Maryland up to November 1, 1862, except the officers and enlisted men captured and paroled in September, 1862, at Harper's Ferry, and not hereinafter mentioned, and all deliveries of prisoners up to November 11, 1862, made to the United States authorities in the Peninsula and its adjacent waters, are included in this exchange.

Second. All officers and enlisted men captured and paroled at Santa Rosa Island, October 4, 1861.

Third. All officers and enlisted men captured and paroled at Chambersburg, Pa., October 4, 1862.

Fourth. The Seventy-first Ohio Volunteers, captured at Clarksville, Tenn.

Fifth. Officers and enlisted men captured at South Mills, N. C.

Sixth. One hundred and four non-commissioned officers and privates belonging to the Second United States Cavalry, First United States Infantry, Sixth United States Cavalry, Second United States Artillery, Third United States Infantry, Sixth, Eighth, Tenth, Eleventh, Twelfth, Seventeenth United States Infantry, Fourth and Fifth United States Artillery, sent from Annapolis, Md., to Fort Columbus, N. Y., October 4, 1862.

Seventh. All officers and enlisted men captured at or near Richmond and Lexington, Ky., by the forces under the command of General E. Kirby Smith.

Eighth. All officers and enlisted men delivered to Captains Lazelle and Swan, on the 1st, 5th, 7th, 12th, and 26th of September, 1862, and the 18th of October, 1862.

Ninth. All officers and enlisted men paroled at Cumberland Gap, on the 2d and 11th of October, 1862.

Tenth. All officers and men of Indiana troops captured at Mumfordsville, Ky., September 17, 1862.

Eleventh. Company A and Company F, 5th New York Artillery; detachment of 8th New York Cavalry; 39th, 111th, 115th, 125th, and 126th Regiments New York Volunteers; all captured at Harper's Ferry, and now at Camp Douglas.

Twelfth. All officers and men of Rigby's and Von Seplen's Indiana batteries taken at Harper's Ferry.

All paroled officers and soldiers who come under any of the foregoing classes, now absent from the several camps of rendezvous established in par. 3, of "General Orders," No. 72, of 28th June, from the War Department, whether with or without leave, except in cases of sick leave, granted by the proper authority, will immediately repair to camps as follows, viz: Those in New England to Camp Joe Hooker, Lakeville, Mass.; those in New York and Pennsylvania to the Camp at Elmira, N. Y.; those in Ohio to Camp Wallace, near Columbus; those in Illinois to Camp Butler, Ill.; those in Michigan to Camp Backus, Mich.; those in Wisconsin and Minnesota, to Camp Randall, near Madison; and all others in Western States to Camp Benton, Mo.

The Commanders of the several Camps named, except Camp Wallace, O., Camp Parole, at Annapolis, and Benton Barracks, Mo., will, from time to time, as sufficient numbers are assemblies forward them to the General Camps established in "General Orders," No. 70, Camp Wallace being substituted for Camp Chase.

The paroled troops in Indiana, absent from Camp Morton, or other camps established by Governor Morton, not on sick leave, will immediately repair to the camps at which their regiments are stationed, or to Camp Morton, if the regiment is in the field. The regiments at these camps will receive special instructions.

Military Commandants and Recruiting Officers in the different States will furnish transportation to all paroled officers and soldiers who are to report under this order, and will furnish the names of all persons so provided, with the amount paid for each, to the Commander of the Camp to which they are sent, who will forward it, adding any additional amount furnished for transportation, to the Commander of the General Camp, to be finally entered upon the company rolls, unless it is shown that the absence was authorized. The transportation thus paid by Recruiting Officers will be refunded by the Quartermaster Department.

Commanders of Camps temporarily established for the accommodation of paroled troops, who are now exchanged, will immediately forward all who may be present to the nearest of the General Camps above named.

II.—The following named citizens and employees of the army are also declared fully exchanged:

Roll of Federal Citizens, Prisoners of War, exchanged November 10, 1862.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, November 22, 1862.

I.—All persons now in military custody who have been arrested for discouraging volunteer enlistments, opposing the draft, or for otherwise giving aid and comfort to the enemy in States where the draft has been made or the quota of volunteers and militia has been furnished, shall be discharged from further military restraint.

III.—Persons who, by authority of the military commander or Governor in rebel States, have been arrested and sent from such State for disloyalty or hostility to the government of the United States, and are now in military custody, may also be discharged upon giving their parole to do no act of hostility against the government of the United States, nor render aid to its enemies. But all such persons shall remain subject to military surveillance and liable to arrest on breach of their parole. And if any such persons shall prefer to leave the loyal States on condition of their not returning again during the war, or until special leave for that purpose be obtained from the President, then such person shall, at his option, be released and depart from the United States, or be conveyed beyond the military lines of the United States forces.

III.—This order shall not operate to discharge any person who has been in arms against the government, or by force and arms has resisted or attempted to resist the draft, nor relieve any person from liability to trial and punishment by civil tribunals, or by court martial or military commission, who may be amenable to such tribunals for offences committed.

By direction of the President the following officers are dismissed the service of the United States :

Major D. Henry Burnette, Additional Aide-de-Camp, for absence without leave, breach of arrest, and other conduct unworthy an officer; to take effect October 19, 1862.

Captain P. H. Breslin, 18th Infantry, for drunkenness.

First Lieutenant T. W. Burton, 2d Cavalry, for misconduct.

First Lieutenant S. L. Carpenter, 17th Infantry, for desertion and embezzlement of public funds.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
 Washington, December 8, 1862.

In making out accounts for expenditures connected with the drafting and organization of the militia in the several States under the act of Congress, approved July 17, 1862, the following rules will be observed :

1. The accounts and vouchers must be in duplicate and receipted, and must be transmitted to the Adjutant General of the army, through the Governors of States, with such remarks as they may see fit to make upon them.

2. Each claimant will state distinctly in his account (see form) the items of charge for services or for supplies and all necessary expenditures made by him, for which vouchers must accompany the account.

3. ENROLLING OFFICERS, appointed by the Governors of States. Their accounts must state the number of days they were actually employed, and between what dates; the District; the number of names enrolled by them; and the gross amount of compensation.

These accounts must be certified by the Governor as reasonable and just, and forwarded by him. Under ordinary circumstances the compensation may be three dollars per diem.

4. COMMISSIONERS TO SUPERINTEND DRAFTING; "compensation four dollars per diem for each day actually employed." Their accounts must state the number of days actually employed, and between what dates; the number of names on the rolls transmitted to them; the number of men drafted; the number of men delivered at the camp of rendezvous; the location of the camp, and its distance from the county seat where the draft was made. These accounts to be approved and forwarded by the Governor.

5. EXAMINING SURGEONS; one for each commissioner. Compensation at the rate of four dollars per day if not commissioned in the United States Service. Their accounts must show the number of days they were actually employed, and between what dates; the number of persons examined; and must be certified by the commissioner for drafting as to the number of those who, on the report of the surgeon, have been exempted, and be approved and forwarded by the Governor. The surgeon must also add his affidavit that he has received no fees, or other consideration, from or on behalf of any person examined by him.

6. SURGEONS who examine drafted men for disability. Their accounts will state the time and date of actual service; the number of men examined; the number and names of men discharged; the reasons therefor; the compensation per diem; and will be approved and forwarded by the Governor, and be sworn to by the Surgeons, as in the case of "Examining Surgeons."

7. COMMANDANTS OF CAMPS. If already in the service of the United States, they will receive the pay of their grade in the service. If not in the United States service, their compensation will be at the rate of five dollars per day. Their accounts must state the number of days, and between what dates they were actually employed, the location of their camp, and its distance from their residence, and must be approved and forwarded by the Governor.

8. SUBSISTENCE of drafted men before going into camps of rendezvous. These accounts will be made by the parties furnishing subsistence, and will state the number of men subsisted each day, the date, the number supplied with cooked rations on leaving the county seat, and the number of days supply; also, the price of each ration. These accounts will be certified by the commissioner, and be approved and forwarded by the Governor.

9. TRANSPORTATION accounts will state the date, number of men transported to camps of rendezvous, and distance travelled, and will be certified by the commissioner in charge of the men, and be approved and forwarded by the Governor.

10. PERSONS DISCHARGED for disability or illegal draft, will be transported from camps of rendezvous to the county seat whence they came, on passes given by the commandant of the camp, stating name, date, cause of discharge, and distance travelled. These passes will form vouchers for transportation accounts, which must be certified as just and proper by the persons making the accounts, and be approved and forwarded by the Governor.

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, December 10, 1862.

So much of "General Orders," No. 195, of November 24, 1862, as dismisses Captain Hollon Richardson and 2d Lieutenant Christopher C. Lefler, 7th Wisconsin Volunteers, is hereby revoked, it appearing that those officers were tried and acquitted by a Court Martial for the offense for which they were dismissed.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 204. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, December 11, 1862.

On examination of the case of 1st Lieutenant Frank C. Goodrich, 2d Regiment U. S. Infantry, sentenced to be cashiered for misbehaviour before the enemy on the day of the engagement at Gaines' Mill, Va., June 27, 1862, which sentence was promulgated in "General Orders," No. 141, from the Headquarters Army of the Potomac, dated July 21, 1862, the President of the United States has been pleased to order that the said 1st Lieutenant Goodrich be restored to his commission in the 2d Regiment of U. S. Infantry, and that he be suspended from rank, pay, and emoluments, for six months from the date of his sentence. The President is moved to this act of clemency by satisfactory evidence, not before the Court, that the accused left his command on account of sickness.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 205. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,

Washington, December 12, 1862.

The General-in-Chief announces to the Army the death of Brevet Brigadier General SYLVESTER CHURCHILL, late Inspector General. He died in this city on the 7th instant, at the advanced age of eighty.

General CHURCHILL may well be called a soldier of the Old School. He entered the Army in March, 1812; was retained in the Artillery at the reduction, in 1815; appointed Inspector General in 1841; and was brevetted Brigadier General for gallant and meritorious conduct in the battle of Buena Vista, February 23, 1847. Between 1836 and 1841, he was employed as Acting Inspector General in the Creek and Florida wars; and was then commended by the Government for extraordinary vigilance and judgment. He was an exact disciplinarian, and an upright man; and the effect of his discipline and example, while commanding part of the column under General Wool on the march from San Antonio to Monclova, was conspicuous in his troops in the memorable battle which followed soon after, and in which he was personally so distinguished.

He has survived but a brief period the retirement from active service to which he was forced by the infirmities of age; a necessity which his patriotic and martial spirit deplored as coming in the time of his country's need.

In respect to the memory of the deceased, the officers of the Inspector General's Department will wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days.

BY COMMAND OF MAJOR GENERAL HALLECK:

E. D. TOWNSEND, Assistant Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 206. }

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, December 17, 1862.

I.—At a Military Commission, which convened at Norfolk, Virginia, December 2, 1862, pursuant to Special Orders, No. 177, dated Headquarters, Department of Virginia, 7th Army Corps, December 1, 1862, and of which Colonel H. T. SANDERS, 19th Wisconsin Volunteers, was President, was arraigned and tried Frederick Letz, teamster.

CHARGE.—“Murder.”

Specification—“In this; that said Frederick Letz, teamster, at Camp Hamilton, Elizabeth City county, Virginia, on the 22d day of September, A. D., 1862, did unlawfully and maliciously shoot and kill a colored man whose name is unknown.”

To which charge and specification the prisoner pleaded—

Of the Specification, “Guilty.”

Of the CHARGE, “Not Guilty.”

FINDING.

After mature deliberation on the evidence adduced, the Court finds the prisoner as follows:

Of the Specification, “Guilty.”

Of the CHARGE, “Guilty.”

SENTENCE.

And the Court does therefore sentence the said Frederick Letz, teamster, “to be hanged by the neck until he be dead, at such time and place as the Major General in command of the 7th Army Corps may direct, after the approval of this sentence by the President of the United States.”

II.—In accordance with the 5th section of the act approved July 17, 1862, the proceedings and sentence in the case of Frederick Letz, teamster, have been submitted to the President of the United States, and are by him approved.

WAR DEPT, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, December 17, 1862.

By direction of the President, the following additional Paymasters are mustered out of service, for the causes opposite their respective names:

Joseph A. Nunes—For making short payments; evading full settlements of just dues, and causing discontent and insubordination.

Howard Mathews—For being inaccurate and intemperate.

Henry Foote—For want of energy and efficiency.

James C. Yohn—For being in too feeble health for efficient field service.

John A. Lowry—Being in too feeble health for efficient field service since March.

William E. Hoy—Being in too feeble health for efficient field service since July 15; and for want of energy.

R. P. L. Barber—For inefficiency.

Nathaniel G. Wilcox—Incapacitated by old age and feebleness for field service; and for making false charges against the government.

Silas B. A. Haynes—Having been afflicted with insanity it would be improper to impose important responsibilities upon him.

Ezra Webb—Being too aged for efficient field service.

Richard O. Warrenner—Being feeble, old, and not fit for field duty.

Moses S. Gibson—Being sick and unfit for field duty, without prospect of recovery this winter.

BY ORDER OF THE SECRETARY OF WAR:

L. THOMAS, Adjutant General.

General Orders, {
No. 212. }

WAR DEP'T, ADJUTANT GENERAL'S OFFICE,
Washington, December 23, 1862.

I.—Hereafter the chiefs of the respective Bureaux in the War Department will designate the officers to be assigned as Adjutant General, Quartermaster, Commissary of Subsistence, and Inspector General for each Army Corps, in accordance with section 10, of the Act approved July 17, 1862. These officers will, when once assigned, remain permanently attached to their respective Corps without regard to the movements of Corps Commanders, unless otherwise assigned by the President.

II.—The Aides-de-Camp authorized for Corps Commanders by the act quoted above, will be appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, on the recommendation of the Corps Commanders. They may accompany the General for whom they were appointed in his change of duties or station; but when he is assigned to a command inferior to an Army Corps, their appointments as Aides-de-Camp for a Corps Commander will be revoked, and they will fall back upon the commission previously held.

III.—The Assistant Adjutants General of divisions and brigades will hereafter remain permanently attached to the commands to which once assigned; and will not be considered as part of the personal staff of the General on whose recommendation they were appointed.

All Assistant Adjutants General of Volunteers now off duty, or not on their appropriate duty with some corps, division, or brigade of Volunteers, will immediately report their names and address to this office, that they may be assigned to duty.

IV.—Hereafter, all applications by General Officers for the appointment either of Assistant Adjutants General, or officers of the Quartermaster or Commissary Departments, will be transmitted through the Headquarters of the Army to which they are attached, and will not thence be forwarded to this office, unless there are no disposable Staff Officers of the description asked for, who can be assigned by the Commander of the Army to the General Officer making application for them.

No General Officer will, therefore, be permitted to make such application while detached from, or, if newly appointed, until he shall have joined the Army with which he is to serve.

V.—The only members of their Staff whom General Officers are authorized to take with them in future, when detached from, or otherwise leaving their commands, are their ordinary Aides-de-Camp—those selected in accordance with the Acts of July 22 and 29, 1861, sections 3 and 4 respectively, and of July 17, 1862, section 10.
